W.M.S.

When the new York Presbyterian of the W.M.S. of the United Church was inaugurated on Tuesday of last week at Richmond Hill United Church, Headford was represented by Mrs. Hugh Deverell and Mrs. Acreman. After the brief but very impressive ceremony, the new executive was elected. Following luncheon, the meeting was addressed by Mrs. McKillop, who stirred all present with the sense of solemnity and magnitude of the occasion. The new boundaries of the Presbyterian reach south as far as Steele's Avenue, with the exception of Thornhill and north to Sutton and Keswick.

Mrs. Acreman attended a luncheon in her honor on Wednesday last at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mel Jones, in Toronto. Later she was guest of Mrs. Stan Gay.

Mrs. Cummer Lee, Mrs. W. Wellman, Mrs. Freeman Barker, Mrs. Acreman and the George Barkers attended the meeting of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society last week, and report a very exciting illustrated talk by Mr. John Clark.

There was lots of fun for Headford youngsters on Saturday afternoon when Charlie Barker hitched up his team and took them for a sleigh ride. It had been postponed from the previous week but lost none of its thrill on that account. Twenty-nine children wound up at the church for hot cocoa, sandwiches and cookies, and voted it lots of fun.

Socials

Those who were in church on Sunday took great pride in our line up of Tyros, who were present at the service. Several of them had new shirts and all wore their T-badges. Mr. Huston was to have presented flashies, but the flashies had not arrived in time. Mr. Rumble, leader and Mr. Freeman Barker, his able assistant were wearing their smart uniform shirts.

Lorraine Acreman was present at a linen shower one evening last week, given by Mrs. Stan Beckford of Leaside for the bride of her husband's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hoey were recent visitors with Lorraine and Murray Acreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wellman and family and Mrs. Wm. Wellman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wellman and family to honor the birthday of their son, Philip.

Birthday congratulations to Mrs. Freeman Barker, celebrating next Sunday.

Headford W.A. will hold its February meeting on Tuesday evening next at the home of Mrs. Wes Middleton.
