12 Sr. & Jr. N.H.L. Teams Represented At Banquet

A large crowd of "Little" N.H.L. players jammed the Richmond Hill Lions Hall on Friday, May 2, representing 12 teams in junior and senior pee wees. The coaches were on hand, taking an active part in the evening's entertainment, as the final wind up of the season got under way. Johnny Gropp, popular referee of the league games all season, was master of ceremonies. Johnny's quick wit and pleasing personality were appreciated by all those present. He introduced two popular players of the Toronto Maple Leaf Hockey Club, Frank Mahovlich prize rookie of the year and the first Leaf player to win the Calder Trophy since 1946-47. Jim Morrison, star defenceman for the Leafs was also present.

Frank Mahovlich presented the Mack McDermott trophy to Terry Maddeaux, captain of the winning Bruins Team, in the junior pee wees. Frank, an eligible bachelor, was presented with a bouquet of roses, in appreciation of his being present, and he provided a great hit with the boys, answering all their questions. Jim Morrison, with an injured hand encased in a cast, gave a fine address on the subjects of hockey and education. Of the utmost importance, education always comes first. Only one boy out of every 15,000 players makes the grade in the N.H.L. Jim presented the Butler and Baird Trophy to captain Ricky Bradshaw of the Leafs, who won the senior pee wee championship. Jimmy was presented with a bouquet of roses for his wife.

In the presentation of trophies Johnny Gropp stated, he would like to see all boys win a trophy, as they were worthy of it. It was a hard choice in selecting the most sportsmanlike player, combined with ability, as there were so many boys in both leagues who were eligible. However, the decision was a very popular one. In both sections this was the first year these trophies had been awarded. A miniature trophy went to the players and a large trophy will be presented annually.

Joe Boyer, who has done a wonderful job as timekeeper and scorekeeper, was thanked for his help. Mr. Boyer presented the "Robbie" Robbins Trophy to Jim Lawson of Rangers, for his outstanding sportsmanship and playing ability.

The Norm Stephenson Trophy for most sportsmanlike player, went to another Ranger player, Dean Wainwright of the junior pee wees, who was not able to be present for the presentation.

The "Little" N.H.L. League donated crests to all players, the coaches of the teams distributing them.

Seated at the head table, alongside Frank Mahovlich and Jim Morrison, were Jim Ley, who has been very active in the operation of the arena all season; Bob Jackson, Johnny Gropp, Les Mar, Kle and Jim McKean of "The Liberal" sports staff.

Hot dogs, pop, ice cream and pie, did a very quick disappearing act as all the lads had terrific appetites. The wives of the coaches and executive members deserve a vote of thanks.

All the teams were represented by their coaches, Leafs, Brian Mills; Boston, Bill McDougall; Rangers, Willy Beresford; Hawks, Brian Wainman, and Wings, Norm Mabley.

Junior pee wees: Bruins, Tubby Barrow; Hawks, Don Thurston; Rangers, Jim Pollard; Canadiens, Bert Windrum; Leafs, Bryden Ellis and Wings, Bob Ross.

With the election of executive for 1958-59 season, the popular "Tubby" Barrow will head the "Little" N. H.L. as president, Johnny Gropp as secretary, Matt Kinnari as treasurer, Eric Charity as convener of junior pee wee teams, and Bob Jackson as convener for the senior pee wees. The members of the executive will go all out in benefitting all boys playing in the will go all out in benefiting all boys playing in the lowering of fans in games played on Saturday afternoons at the local arena.

With the ever-increasing number of registrations this season, it has been decided there will be eight teams in the junior pee wees, and a possibility of extra teams in the senior pee wees, with a record 300 or more registrations, expected this coming season, extra ice time will be necessary.

The Richmond Hill Lions Club has given the "Little" N.H.L. fullest support and donate all the ice time throughout the season.

SOFTBALL
Sil Steffan, Secretary of the Richmond Hill Softball Association, announces that Dynes Jewellers Intermediate Team will have another hustling ball aggregation this season. Dynes are in a fast league of Intermediate "B" ball. This calibre of softball should rate good attendance at the local ball park. They will play their home games under the floodlights on Monday evenings. Away games will be played on Thursdays.

Several new faces will be seen in this year's lineup. They include Moe Williamson, who after a year's absence will return. Moe is a great favourite with local fans. Matt Kinnari who played several games last year, is expected to become a regular this season.

The Markham Township League will have strong entries this season. All the teams will be strengthened tremendously, with the idea of entering in Ontario Senior Softball Association playoffs.

R. HILL & DISTRICT INTERMEDIATE SOFTBALL
With all teams having played several exhibition games, the Richmond Hill and District Intermediate League is lacking a few good umpires. This is its second year of operation. All games should have a qualified umpire, other than a player. A few bad calls could cost a team a chance of winning an important game. Anyone interested in umpiring games played on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings should contact J. Tovell at TU. 4-4026, Bill Costoff at TU. 4-1471 or Norm Heintzman at PR. 3-5248.

SOUTH VAUGHAN LEAGUE
South Vaughan League will be well represented this season with each team having a manager, coach and director. Vellore who won the championship last year will be managed by Harry Madinsky, coached by Alf Roberts and director Tom Taylor, past president of the league. Pine Grove, eliminated in the finals by Vellore, will be managed by Herb Hardwick, Coach Pete Abels, and Director Ken Thorpe. Woodbridge, the new entry in the league is represented by Bill Taylor, Ron Burns and H. Cooper. Concord is managed by Ernie Bokus, coach Ray Locke, director Cliff Glandfield. Clairville is managed by Herb Wooden, president of the league this year, coach Ken Tawse and director Gord Bagg. Hope is coached by Bill Thomas and director Ross Kirby.

Midhurst Station Distributes Trout

During the month of April, Conservation Officers in the District have spent much of their time on enforcement duties. Main attention has been given to local fishing activities in spawning areas and the number of anglers who couldn't wait until opening dates, have been apprehended, stated Senior Conservation Officer J. S. Ellis.

Pike and Pickerel have completed spawning and returned to safe waters Mr. Ellis stated. Rainbow trout are still present in the streams and anglers should have good results during the season.

Speckled trout distribution from the Midhurst Rearing Station is now underway and good numbers of legal size trout are being introduced to suitable waters.

Juan Lopez Wins Match With Gideen

Gideon Gideen and Juan Lopez went at it again Tuesday night at the market, with Lopez coming out on top this time and retaining his title in a close hard-fought battle. This match could have gone either way with first one and then the other having the advantage. Lopez, the great opportunist, grabbed Gideen when he was foolish enough to turn his back to argue with the referee. They can say what they like about Lopez, but he is a real champion, what a terror he must have been in his prime.

In the other bouts the Jennings Bros., those honest upright citizens of Subury, lost to Paul Lachance and Freddy Labelle when they were thumbed to the show-ers for using the tag team rope to subdue the Frenchies.

Doni Mangotich proved too strong for Teddy Clague and drop-kicked his way to a win over the popular Richmond Hill boy. In the opener Grant Wylder of Aurora pulled a big upset by beating Billy Foster in 24 minutes. Wylder received a good hand from the standing room only crowd because of his pleasing win.
