Church News

Maple United W.M.S. met at the church parlours on February 19 with Mrs. A. G. Donald in charge. The devotional was given by Mrs. E. Hemphill and Mrs. H. Jennings on the theme "The Lord is my Shepherd", and Mrs. Donald and Mrs. D. Jarrett reported on a conference held recently in Aurora. Guest speaker was Mrs. C. H. Bowman, who addressed the members on the subject of the picture by Holman Hunt "Behold I stand at the door and knock". Refreshments and a social half hour closed the meeting. St. Andrew's W.M.S. held its February meeting at the manse on Tuesday night, February 18. The roll call was answered by including the word "light" in a quotation, and the devotional was taken by Mrs. J. Morris. Mrs. H. Constable read the scriptures, and the topic "Light in the Darkness" was taken by Mrs. J. Kingsburgh, assisted by Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Constable. Mrs. J. Kingsburgh also rendered a very lovely vocal solo, which was enjoyed by all. During the business session, plans were made for taking part in the World Day of Prayer, which was to be held at the United Church on Friday, February 21. Refreshments served by the committee rounded off the meeting.

Women's World Day of Prayer

Maple United Church was the scene of the annual observance of the Women's World Day of Prayer on Friday afternoon, February 21, in which Maple United, Anglican, Presbyterian and Sherwood Lutheran Churches all took part. Mrs. J. Kenley of the Anglican Church was in charge, in the absence of Mrs. B. Hayes, and prayers were read by representatives from each church. Mrs. E. Magee was in charge for the Presbyterians, Mrs. A. G. Donald for the United and Mrs. R. Percival for the Lutherans. Guest speaker was Mrs. Gilbert Robinson from St. Andrew's United Church in Toronto, and she spoke on the theme of the meeting "The Bread of Life". Music throughout was by Mrs. L. Wells, who took the place of the regular organist, Mrs. R. Clegg, who was absent through sickness.

St. Andrew's Mission Band met at the manse on Saturday afternoon for a work meeting during which they finished piecing blocks for the quilt the children are making. Joan Watt read the scripture, and the roll call was answered by naming a person in the bible.

There was a regular meeting of the Community Centre Board on February 19, at which committees were appointed as follows: Chairman Mr. J. Neufeld; in charge of bowling, A. Moore and J. Yorke; in charge of the hall, J. Neufeld and W. Drinkwater. The receipt of a $350 gift to the centre by the Maple Lions Club was gratefully acknowledged, and before spending this money it was decided to have a thorough stocktaking of all available furnishings and equipment, so that the money would be spent in the wisest way possible.

Honour Bride

Prior to her marriage to William MacTaggart on February 14, Marion Bishop of Vellore was given five showers and a troussau tea. One shower was given by her schoolmate, Miss Valerie Craddock, at her home in Richmond Hill, another by an aunt, Mrs. W. Barker at Richvale, another by her aunt, Mrs. Harvey Usher at Humber Summit, a fourth by the captain of the Vellore team of the K.V.W. Baseball League, Joan Heffron of Woodbridge, and a community shower at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. The troussau tea, given by her mother, Mrs. A. Bishop, was held on February 8. Pouring tea during the afternoon were Mrs. W. Hodgson of Kettleby, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. H. Hilliard of Kleinburg, aunt of the groom. In the evening, Mrs. H. Usher of Humber Summit, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. W. Ham of Laskay, great-aunt of the groom, poured. The couple are now residing at Strange, R. R. 2 King.

A Triple Trio

from the George Bailey School took part in the Toronto Kiwanis Festival on Tuesday, February 19, and received 78 points. While they did not place, they were only 4 pts. behind the winners.

The Maple Community and School Club will hold its annual meeting on March 5, at which reports by various committees will be heard. A new list of officers will also be presented by the nominating committee and will take over from the old executive at that time.

Thursday, March 6, is Baby Clinic Day at the Community Centre. Hours are from 1:30 to 3 p.m., and the clinic, which is run by the York County Health Unit, is sponsored by the Women's Institute.

Concord Socials

33 "Teens" At Dance

The second Teen Town dance held in the Concord School on Friday of last week was a huge success, being attended by 33 teens in their finest form. Good going "Teen-agers".

Parents' Night at the Concord School will be in conjunction with the March Home & School meeting to be held a week earlier than usual to coincide with Education Week. The teachers have been busy making movie films and tape recordings of actual situations in their classes for the last few weeks. These will be shown and heard on the program for the evening. Teachers will be present in their classrooms.

What Happened to the Bowling this week?

Mactaggart - Bishop

The happy couple shown above were married in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Vaughan, February 14, 1958. The bride, the former Marian Bishop, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bishop, Maple, and the groom, William Mactaggart, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mactaggart, Nobleton, Ontario.

On Friday evening, February 14, 1958, at 7:30, Marian Eileen Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bishop of Maple, and William Robert Mactaggart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Mactaggart of Nobleton were united in marriage. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Bowman in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Vaughan. The church which was beautifully decorated with pink and white snapdragons was filled to overflowing as the wedding march played by Mrs. Earl Law commenced. During the ceremony, two lovely solos, "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" were rendered by Miss Ethel Burdige.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a ballerina length gown of white lace over white taffeta with a finger tip veil held by a rhinestone and pearl studded headpiece. She carried a cascade of red roses, white carnations and white hydrangeas.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Isabel Bishop as maid of honour and the sister of the groom, Miss Nancy Mactaggart as junior bridesmaid. They wore beautiful ballerina length gowns of crystal charm in shades of rose with matching accessories and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

G. Bailey Choir Wins 1st Prize

The George Bailey School won first prize with 84 pts. in class 274, rural school chorus (which takes in schools of four to six rooms) at the Kiwanis Musical Festival last Tuesday. The chorus was conducted by the school music supervisor, W. G. Rigler.

Nurse Mary Kenly Explains Mobile "Little Red Door"

The February meeting of the Maple Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society was held February 20, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Miller. The executive was fortunate in having Miss Mary Kenly, a resident of Maple, and a registered nurse with the Canadian Cancer Society, speak to them on the purpose of the Little Red Door.

Education Week Means Open House At Local Schools

Education Week starts March 3 and will be observed by the George Bailey School with an open house for parents on Tuesday night, March 4, from 7 to 9 p.m. The children's work will be on display in each room and all teachers will be in attendance to meet the parents.

Edgeley News Notes

Bowling

Team standings: Concord Jets 79, Concord Wildcats 62, Edgeley Aces 63, Edgeley Pinheads 62. The competition for second place will really be exciting as the Pinheads have moved up to tie for third, only one point behind second place. Orval Keffer subbed for Bea Boake and came up with 60; Willard Young subbing for Belva Howden got 57; Marion Waters subbing for Eleanor Atkin got 64.

Socials

Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Burns had dinner Sunday evening of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Calvert of Mimico. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Westbrook of Brantford, formerly of New Zealand, Mrs. Westbrook, a cousin of Mrs. Burns lived in New Zealand for 19 years. They showed many snapshots of their home and scenery of New Zealand.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ash attended the marriage of Miss Katharine Price of Holly to Mr. Alvin Murphy of Alliston on Saturday, February 22, in the First Baptist Church, Barrie. Miss Price is a cousin of Mrs. Ash. Due to the bad weather, the wedding was held up for a half hour while the bride with some difficulty made her way to the church.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Bagg

Monday afternoon were Mr. Jim Anning of Toronto, Mr. Jack Anning, Saskatchewan, and Mr. F. Worley, Toronto.
