S.S. No. 3 held a very hilarious and successful Hallowe'en party on Friday afternoon last. Many weird characters were on hand, and also some beautiful ones, but all costumes were ingenious.

That same evening the spooks showed up again in the Sunday school room of the church, with several more added. After the usual parade, prizes were awarded for the most original, the best comic, the best pair, the youngest person in costume and also the oldest. Games, in charge of Cora Brodie, provided lots of fun, which wound up with cookies and juice.

Rev. Mr. Burton asked the congregation to invite all ex-servicemen to the Remembrance Day service next Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Wellman entertained her son Allan and his family to dinner last Sunday.

Headford W.A. will hold its November meeting on Tuesday next in the church. Program is in charge of Mrs. Stan Clarkson and will feature a travelogue by Mrs. Berkinshaw. Bring your ballots filled out in order that the nominating committee may go to work. These ballots will be available at church on Sunday.

Mr. Freeman Barker and Mrs. Acreman attended the Monday evening session of the Teacher Training Course, currently being held in Unionville, under the auspices of the Religious Education Council of Markham Township.

Sitting quietly at home on the evening of November 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. Barnes of Woodward Ave. were pleasantly surprised by friends and relatives arriving to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. The party was planned by Mrs. Rex and Mrs. Ivany.

Captain Neil Munro of the Canadian Dental Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Munro of Grandview Avenue, has left for the Middle East, where he will serve with UNEF for the next year.

The Toronto Metropolitan Headquarters Boy Scouts' Silver Band will be featured at Richmond Hill's annual service of Remembrance to be held this Sunday afternoon. The band is now in its third year and is composed of Scouts from all over the Metro area.

The impressive service to the Dead of two World Wars will take place in front of the War Memorial located in front of the McConaghy School. Major the Hon. Kelso Roberts Q.C., M.L.A., will be the guest speaker this year.

Over 600 More Telephone
Subscribers In Richmond Hill

The old adage "You can't judge a book by its cover," holds especially true in the case of the latest edition of the telephone directory, now finding its way into homes and businesses in Richmond Hill. The directory looks the same as last year's, but inside are hundreds of new and changed listings.

J. C. Garside, Bell Telephone manager for this section of Greater Toronto said this week that telephone users should ensure that their "Blue Book of Telephone Numbers", or other personal lists, are brought up to date by comparing them with listings in the new directory.

"The new telephone book is for immediate use," said Mr. Garside. "To avoid confusion and loss of time subscribers are advised to discard their old issues without delay."

A total of almost 20,000 copies were needed for distribution throughout communities covered by the telephone book this year. This represents an increase of about 4,000 copies over last year's total and indicates a steady residential and commercial growth. In Richmond Hill alone, 3,415 copies are being initially distributed, as compared with 2,800 last year.

Besides telephone users in Richmond Hill, the new directory lists those in Newmarket, Markham, Oak Ridges, Aurora, Bradford, Sutor, Uxbridge, Mount Albert and surrounding territory.

Mr. A. C. Bowden, CNR station agent at Cardinal, Ont., and Mrs. E. La Barre of Brockville, Ont., were visitors this week with Mr. Wm. H. Banford and Mrs. B. Read.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hawkins who were married recently in the United Missionary Church, Gormley. Mr. Barry McWhirter had his appendix removed in St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto, last week and is now convalescing at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McWhirter.

One of our New Gormley readers wrote a report on her Hallowe'en callers — "We had quite an influx of Hallowe'en callers 'motored' in from Wilcox Lake, Oak Ridges and Musselman's Lake. These callers were of an age too small to walk to New Gormley. But they are learning the 'rocket' at an early age. Nevertheless we enjoy the kiddies."

Master Ronald McMullen had his appendix removed at York County Hospital on Friday of last week.

A number from our community attended the funeral service of Mrs. Chas. Hunking at Dundalk on Saturday. Mrs. Hunking has been in failing health for a number of years. The funeral was held at the MacMillan Funeral Home at Dundalk, with interment at Shelburne cemetery. All the members of the family were present except Rev. Willis Hunking of Share, Nigeria, West Africa. Sympathy is extended to Willis and Rev. C. E. Hunking in their loss.

Anniversary services were conducted at the United Missionary Church on Sunday. Rev. Kenneth Geigar, General Supt. of U. M. churches, from Elkhart, Indiana, was the guest speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLeary of Stouffville provided the music at the morning service and the Ladies' Trio from Bradford Memorial Church, Toronto, sang at the evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Doner will be farewelling at the Gormley United Missionary Church at 7.30 p.m. Sunday, November 10.

Wet Weather
Pheasant Hunters

The Pheasant Season in the Lake Simcoe District opened in a downpour of rain which continued through the opening day, Wednesday, October 23, and well into Thursday, October 24. Although a few stout hearted sportsmen ventured out during the rain, very few reported any hunting success, reports of the Department of Lands & Forests.

On Friday and Saturday with the sun again shining, the hunters took to the fields, and in Markham Township where birds had previously been reported plentiful, present reports by our field officer indicates only a fair shoot. Very few hunters used dogs, thus losing the chance, in many instances, of retrieving crippled birds. The overall picture at the moment seems to indicate this year's shoot will show fewer hunters in the field, with fewer pheasants harvested than in the previous year.
