

Richmond Hill

"The Liberal" is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1105 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

The Glen Elm Women's Institute will hold their next regular meeting in the home of Mrs. E. Phillips, 246 Baisdale Avenue at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday March 11th. Ladies devious of becoming members are assured of a very cordial welcome.

Three members of the local branch of the Canadian Tire Corporation, Mr. Alec Cruickshank, Mr. Harry Hill, Mr. Gordon Stephenson, attended the 3-day convention recently held in the company's head office, Toronto. Discussions centred on all phases of service, new design and distribution of parts to the consumer in this expanding automotive field.

Despite the stormy weather and a number of other local meetings last Thursday night, the Men's Club of St. Mary's Anglican Church had a good turnout of members at their regular monthly meeting in Wrixon Hall. The guest speaker, Mr. Fred C. Jackson, gave a very enlightening talk on "Brotherhood of Churchmen". The Rev. J. F. O'Neill also presented a brief inspirational message. The showing of colored films, followed by refreshments and a customary half hour of social chat, rounded out the February meeting of the Men's Club.

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday last the following children received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism: David James Mirreles, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mirreles, and Wendy May and Shirley Ann Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wells, all of Richmond Hill.

The classrooms and halls at McCopagh School were as gay as a carnival last Friday night when parents and children enjoyed their night out together.

In spite of the unfavourable weather, the attendance was gratifying and all thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment provided.

The featured entertainer of the evening was Ted Rust, a ventriloquist from Toronto. He entertained his audience with a chapter of comedy between a dummy and a snake, which added to the merit of his performance.

The door-admission prize of a General Electric frying pan was won by Robert Graham, Church Street S. Mrs. T. Jansen, Roseville Avenue, held the lucky ticket on the doll with the genuine mink coat and Terry Ideson, Church Street S., won the Boy's Catcher's Mitt. There were many other lovely prizes won at various booths. The proceeds totalled approximately $400.00 net, with more specific details to be given at the March 26th general meeting.

The McCopagh Home and School Association extends sincere thanks to all those who gave their wonderful support in the "Space Night" project.

At an afternoon tea Thursday February 27th, the Grade Mothers of the Beverley Acres Home and School Association entertained the principal and teaching staff of the Beverley Acres Public School. Principal Grant Nighswander outlined and discussed with the group, arrangements made for "Open House" during Education Week. Convener for this social event was Mrs. Margaret Smith, assisted by Mrs. Vi Haggart, Mrs. Thelma Cambrey, and Mrs. Muriel Benfield.

Prior to the wedding in Parry Sound of Miss Joyce Phillips to Mr. Bruce Pyle, Joyce was the recipient of a lovely gift, which was presented to her on February 27, by Mr. M. Williamson on behalf of all employees of Everbright Ltd., Centre Street east. She then cut a beautiful cake, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Castle, who handed portions around for all to enjoy. After the wedding, the couple will return to Richmond Hill to live.

The Well Baby Clinic will be held on Monday, March 10, at 1:30-3:00 in the Public Health Centre, 50 Yonge St. North. Immunization will be continued and the polio vaccine available under the auspices of the Richmond Hill Women's Institute.

The attendance at the Sunday school and church service in the newly formed Richmond Hill East Anglican Parish Church was doubled for the second service in its history. For the first time, a choir took its place in the church and plans are under way for practice from week to week. It is also planned to start a junior choir.

Following the service it was decided to have the senior Sunday School at 10 a.m. and the junior Sunday school and junior congregation at 11 a.m. to enable the parents to attend the morning service. There will be a class for the 5 and 6 year olds at 10 a.m. as well. It was felt the support was so great that a Vestry meeting must be held as soon as possible. This will be on March 12 in the banquet room of the Bayview Plaza restaurant at 8 p.m. This will be a meeting of singular importance, since not only will a full executive be set up, but a name will be chosen for the church. It is planned to have a name distinctive from the other 300 Anglican churches in the Diocese. On March 11, at 8 p.m. a meeting of all the ladies is arranged to organize a branch of the Women's Auxiliary. The meeting will be held in the Rectory, 407 Lynett Crescent, Beverley Acres. Mrs. S. Snively, Diocesan President of the Women's Auxiliary will speak.

Mrs. MacWhirter's class in the MacKillop school heard the killer-deer cry on Tuesday morning, as the harbinger of Spring flew over the school.

The friends of Mr. Elgin ("Tubby") Barrow of Centre St. West will regret to learn that he is in Newmarket Hospital, from injuries received from an automobile collision on Yonge Street, Aurora, Tuesday evening. Mr. Barrow, who suffered a broken nose, is awaiting the results of X-Rays, and in the meanwhile, the best of wishes go to Mr. Barrow for a speedy recovery and an return home.

The first "Father & Son" banquet of the 1st Beverley Acres Cub and Scout Troop proved an enjoyable and gratifying success to the organizers and to those present in the banquet hall of the Bayview Plaza Restaurant. Last Friday night, guests at the head table included Mr. T. Harington, D.C.M., Mr. L. May, D.C., Mr. J. Turner, D.S.M., Mr. Joe Derrick, Chairman, also Jeff Burton, Rev. J. Burton, and Mr. J. L. Hudson of the Department of Lands and Forests.

Present also were seven scout and cub leaders, 41 scouts, 21 scout fathers, 58 cubs and 65 scout fathers. Awards for "Best Scout Patrol for 1957" was presented to the Lynx Patrol (members Jeffrey Izzard, Bryan Davies, Tom Arch, Ken Peters, Tom Newmark, Jim Mieske, Bernie Jenkins, Harton Amos, Dick Chapman. The award for "Best Scout for 1957" was presented to Harton Amos, with Larry Oetler securing the award for the cub selling, the most Christmas cards, and Robin Derrick winning the award for the scout selling the most cards. 2nd class badges were presented to Robin Derrick and David Amos. The cub instructor's badge was presented to Miss N. Smith, and various badges to cubs. The Charter was presented to Chairman Joe Derrick by Mr. May. Awards were also presented to Scoutmaster Mr. Norman Foster and to Mr. Harry Whitaker, Cubmaster for their unselfish efforts in organizing this boys' group.

The Richmond Hill Branch No. 375 of the Canadian Legion, combined with the Ladies' Auxiliary to hold a very enjoyable and successful joint initiation and social evening on Tuesday night at the Legion Hall, Centre Street. In opening the meeting, President Will Sutcliffe welcomed four new lady members, Mrs. Ann Hough, Mrs. Fay Weir, Mrs. Shirley Carter, Mrs. Irene Hanna, also five new members in the men's division, Frank Fisher, Bill Berwick, Bernard Corliss, Harold Hadean, and James Coulter.

Initiation teams from the Woodbridge Men's Branch engaged in the initiation ceremony, together with Past President, Mr. William Cox, Mr. Stan Knapp, Mr. Charles Rodaway, Mr. R. Hepburn and Mr. Cliff Edwards. Members from the Woodbridge Ladies' Auxiliary included Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Knapp. A very enjoyable period of dancing followed, with refreshments which were in the capable hands of conveners Mrs. Phyllis Stockert and Mrs. Margaret Broom.

The Auxiliary learned with regret of the sudden passing of Mr. Charles Beale in London, England, father of Mrs. Gloria Sandford, Auxiliary president, who on receipt of a cable at 9 a.m., departed by air at 2 p.m. the same day. In the absence of Mrs. Sandford, the second vice-president, Mrs. Ida Ellis will preside.

The "History of St. Mary's Anglican Church" has just been completed by Mrs. P. C. Hill of Richmond Hill, and has been published in attractive book form. This should be of great interest to those who are associated with St. Mary's, as well as to former parishioners who are resident elsewhere. Those wishing to obtain copies may do so from the People's Warden, Mr. Harry Stanford.

Mrs. Helen Pipher of the Mainprize Drug Store, Richmond Hill, has returned from Toronto where she has been attending the Elizabeth Arden School of Beauty and Fashion, held at the Royal York Hotel under the direction of Miss Stoyke. The three-day session included care of various types of skin, methods of treatment of problem skins, correct use of perfume, new ideas in use of make-up as originated in Miss Arden's New York and Paris salons. Mrs. Pipher has received a diploma attesting to her successful completion of studies at the Elizabeth Arden School of Beauty and Fashion and looks forward to being of even greater assistance to Elizabeth Arden clients at Mainprize's Drug Store.

The Women's Association of St. Matthew's United Church held their regular business meeting on Tuesday, March 4. Mrs. R. P. Robbins led the devotional, also providing the piano accompaniment. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. A. Leroux. A very interesting account of the Presbytery meet held recently at Sutton, was given by Mrs. R. P. Robbins, who attended, accompanied by Mrs. E. L. Wright and Mrs. B. Knight. Guest speaker for the evening, Mrs. W. W. Patterson, spoke on the subject "Mothers will determine whether Sunday will be a day of religion, or else?" The speaker thanked the group for the warm welcome accorded the Rev. William W. Patterson, herself and family on their arrival. The next meeting of the group is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. March 18, in the church, on Crosby Avenue east, to which all ladies are cordially invited.

The Young People's Association of St. Matthew's United Church held its regular meeting on Sunday, March 2. In addition to the guest speaker, the group engaged in a lively debate. The subject was "Should religion be taught in school," and the affirmative side won by 5-4. The girls redeemed themselves by winning the sword drill by a score of 7-3. Anniversary service will feature the next meeting, which will be held on Sunday, March 16, in the church at 7 p.m. The guest speaker will be the Rev. Dick Jones, the Chairman of the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews.

The annual service of the Women's Missionary Societies of the Richmond Hill United Church will be held on Sunday morning, March 9, at 11 o'clock, with Rev. Ernest E. Long, B.A., D.D., as speaker. Dr. Long, who has recently travelled in Korea and in Russia is the Secretary of the General Council of the United Church of Canada.

The Annual Ladies' Night of Richmond Lodge A.F. & A.M., No. 23 G.R.C. will be held on Wednesday evening, March 12th, at the Graystones, Aurora.

The Richmond Hill branch of the Women's Institute will hold their March meeting on Thursday, March 13, at 2 p.m. in the Municipal Hall. The convener for this meeting is Mrs. M. H. Burnie, and the guest speaker will be Mrs. Maynard of Unionville, who was the Women's Institute delegate to the A.C.W.W. at Ceylon.

CARD OF THANKS

Mere words are inadequate to express my gratitude to each and everyone who so kindly helped in the home, sent get-well wishes and flowers during my recent illness.

Thank you,
Edna Weldrick

In Memoriams

WIDEMAN: In loving memory of my dear father, Henry Wideman who passed away March 7, 1957.

He one we loved has gone to rest,
His fond, true heart is still,
The hand that always helped me
Now lies in death's cold chill.
When all is still and silent,
And sleep forsakes my eyes,
My thoughts are in the silent grave
Where my dear father lies.
Swiftly and silently came the call
Without goodbyes he left us all.
In God's garden now at rest,
Peacefully sleeping, lies the best.
— Sadly missed and always remembered by daughter Lucille and son-in-law Ernie. *1w36

WIDEMAN — In loving memory of my dear husband Henry Wideman, who passed away March 7, 1957.

We walked together, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy;
We shared our pains and happiness,
With love, without alloy;
And death shall never end our love,
For through the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the skies
For all eternity.
— Dearly loved and sadly missed by wife Ethel. *1w36

WIDEMAN — In loving memory of our dear grandpa, Henry Wideman, who passed away March 7, 1957.

We were not there, grandpa dear,
To see you die,
To hold your hand or kiss good-bye,
But will remember our whole lives through
The last few words we had with you.
— Ever remembered by grandchildren Marie and Lorne. *1w36

CGIT Doings

by Marilyn Burr
Following our regular opening we discussed plans for both the family party and the mother and daughter banquet. We went to our groups where plans were made for our craft projects. Individual groups worked on skirts or cancer dressings or their skirts which are to be presented this week at the party. All girls are reminded that the family party will start promptly this Thursday at 7.30. It will begin with a singsong and all mothers are invited.

Donaldson-Snider Nuptials

Radiant with happiness, Mr. and Mrs. Rae Donaldson are seen following their wedding which took place on Saturday, February 22, 1958, in Victoria Square United Church. The bride is the former Betty Snider, daughter of Mrs. Snider and the late Mr. John Snider, Victoria Square and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Arnleigh Heights. — Photo by Lagerquist
