District Annual At Maple May 22 Sr. Women's Institute Meets

The regular meeting of Vellore Senior Women's Institute was held at Vellore Memorial Hall on April 1. The response to the roll call was to give a suggestion for next year's program. Many useful suggestions were brought forth. The business included arrangements for helping with a Cancer Society tea. Mrs. R. G. Burbridge brought a report from a district directors' meeting. The district annual will be held at Maple in the United Church on May 22. The York County rally will be held at Stouffville on July 3. Achievement Day for 4-H Club Members is to be held at Newmarket on April 26. The local leaders, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. J. Bryson, expect to have 23 girls complete the project, "Clothes Closets up to Date." It is Vellore's turn to give a report at the Conference held at Guelph at the District Annual. The motto for the meeting was "Use Opportunity, it is the gateway to Success." Mrs. Constable read a poem for Miss Gooderham entitled "A Package of Seeds," and an article showing the many uses of flowers. Mrs. Carson read a poem, "Blessed are they" by Edna Jacques. Mrs. J. Snider, for Mrs. W. Snider, gave an interesting article regarding the profiles of British Monarchs on coins, also an article about various ideas of nice sleep. The President, Mrs. A. Bishop, declared all offices vacant. The following were elected for 1958-1959: President, Mrs. A. Bishop; 1st vice-president, Mrs. H. M. Duff; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Geo. Bridger; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. F. Constable; assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. A. Cameron Jr.; district director, Mrs. G. Burbridge; alternate district director, Mrs. N. Kerr; branch director, Mrs. Ila Farr; Mrs. Geo. Old; Mrs. Thos. Seed; pianists, Mrs. W. Bryson, Mrs. J. Bryson; flower committee, Mrs. H. M. Duff; Mrs. A. Cameron Jr.; Mrs. R. Lions Anniversary
The Maple Lions Club celebrated their 10th anniversary last Thursday with a Ladies' Night, at which District Governor Jack Bentham of Thornhill and Deputy District Governor Edgar Piercy of Schomberg were present. Lion Ross Knight gave the toast to the ladies, which was answered by Mrs. Kirby Brock. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of certificates by Mr. Bentham to the Charter members present, which were: Donald Allen, Hilliard Brian, Eric Brice, Dr. Ray Bigford, Howard Knight, Ross Knight, Cal Miller, John Neufeld, Dr. Clem Reeds, Andy Snider, Art Wells, Lorne Wells, and Dr. Archer Wallace (not present). A minute's silence was observed in memory of those charter members who had since died. Following the dinner there was a dance and entertainment by the band.

St. Paul's W.M.S.
The Young People of St. Paul's met at the church basement on April 10th. A few ladies came in the morning to complete some quilts, while the meeting took place in the afternoon, presided over by Mrs. T. Taylor. Mrs. G. Burbridge led in prayer and read the scripture, and Mrs. M. Duff took the study book. During the business session the ladies agreed to buy pins for the Mission Band.

The Young People of St. Paul's met at the home of Bob Kerr Sunday night under the topic "Missions." The program was "Why force our faith on others?" and this was taken by Isobel Bishop, Diane Stiff and David Rutherford. The prayer was taken by Rev. C. H. Bowman and the scripture read by Bob Kerr. The next meeting, which will be the last of the season, will be held at the home of Ethel Burbridge.

Carole Keffer celebrated her twelfth birthday on April 8, but due to a cold did not entertain until Saturday, April 12. She took Judith Hallawell and Barbara Orr to the Park Theatre where they saw Walt Disney's "Perli". The girls returned home with Carole for a birthday supper.

Mrs. Douglas Keffer has returned home from the hospital with new daughter, Patricia. Bowling Report for April 11: Marion McKay, bowling 710 triple with a flat single of 256, did a fine job in helping the Wildcats beat the Pinheads two games to one. Jim Atkin bowled 637 flat, with team mates Lil Bryce, Carol Reid and Roy Espy bowling 600 plus triple scores. The Jets just managed a win over the Aces, Warren Bailie and Eva Rummy making over 600, while Jack Fitzgerald, substituting for Elizabeth Bailie and bowling flat, turned in a 701 triple with a 326 single.

Hold First Annual Banquet Awards Made To Junior Bowlers

Forty-two children, all members of the Maple Junior Bowling League, were spruced up and ready to enjoy a lovely luncheon at the Graystones in Aurora last Saturday. The occasion was the first annual banquet and presentation of trophies, and a wonderful time was had by all. The annual trophies, which will change hands each year, were donated and won by the following:

The Maple Electric trophy for winning team was won by the "Sharpshooters," Capt. Lester Downing, with members Marty Gilmore, Gary White, Jo-Anne Mains, Grant Meikle, Shaaron Wismer, John Rumble, Evelyn Palmer, Greg Shore and Mike Weir. The Grandia Trophy for Boy's High Average score went to Clarence Palmer with 166; The Pete's Garage trophy for High Two Games Flat went to Gary Mathewson with 378 and the Lloyd Palmer trophy for High Single Game Flat to Lester Downing with 274; The Superior Propane Trophy for Girls High Average score was won by Diane Nicholson with score of 136; the J. A. Spencer C.I.A. Insurance trophy for High Two Games with handicap went to Lynne Jackson with 406 and the Annie Lawrie trophy for High Single Game with handicap went to David Old with 242.

This was the first year for the Junior Bowling League, and all children are looking forward to next year's bowling with keen anticipation. Credit for this venture goes to Jim Hodgson, who organized the league, and to fellow Lions Bob Jackson and Ron Wismer, who took an active part in its operation.
