HEADFORD

Correspondent:
Mrs. H. Acreman
R. R. 2 Gormley, Ont.
Phone Turner 4-2236

Last week it was incorrectly stated that Rev. Binnington installed Melvin Wellman as one of the new elders of Headford Church. The item should have read that two new elders, Mr. Merrill Johnson and Mr. George Barker were elected and installed at the morning worship service on March 9, by Rev. A. F. Binnington. Mr. Melvin Wellman has been an elder of the church for a number of years now. Headford W.A. met on Tuesday evening last with a very good showing of members present. After the business session, during which one of the new hymn books was passed around, and the inscription to be put on the fly leaf decided upon; also a decision to have roll call answered by a scripture verse, the president, Mrs. C. Lee, announced her theme, "Together" This part of the service opened with the singing of an old Seth Parker hymn, "You go to your church, and I'll go to mine," followed by prayer by the president. An inspiring film strip on working and worshipping together was shown, followed by an instructive one on the co-operation and "togetherness" of Canada and the United States in constructing the Alaska Highway. Mr. Binnington, whom we were pleased to welcome with Mrs. Binnington, later remarked on the high tone of the meeting, and the enthusiasm and willingness of all the members of the W.A.

The president's mother, Mrs. McDougal of Toronto, conducted a "Shopping Tour" contest, while the hostess prepared lunch. After partaking, a hearty vote of thanks was given by Mrs. Wellman on behalf of all present for a very splendid evening. Mrs. Hugh Deverell and Mrs. Acreman represented Headford at the W.M.S. on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Westbrook in Victoria Square. Mrs. McRoberts and Mrs. Storey co-operated to present the final chapters of the study book. Later, Mrs. Collard, newly appointed secretary for Community Friendship, assisted by Mrs. McRoberts, gave a very amusing skit on how not to make a friendly visit. Earlier in the program Mrs. Mumberson read a poem by Jane Scott, relative to making visits. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Sandie served lunch. The next meeting will be the Easter Thankoffering, to be held in the church at Victoria Square, on Wednesday, April 9, at 2:30 p.m. when the W.M.S. will entertain the younger groups.

Last week-end, the Cummer Lees visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sherk and family; and on Tuesday and Wednesday last had as their guest Mrs. McDougal of Toronto. Cora and Margaret Brodie were both at Guelph this past week-end, going on Friday and Margaret on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Lee and family and Miss Bertha Lee were guests on Sunday of the Cummer Lees, in order to celebrate Bobby's tenth birthday. Birthday greetings to Sharon Bell, celebrating her birthday on Friday, March 21, the first day of Spring.

Speaking of spring, a rather ruffled looking robin has been seen in our neighborhood this week. We almost wish he had waited a little longer.
