

RICHMOND HILL . . .

The Liberal is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1105 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Children baptized at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church last Sunday were: Richard Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Francis, Lawrence Avenue; Sharon Lee and David Brian, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gemmill, Ruggles Avenue; and Lorie Gall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Gregg, Richvale. Bibles were presented to all by the 3rd Sunday School.

The guest speaker at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening will be Miss Melody Harrison. She will narrate the highlights of her recent European journey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grosvenor, formerly of Crosby Ave., Richmond Hill, have taken up residence at Scarborough.

Success marked Richmond Hill's annual "Mothers' March of Dimes", resulting in the collection of $864.00, with 100% of this amount turned over to the Polio Foundation. This year is the third in succession that the local Kinettes have sponsored the "March", with Chief Marching Mother, Mrs. Jack Williams, and committee comprising Mrs. Peggy Donaldson, Mrs. Laurie Gemmill, Mrs. Lorraine Swanson, Mrs. Muriel Flagger, Mrs. Marge Shields were aided by the Kinettes, who during their house-to-house calls, wore placards inscribed, "Tonight, I am a Mother".

Following several months of organizing, planning routes, time schedules, etc., 72 canvassers made their calls in this area on schedule, from 7 to 9 p.m. on the evening of January 31. Helped by previous publicity, the collectors were greeted cheerfully, many residents having switched on their porch lights, and had their contributions ready.

Thanks from the committee are extended to all those who so generously contributed, and to all "Marchers" in Richmond Hill and in the subdivisions for their efforts in making this march a success; also to Mr. Harry Bawden, who, as in previous years, was roused at 11 p.m. to cheerfully deposit the evening's collections in the vault of the Bank of Nova Scotia. Amounts realized from the "Mothers' March of Dimes" in previous years were $420.00 in 1955, while $680.00 was collected in the 1956 march.

Miss Patricia Price celebrated her 11th birthday by entertaining friends in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arnold Price, Fernhill Circle, with a dual party, including a skating party at the Richmond Hill Arena, on Saturday, February 2. At home, with balloons and all the festive trimmings, games, charades, and refreshments were enjoyed by all. Patricia's guests included Barbara Taylor, Heather Castle, Beverly Bellis, Judy and Cheryl Rimmer.

The Well Baby Clinic will be held on Monday, February 11, at 1.30 to 3.00 p.m. — at the Public Health Centre, 50 Yonge St. North. Immunization will be continued under the auspices of the Richmond Hill Women's Institute.

Chester's Column

There are three simple, straightforward things you should demand to know before you buy any fabric.

You'll want to be satisfied on the three points, that is, if you ever want to have the suit, or dress or curtains cleaned. If you're content just to let them get dirty, then it doesn't make much difference.

The three questions are: Is it pre-shrunk? Is it fast dyed? Is it resistant to heat?

Most fabric will pass the test, it's the unfortunate exceptions that cause the woe.

Wearing apparel, if it is to be cleaned successfully, should also be able to take a small amount of moisture or steam. This is necessary because only moisture will dissolve such stains as sugar or perspiration.

The color-fast rule is especially important with the pastel shades of greys, browns and blues. These are the colors most affected by the sun, atmospheric gases and moisture.

The resistance to heat is necessary, of course, so that the fabric can be pressed. Steam pressing won't put a shine on the cloth, but the cloth has to be designed to accept the pressing.

None of these problems will concern you, however, if you take the simple precaution of asking "can it be dry cleaned?" before you buy. The label will usually tell you; if not the store should be able to say. If not, don't you be the guinea pig.

And when it comes time for cleaning, you know where to bring it for expert and individual attention.

Teen Town

At last week's "Hillbilly Hoedown", the keyword of the whole evening was informality. Square dances did well to set a country atmosphere, and the games gave much enjoyment to both the participants and the spectators. One of these in particular, an elimination dance, was a real test. While holding hands the couples were required to dance, crawl, or wriggle under a bar while every so often it was brought down lower and lower.

A gift from CFRB radio station of 12 records gave good variety to the dancing. Mr. Butlin told of the opening of a new Teen Town that he attended in Summit Heights, Toronto. We can only hope they will be as fortunate as ourselves in setting up such a group.

Tune in next week for details on the coming Teen Town.

CGIT Doings

At our last meeting our mission study took us to the Philippine Islands and we were surprised to learn that 90% of the people were Christians. They also have 4-H clubs where boys and girls learn to take care of cattle as they do here in Canada. As well as teaching Christian work, the missionaries teach the people about medicine since most of them live on islands far from the help of a nearby doctor.

Mrs. Paton's group enacted a skit to illustrate the life and interests of an average Philippiner. Last Sunday, our CGIT girls went to church as a group in our uniforms. This was to symbolize Canadian Youth Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Brooks are seen above following their marriage in Richmond Hill United Church. The guard of honour is formed by four members of the Peterborough Pipe Band. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. C. G. Higginson. The bride is the former Elizabeth Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Garner of Langstaff while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brooks of Campbellford. — Lagerquist

Lion Doings

The boys and girls committee of the Richmond Hill Lions Club have this season sponsored a very successful Teen Town Club. This club meets on the First and Third Saturday evenings each month at the Lions Hall. Membership is confined to the Richmond Hill High School area, with Mill Road being the southern boundary. The age of members is from 13 to 19 inclusive. The directors of the club are Lions Ed. Butlin and John Wynn, with Dr. Wynn as chairman. Mrs. Ed. Butlin is the programme convenor.

While dancing is popular at these meetings the programmes are not confined to dancing but are varied, including singing, skits, orchestra practice, etc., whatever the majority want. Recent guest orchestras have been from the Eastern High School of Commerce and a group from Aurora. Members of the club may invite guests from outside the area to their functions, but they are responsible for their guest behaviour, and there are rather rigid rules regarding this behaviour. Membership is about 200.

An interesting aspect of this club is that it is practically self governed. While the directors act in a supervisory capacity the rules and regulations are made and enforced by the members. Among their functions this season was a semi-formal New Year's Eve party attended by about 200 boys and girls. Once a month a Rose Award is presented to the teen-ager whom the members feel is the most worthy of recognition. One award was given to the girl "who was always willing to help whenever asked," and one to a boy who took over his father's business when the father was stricken with a heart attack.

The news of the successful operation of this club has gone abroad and enquiries have come from groups interested in forming a similar club in Stouffville, Summit Heights (Avenue Road and Highway 401) also a letter was received from Victoria, B.C. This letter was the result of a broadcast on radio CFRB of a group from the Richmond Hill Teen Town Club.

The latest group to be formed is a Junior Teen Town called "Circle 8" who like to dance. These boys and girls are from Grades seven and eight of the public schools, and they meet every second Wednesday. The thought is that who will in time be "Teen-Towners," and they are being grounded in the rules of good behaviour that are necessarily observed if they are to become members of the senior club.

Guide Notes

The highest Guide honour, the Gold Cord, was awarded to Angela Robinson of the Second Richmond Hill Guide Company, Commissioner, Mrs. E. Redelmeier, made the presentation at the regular Guide meeting Tuesday evening at the Lions Hall. District Commissioner Mrs. H. Currie was present as well as captains and lieutenants of other companies. Angela is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Robinson of Church Street.

Your Garden & Mine

As their first speaker of the 1957 season, the Richmond Hill Horticultural society was happy to secure an old friend of the society and an eminent authority in his field. Mr. John Clark, Assistant Director of the Horticultural Societies of Ontario has recently returned from the Orient, where he conducted a group of horticulturists on a tour of the gardens.

Other outstanding pictures were those of the shrine at Nikko, the houseboats on the Yangtze, the market at Bangkok and some charming interiors of a Japanese home, showing delightful flower arrangements and a charming hostess in gay kimono and obi.

Introduced by Mr. Robert D. Little, the speaker painted a vivid word picture of the many lands visited, later illustrating his remarks with beautiful coloured slides. Indeed, Mr. Clark observed keenly, not only the horticulture and landscapes, but the people, their homes and mode of life in Japan, China, Thailand, Malaya, Singapore and other islands of the East.

He commented on their use of stone and water as settings and on their way of taking every advantage of picturesque backgrounds of hills and trees. There was one gorgeous shot of Mt. Fujiyama with blossoming fruit trees in the foreground.

Mr. Joe Patterson was the winner in the draw, which is a frequent feature of the meetings, and received a very attractive bird bath.

MORLEY'S

Scout & Cub News

From Akela Fred Howard we hear of C Pack and how busy these cubs are. John Mowat is now Sixer of the Blue Six and Allan Howard is second. There are four new Chums, Robert Jones, John Webster, Terry Dunn and Robert Bellis. The Toy-makers badge has been earned by John Macallum, Ian Ross, Jamey Macanuel and Mike Flannigan. The rest of the boys are working hard on their First or Second Stars.

This week Mr. Russ Tilt will again help the Scout cause by showing the pack a film on birds and trees. No doubt Mr. Tilt will be telling the boys many other things about trees and birds which cubs love to know.

The Rovers are at last making real progress on obtaining a den. A well-wisher in Richvale has offered a suitable building which the boys are busily planning to rehabilitate for their purposes. The Rovers and Bob Butler their "counsellor" want to thank the others who have offered the boys a place for their den.

At the Winter Meet to be held on February 15 and 16, our Rover Troop are to be responsible for the campfire period on Saturday, February 15.
