ALTONA: Mervin Bunker accidentally locked the family pet collie dog in the new home he is building on the day before New Year's Day. The dog returned home with a cut nose and the family soon found out why. The pet had chewed and clawed at every window and door and wall in the house and had finally jumped through a plate glass window. The damage will cost about $1,000 to repair. The Bunkers also have another pet — a smaller collie.
