The annual meeting of the Charles Howitt Recreation Association was held in the Charles Howitt school on Wednesday, February 26. The president, Mr. H. Smith, in his remarks mentioned the fine co-operation of the Township Area Board No. 1 Markham-Vaughan in allowing the association the use of the school grounds for summer activities, and the use of the washrooms for the summer-school.

Discussion on financing the association's projects brought forth the decision to have a yearly raffle as well as other means of raising money. There was also a discussion on whether or not to charge a small fee per family for children attending summer school, but no decision was reached on this point. It was decided to have a membership fee of a dollar per year and a membership committee was set up to handle this department.

Mr. Robert Kirk, Councilor, and Mr. Jackson Taylor of the school area board, spoke briefly. Mr. Kirk said he believed there should be closer co-operation between the association and the board of management of the community hall, and that the hall should be used for the benefit of the community as a whole. Nominations for office for the coming year, and officers will be selected from these names at the next executive meeting.

Neighbourhood bowlers, 200 over flat: Betty Campbell 207, Lou Brash 231, Lillian MacCallum 292, Muriel Markle 287, Lena Smith 218, Hazel Ludlow 230, Marge Barker 206, 222, Wanda Weir 211, Eleanor Edwards 244, 225. High three with handicap, Marge Barker 699.

HEADFORD
Correspondent:
Mrs. H. Acreman
R. R. 2 Gormley, Ont.
Phone Turner 4-2238

Mrs. Stan Gay, sister of Mrs. Acreman, entertained at luncheon on Tuesday of last week, for her three sisters, Mrs. Jack Gay and Debra were guests also.
Mrs. Wm. Hellman and Mrs. Acreman represented Headford at the Lenten study group at Brown's Corners Church last Wednesday evening. About 16 people were present. The study book is God and You by Dr. Edward Crag, and is the third in a group of study books.
After being announced for two Sundays an election of two new elders, replacing two who passed on last year, took place at the worship service at Headford on Sunday last. Mr. Freeman Barker presented the names of Mr. George Barker and Mr. Merrill Johnson. As there were no more names suggested from the congregation, Mr. Binnington announced them duly elected. There will be an induction for them and the one new steward, Mrs. Wes Clark, at the service next Sunday.

Of interest to many Headford folk, was the talk on C.B.C. radio at 10:20 o'clock last Sunday evening of Dr. Winnifred Bryce, who spoke on Outcasts in India. She told of her association with Dr. Ambedkar, who rose from being an outcast to become India's first native to get a B.A., and went on to become a lawyer. When India gained her independence in 1947, Dr. Ambedkar became Minister of Law, and had the signal honor of drawing up the Constitution of India. It is a country of 60 million outcasts yet; but except for such brilliant men as Ambedkar and Gandhi, conditions could be much worse. Of the original cabinet of 1947 only Nehru is still living.

Headford W.A. will meet for March on Tuesday next, March 11, in the Sunday School room. It had been intended to hold this meeting at the home of Mrs. Cummer Lee, who is in charge of the program, but it has been deemed advisable to change the place of meeting to the church. The theme of the meeting is "Together", and a good program is in prospect, with film strips, etc.

March meeting for the Victoria Square W.M.S. will be held at the home of Mrs. V. Westbrook next Wednesday afternoon at 2:15.
Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wellman visited Mrs. Marshall, who is at present convalescing in a nursing home, on Sunday last.
To help celebrate the birthday last week of Gordon and Gloria Lee, were their aunt and uncle, Harold and Kay McDougall, and Don English and his small son.
The Cummer Lees, with Fred Lee, and he family had Sunday dinner with Herb and Cille Lee and their family.
Birthday greetings to Margaret McDonald for March 5, and to Margaret Simpson for March 9.
