Metro Conservation Authority To Help With Reforestation

The reforestation of marginal and sub-marginal land in the Etobicoke, Mimico, Humber, Don, Rouge, Duffin, Highland and Pickett Creeks was given a substantial boost by the adoption of a private reforestation assistance program by the Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority.

The Authority is prepared to plant trees purchased by landowners from the Dept. of Lands and Forests, on private lands and will provide the men and equipment to plant the trees by machine at a cost of $5.00 per thousand trees to the landowner. The Authority will pay a subsidy of $10.00 a thousand for trees planted by hand by landowners, or if the Authority provides a crew for hand-planting, will charge $10.00 a thousand.

The planting of Scotch Pine is limited to one Scotch Pine out of ten of all other species. This policy was adopted since it was felt that Scotch Pine were being planted for Christmas Trees, and they are not generally desirable for permanent plantations.

The program has been adopted as a means of accelerating the reforestation of 30,000 acres of marginal and sub-marginal lands located in the watersheds under the jurisdiction of the Authority.

The Department of Planning and Development has recommended that these areas be planted to trees to conserve soil and water. Complete information on the program can be obtained from the Authority office located at Woodbridge. Phone ATLAS 8-0161.

Traffic Signs Important In Cutting Accidents Says Chief

"One of the easiest ways for the people of Vaughan Township to cut down the number of traffic accidents," Chief Constable R. C. Mosher told "The Liberal" this week, "is to recognize, understand and follow traffic signs, signals and road markings." "Each year throughout the province, thousands of easily avoidable collisions take place in which, too often, people are injured or killed, simply because a driver or pedestrian failed to obey a traffic sign, signal or marking," he said. "Pedestrians attempt to cross against red lights, drivers cause head-on collisions when they cross solid white line road markings. Others attempt to pass on hills and curves in violation of warning signs. And a good many drivers neglect the simple precaution of signalling turns and as a result, set up accident-producing situations," said Mr. Mosher.

Stressing the value of observing the road signs, Vaughan's Police Chief said, "All signs have the single purpose of providing information about the road ahead to enable a driver to adjust his speed and direction to suit his needs. To neglect or disobey a sign is to invite disaster. In doing so, a driver denies himself the protection and guidance which careful traffic engineering has provided for him." Signs Important

"In the same way, it has long since been proven that signals to show a driver's intention of turning, slowing or stopping, make driving more convenient and prevent accidents," he said, adding, "It is for these reasons that the Highway Traffic Act requires that signals must be given for right or left turns and stopping. They can be given by hand or a signalling device. Such signals have the effect of a special sign erected just at the spot and just at the time a change in the traffic pattern is about to take place."

Check Cars
"But just as a driver must be responsible for the sound operating condition of his vehicle, when he relies on a signalling device he must be sure that it is working properly and that he uses it properly. A driver can be in serious danger if he has actuated a turn signal that fails to work. Similarly, when a driver fails to turn off a signal after he has completed the signalled turn, he can easily become a dangerous nuisance," warns the Chief.

"Safe passage on our streets and highways," Chief Mosher points out, "will be a great deal closer to realization when each driver recognizes and obeys road signs and markings, and develops the important habit of signalling in advance all changes of speed and direction."

St. John's Women's Auxiliary
The St. John's Anglican Church Women's Auxiliary, Evening Branch, held their second meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Passmore on Thursday, March 11, with 12 ladies present.

Plans for a Bake Sale and Tea were discussed at this meeting. Although a date has not yet been set, it was decided that a Saturday in May would be most appropriate. Further details will follow.

After the Rev. D. C. H. Michell closed the meeting with prayer, tea was served by the hostess.

Square Dance
Three sets of square dancers and onlookers, enjoyed another evening of dancing at the Jefferson Public School on Friday of last week.

President Ron Browne announced that the last dance for this season would be a combination euchre and dance at the school on Friday, March 29, at 8:30 p.m. If you don't dance, come and enjoy an evening of euchre.

Someone has again smashed windows in the Carrville public school. Five panes were broken over the week-end. It is too bad people aren't taught more respect for public property.

School News
On Friday, March 15 in celebration of St. Patrick's day school mothers put on a short concert and refreshments to entertain the children. It was in appreciation of the many times Mr. Green and the children have entertained the parents. Mrs. B. Middleton was in the chair and Mrs. J. Baker was pianist. Mrs. Baker played a piano solo "Galloway Bay". Mrs. J. Nesbitt sang a solo "Irish Lullaby". Then Mrs. R. Manning told the life of St. Patrick the patron saint of Ireland. Everyone enjoyed this talk. Mrs. Nesbitt and Mrs. Baker sang a duet "Danny Boy". A song of children's hymns followed. Mrs. Bowstead led the children in some quiet games which the other mothers prepared the lunch. The children were given a fancy paper cup of canned milk.

Bob Manning thanked the mothers on behalf of Mr. Green and the children for the nice party. The school was nicely decorated for the occasion.

Women's Auxiliary
On Tuesday evening, March 12, the local group of the United Church Women's Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. R. J. Weaving, Meadowview Road. Mrs. E. J. Eddy was guest of honour. Proposed names for the group were discussed, and several projects were considered.

The Highland Park Women's Auxiliary met at the home of the president, Mrs. E. W. Axelsson, on Monday evening, March 18. This meeting was the largest to hold this year. Car pools were formed for the drive to the Cooking School on March 28; members are to meet that evening in front of Klimbit Pharmacy, at 7 p.m. to pick up their transportation. Tickets for the school are still available from members of the executive.

Mrs. Florence Goodyear was appointed as the W.A.'s representative to the Doncaster-Highland Park Recreation Committee, to replace Mrs. Penny Wilson, whose term of office has expired.

It was decided to hold the annual fall bazaar on October 5 this year, at the Veterans' Hall on Yonge Street. No convenor has been appointed yet, but other plans are well under way.

The W.A. also voted to give $25 to the newly organized group of Brownie Mothers, to defray this year's rental of Henderson Avenue School.

Socials
On Wednesday evening, March 13, the Highland Park Brownie Mothers met for the first time at the home of Mrs. Eagles, the Brown Owl for the local pack. Mrs. Sissons, the district commissioner, was present to get the organization under way.

Mr. E. Barnes of Woodward Avenue will act as chairman of the group for the remainder of the term, and Mrs. Allan G. Parker will assist her. It was voted that each mother would give $1 by May 1st, as it was felt that there was not enough time left for a money-raising project. It was announced that a second Brownie pack will be formed at Henderson this fall, and that a Guide troop under Mrs. Jewitt will also meet at the local school.

The Kindergarten for next fall is now being organized. Mrs. R. P. Stubley of Woodward Avenue will be chairman of the Committee.

Pre-school children will be able to start their polo shots on April 25, at the Thornhill Farmers' Market. Children from 6 months to 6 years will receive free injections of the alk vaccine, according to the following alphabetical schedule: Initials A to E inclusive, at 9 a.m.; F to K, 10:30; L to P 1:30 p.m.; and Q to Z, 3 p.m.
