Mark Christian Family Week
The morning worship service of Christian Family Week at the Temperanceville Church on May 11, was most gratifying. A number of visitors from the community were present and it is hoped they will be able to attend regularly.

Mrs. Wilbert Jennings, superintendent of the Sunday school conducted the service. Audrey Herrema read one passage of scripture from Deuteronomy and Linda Chalk read the scripture from John 15: 4-12. A story was read by Mrs. Macklin.

The congregation took part in the responsive reading led by Mrs. Jennings. The collection was taken up by Sandy Boys and Billy Annand. Mrs. Milton Wells told a story "God Comes First".

During the service the Junior choir with David McClure as director sang three numbers, including "The Lord's Prayer".
Miss Diane Annand was soloist and Diana and Nancy Jennings sang a verse in unison. The congregation thoroughly enjoyed this junior choir and appreciate the time and effort put into preparation.

Rev. Mr. Kennedy spoke briefly on the home.

Upper Room Booklet
Anyone wishing to receive the Upper Room booklet each month, please contact Mrs. Wells, PR. 3-5239.

The offering on Mother's Day will go to Christian Education in Ontario, which makes possible the training of leaders for youth work.

Sunday school will be held at 11 o'clock immediately after the church service on May 18.
Choir Practices Saturdays
As the junior choir leader, Mr. David McClure wishes to fulfil the choir's obligation at Victoria Square on June 8, the request is made that all members be present at the next three practices at the church on Saturdays at 10 a.m.

Home and School
On Thursday, May 8, a meeting was held at the Temperanceville schoolhouse for the purpose of organizing a Home and School association. Mrs. Toogood from Unionville and Mrs. Kayes from Gormley were present and explained the purpose of this organization. The election of officers resulted in Mrs. W. Fournier as president; Mrs. E. Jennings as vice president; Mrs. C. Henshaw as secretary; Mrs. Broil as treasurer. A membership fee of $1.00 was decided upon.

The committee consists of Mr. John Gillham, Mr. Zaiser, Mrs. D. Chalk, Mrs. H. Thompson, Mrs. J. Macklin and Mr. Ted Little.

165 Attend Tea at Manor
The York Manor tea on Saturday, May 10, with Mrs. W. Turner as convenor, proved most successful. Mayor Murray of Aurora brought greetings. Approximately 165 attended and $125 was realized. Mrs. Chas. Henshaw, Mrs. Nelson Thompson and Mrs. Don Chalk were in charge of the bake table and Mrs. Fred Boys assisted with pouring tea. Mrs. D. Chalk and Mrs. Ewart Jennings also attended.

Women's Institute
Mrs. W. Jennings attended and enjoyed the W.I. officers' conference at Guelph from May 7 to 9. A cub pack will be formed in September at Temperanceville under the leadership of Mr. John Gillham and Mr. Ted Little, to be known as B Pack of King.

Socials
Diana Jennings is celebrating her 11th birthday on May 12, by having Elaine Paxton and Christine Nissen as supper guests.

Mrs. Albert Follitt spent Saturday with her daughter Ruth in Toronto and they attended church there Sunday morning. On their return home they found as guests Mr. and Mrs. Warren Barnard of Napanee, Mrs. Barnard of Aurora joined them for tea.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Rogers of Toronto called on Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Paxton on Sunday.

Lloyd Lockhart uncovers the human side of the news

Lloyd Lockhart of the Toronto Star is what's known as a "two-way" man. Equally expert with camera and pencil, he specializes in human interest stories packed with colour, drama and real-life detail. And, whether he's bringing you face to face with the seldom interviewed strong-arm president of Cuba, or the peanut man on your own corner, Lockhart shows the true reporter's passion for accuracy. Once, to get inside data for a story about housewives, he spent two weeks as a full-time housekeeper for his own family of five. It's colourful newsmen like Lockhart that help make the Toronto Star Canada's most interesting paper. There's more straight news too... more special features... and far, far more pictures!
