Neighbourhood Notes

Elsie Hood and Donna Brigger were members of the rink which won the Chesborough-Pond Trophy for annual competition in the 7 Year Fillie Bouspiel recently. Elsie was skip.
Mrs. Douglas Hood left last Friday for a visit with her daughter Marion and son-in-law Jack Stephenson in Tako, Saskatchewan, and incidentally to get acquainted with her new grandson, Tommy.

Last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark visited Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Kennedy, former Agincourt friends, at their Washago home; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rodick motored to London to see Grace, and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson spent Sunday with Mrs. Stephenson's aunt, Miss Galbraith, who has been ill.

Beverly, was a prom-Princess when Thornhill High School held their annual formal recently. The theme of the evening was "Around the World in 80 Days."

Mrs. Charles Hooper and Mrs. Adam Brown were hostesses on Wednesday of last week when a reception was held in the Queen Elizabeth Building, Exhibition Park, for Premier Diefenbaker. Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Patterson attended the dinner for Solon Low, which was held at Casa Loma on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlop entertained the Buttonville Home and School executive at their home on Wednesday evening of last week. Plans were laid for a tea and bake sale in the school this Saturday afternoon. All members of the community are cordially invited.

Skating Party
Last Saturday afternoon the Brown's Corners Sunday School pupils piled into Norm Reid's bus and away they went to Unionville skating rink for an afternoon's skating party. Afterwards everyone returned to the church parlours for refreshments. Among those assisting at the party were Messrs. Wilfred Turner, Ross Hord and Walter Brumwell; Mrs. Walter Brumwell and Mrs. Norman Reid. Rev. A. F. Binnington skated with the party, but was unable to return to the church for the social hour.

W. I. Euchre
On Friday evening of his week, the last euchre game of the present series will be played at Buttonville Hall, and interest is high. The series winner will take home the grand prize, a turkey.
On Friday, March 14, there were 12 tables of players, and winners were: Mrs. Roy Woods, Mrs. Wm. Wray and Mrs. Geo. Kelly, Messrs. Ken Stots, H. Cunningham and Gordon Risborough. The lucky draw was won by Mr. James Curtis, and freeze-out winners were Messrs. Ken Stots and Wm. Muirhead against Mrs. George Kelly and Mrs. Cade. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. K. Stots, Mrs. E. Arnott, Mrs. G. Purves and Mrs. E. Walton.

Luncheon
On Tuesday of last week, the Brown's Corners W.M.S. were hostesses for a luncheon and executive meeting of York Presbyterial. There were approximately 40 women attending from the various points of the presbytery, with Dr. Margaret Arkinstall presiding. Mrs. Wm. Rodick, A. F. Binnington received the guests and dessert luncheon served in the church parlours at tables attractively laid with spring green placemats, yellow tulips and green and white candles. At the meeting which was held in the church proper, Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson sang a solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. A. W. Miller.

Mrs. Lak Entertains W.I.
On Thursday evening of last week, W. I. members were entertained by Mrs. Nell Lak at her John Street home. Mrs. Adam Brown presided in the absence of Mrs. Charles Hooper, and Mrs. James Rodick was secretary. During the brief business meeting a report of the District executive meeting was given by Mrs. F. H. Leaf. The program was provided by Miss Jean Lak, the hostess' daughter, who recently returned from Germany after spending 13 months teaching in a Girls' High School there. Miss Lak showed pictures of parts of Austria, the Bavarian Alps and Germany proper which are not often visited by tourists as well as beautiful views of the vineyards along the Rhine and the fairy tale castles which dot its banks. Her audience was most interested in the side-lights she gave of German home life. When the pictures were concluded Mrs. Lak and her co-hostess, Mrs. Elmore Hill served delicious refreshments.
