

Richmond Hill

"The Liberal" is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1105 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

The Sacrament of Baptism was observed in the Yonge St. United Church, at the Mother's Day service. These are the names of the children received at that time: William Scott Babcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Babcock; Petra Monica Busse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Busse; Darryl Cameron Courts, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Courts; Robert James Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Curtis; Judith Allison Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Edwards; Kerry Lang Minor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Minor; Laurie Suzanne Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid; Ronald Charles Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Sanderson.

Commissioner Mrs. Ernest Redelmeier and the members of the local association for Richmond Hill West District will be hostesses at a Guide and Brownie Revel on Tuesday, May 27. Supper will be served out of doors and there will be a campfire.

The May meeting of the Glen Elm Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. R. Mitchell, Essex Avenue, on May 13th. Last minute arrangements were made for the Daffodil Tea to be held in Wrixon Hall on May 30. At the close of the business meeting, a social evening was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served by Mrs. R. Stickle and Mrs. R. Frazer. The June meeting of the institute is scheduled to be held at the home of Mrs. R. Craine, 304 Paliser Crescent.

J. E. Smith, J. P. of Richmond Hill attended a dinner for York County Justices of the Peace held at Club 88, Newmarket, Wednesday evening. The dinner was arranged by Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake and guest speakers included Attorney General Kelso Roberts, Magistrate Robert Taylor of Toronto, and F. L. Wilson of the Attorney-General's Department.

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon of Mother's Day, Sandra Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gummow, Richmond Hill, received the Sacrament of baptism. A Bible was also presented to her from the Sunday School.

To mark both an ending and a new beginning

At the turning of life's last page, the spirit enters a new and brighter realm that is eternal. Worthily to commemorate this transition is ever our aim.

Mrs. Sylvia Garson of Richmond Hill will be presenting several of her students in a "Dance Revue" on Friday evening, May 23, at the George Harvey Vocational School Auditorium on Keele Street in Toronto. Many children of Richmond Hill and surrounding area from three years and upwards, will be participating in this performance which promises to be an enjoyable treat for all. Some of the local students taking part are Lorilee Davies, Heather Barker, Barbara Hill, Kathy Kinsley, Linda Christie, Leslie Smith, Elizabeth Smyth, Jean Smyth, Adele Windrim, Marnie Troyer, Sandra Myers, Carlen Meyer, Sandra Tyndall, Brigitte Reinke, Monique Heather Steven, Diane Gibbons, Barbara Ridegely, Elizabeth Barnett, Judy Archer, Prudence Emmett, Brenda Bradshaw, and Mary Anne Derrick.

The "Music Evening" of the Evening Branch W.A. of the Richmond Hill United Church proved extremely enjoyable to the group at their May meeting, featuring musical items by the guests from Leaside and Richmond Hill talent. Following the fitting theme, "Meditation" of the devotional, given by Mrs. Alma Osmond, the guests were introduced — Mrs. Harry Welch, pianist; Mr. David Tees, cellist; Mr. James Knights, violinist.

This enjoyable musicale was arranged by Mrs. Wright Morrow, and the guests invited by Mrs. Ray Jackson, a former member of the Leaside Music Group. Miss Becky Thomson, local vocalist, also contributed some fine solos. In addition to the three fine cello solos by Mr. Tees, the "Father and Daughter" performance won hearty applause for their rendition of "Sweet Hour of Prayer". Mr. Tees' daughter, Mrs. R. Crozier was on a visit from Sydney, Nova Scotia. At the conclusion of their fine program, the guests were thanked by Mrs. Dickson Miller, and presented with bouquets of spring flowers. Prayer by the Rev. C. G. Higginson brought to a close this memorable evening.

The Richmond Hill Conservative Women's Association recently held an executive meeting at the home of its president, Mrs. J. A. Price. Plans for the May meeting were discussed when Mrs. R. J. Sutherland, former executive secretary for the Ontario Young Progressive Association will be the guest speaker.

This month's meeting of the Richmond Hill Women's Institute had one of the largest attendances of the year. This was the last regular meeting until September, as the June meeting takes the form of a picnic. Two beauty consultants from Mainprize's Drug Store gave a talk and demonstration on the "Care of the skin and make-up", which was of great interest to the members.

Teen Town

Spring has sprung, The garlands are hung And Teen Town is planning a ball.

It will be a real do, With live music too 'Cause there won't be another 'til Fall.

There's ice cream and punch If you want a lunch, And roses and favours for all. So let's swing and sway The sixteenth of May, At the Rose-Petal Prom at the Hall.

Tickets for the fabulous Rose-Petal Prom are available now at $2.00 a couple from any member of the executive or you can reserve yours by calling Butlins, TU. 4-1747.

This is the "really big show" of the year to close our season and we hope you'll be there. All of our friends are welcome to come if you will sponsor them.

Soft lights will glow in a fair-land of blossoms and couples in cool summery clothes will float around to the dreamy music of Ron Kemp and his band. Good eh?

Well just be there, that's all!

St. Matthew's United Church Young People's Association held nominations for the next year's executive last Sunday night. The elections will be held on Sunday, May 25, in the church. Details of the group's day trip on May 31 will be given next week. This group is interdenominational and everyone of 14 and over is welcome. For further information, call Marion Doran, secretary, at TU. 4-1967.

Mr. and Mrs. George Skipper of West Worthing, Sussex, England are due to arrive in Richmond Hill on Saturday for a three month visit to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Brewer of Bent Crescent, whom they have not seen in the past four years.

Mr. A. Adler, representative in Richmond Hill and district for the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada has returned home from a business trip to the Sun Life head office in Montreal. While there, he attended a week-long company conference at nearby Ste. Adele. The conference, for qualifying agents in centres throughout Canada and the United States, dealt with new trends in life insurance, current underwriting problems, marketing techniques and policy programming.

Engagement

The engagement is announced of Ada Maureen, daughter of Mrs. William James MacDonald and the late Mr. MacDonald of Ottawa, Ontario, to James Silas Baskerville, son of Mr. Silas Baskerville and the late Mrs. Baskerville, Richmond Hill, Ont. The marriage will take place on Saturday, June 7, at 11 a.m. in Canadian Martyrs' Church, Ottawa, Ontario. *1w46

In Memoriams

HILL — In loving memory of Mrs. Grace Hill, who passed away May 12, 1957. In our hearts the memory is kept For a friend we respected and will never forget. — Ever remembered by Wilda and family. *1w46

LECUYER — In loving memory of my dear husband who passed away May 14, 1957. Nothing can ever take away The love a heart holds dear, Fond memories linger every day, Remembrance keeps him near. I have only a memory, dear husband.

To keep your whole life through, But the sweetness will linger for ever. As I treasure the image of you, — Sadly missed by loving wife Rose. clw46

LECUYER — In loving memory of our son Paul, who passed away May 14, 1957. God gave us a wonderful son To love through his boyhood days, But at the threshold of manhood He came and took him away. Dearest to us than words can tell, The son we lost and loved so well. Not a day do we forget you, dear Paul, In our hearts you are always here, For we love you dearly and miss you, As it ends the first long year, We cannot forget your smiling face, Your happy, carefree ways, The smile that won so many friends, In those happy bygone days. One of the best the world could hold, Your cherished smile, your heart of gold, Always so good, unselfish and kind, Wonderful memories you left behind. — Sadly missed by Mom, Dad, Pauline, Linda, Peter. clw46

SNIDER — In loving memory of Mr. H. S. Snider, who passed away May 20, 1953. Tis sweet to know we'll meet again, Where troubles are no more, And that the one we loved so well, Has just gone on before. — Sadly missed and ever remembered by Mrs. Snider and family. *1w46

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. John Kurek of Richvale and family wish to express their sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement, with special thanks to Rev. C. G. Higginson for his comforting message and help at the funeral. *****

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to convey our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness and messages of sympathy and for the beautiful floral tributes received during our recent bereavement of a dear wife and mother; also to Wright and Taylor Funeral Home for their efficient management. Special thanks to Rev. J. N. Hepburn for his consoling words. Wm. J. Medhurst and Doris, *1w46 (Mrs. W. Hipgrave)

CARD OF THANKS

WEST — In the midst of our sorrow we wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our many friends and relatives and neighbours for kindness and sympathy shown in the loss of a loving wife and mother, Etta. We especially want to thank Rev. Gordon Winch for his consoling words and Wright and Taylor Funeral Home for their kind and efficient management. Wm. West and Etta Burns, daughter

3rd Richmond Hill Scouts & Cubs

At the last meeting of the "A Pack" of the 3rd Richmond Hill Cubs & Scout Troop, Chris Dearing and William Promaine received their first star.

On Saturday and Sunday, May 10 and 11, the 3rd Richmond Hill Scout Troop took part in the "Scout Jamboree of the Air", being the first of its kind ever held. The basis of the jamboree was to give the scouts an opportunity to speak over the air waves to scouts in other countries. The contacts were made through the co-operation of the amateur radio operators, whose equipment and experience made this air jamboree possible.

Approximately ten contacts were made by the troop, the farthest being Porto Rico, and the closest Willowdale. Many calls were received from around the world, although no direct contacts were made. The scouts had an enjoyable time which could not have taken place without the assistance of the following amateur radio operators, to whom a hearty vote of thanks is extended: Mr. Len Pingar whose call letters are VE3ELW, Mr. Morris Hanson VE3AFE, Mr. Tom Powell VE3ZE, Mr. Fred Roberts VE3AFA.

AT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bellamy, Birch Avenue, Richvale, Ontario, will be at home to their friends on Friday, May 23rd from 1.30 to 5 p.m. and from 8.30 p.m. on, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. clw46

Over 100 Women Teachers Attend Feder. Conference

May 3 saw the Spring Assembly of the Federation of Women Teachers' Associations of Ontario, Region 3, at the United Church Hall in Markham. Presiding in the chair was Mrs. L. Kilgour from North York and Forest Hill Association.

At the meeting were 101 representatives from the following associations — Toronto, Scarborough, Peel 1 & 3, Peel 2, Leaside, East York, York Township, Etobicoke, North York and Forest Hill, York 1 and York 4 with York 2 and 3 as the Hostess Association.

The speaker at the luncheon was York 3 Inspector Mr. M. Hallman, who delivered a very thought-provoking address on Public Relations.

The meeting adjourned Saturday afternoon with the singing of the Queen.

In Laskay United Church two little girls were baptized at the afternoon service by Rev. M. R. Jenkinson: Marion Carol Lowe, 5-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lowe; and Joan Kathleen Scott, 9-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Scott.
