Neighbourhood Notes Home & School executive members met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Storey Wednesday evening of last week to lay final plans for the election of officers and annual meeting on Wednesday of this week. Mr. M. Roberts brought along a tape recording of part singing by the older pupils at the school - the bass voices were a real addition. Following the meeting Mrs. Storey served tea. Present were Mrs. S. R. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Baurhus, Mr. Ray McLaughlin, Mrs. Gordon Hilsler, Mrs. Gardhouse, Mrs. Russell Burr, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. F. Maw, Mr. M. Roberts and Mrs. F. Leaf.

Vacation Church School on the Victoria Square Charge will be held in Headford Church and public school during the week of July 14-18, inclusive. Leaders met at Headford Monday evening of last week to lay plans for the school. Present were Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Binnington, Mrs. Rose Arceman, Mrs. Heber McCague, Mrs. Stanley Boynton, Mrs. F. Bennett, Mrs. John Wilkins, Mrs. A. W. Miller, Mrs. Wilfred Turner and Mrs. F. H. Leaf. The next meeting will be held on Monday evening, June 2, at Headford.

There were four infants baptized at Brown's Corners United Church on Sunday morning at the Mother's Day service. They were Sandra Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gough; John Alfred Martin III, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Martin; Michael Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Prentice and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walker; and Robert Bennett, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Brett. Rev. A. F. Binnington officiated, assisted by Norman Reid, clerk of session, and Mr. John Donaldson, elder. Mrs. A. W. Miller sang "My Mother's Prayer."

At the Family Day Sunday school service Misses Grade Rodlock and Irene Waters each told a story and Sandra Burr and Darlene Brunwell sang a duet. Scripture readings were read by Janet Craig and Jimmy Hood.

Wednesday, July 2, is the date reserved for the Buttonville W.I. garden party at Buttonville hall. When Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper visited relatives in southern Pennsylvania recently they arrived on the heels of a snow-storm which deposited five feet of wet snow on the level and crushed several barns, garages, etc.

W. I. members plan to attend the District annual meeting which will be held in Markham at St. Andrew's Church hall on Thursday of this week.

Writing of "Art and Artists" in a Toronto daily, Pearl McCarthy had some interesting comments to make on the work of Rebecca Sisler. Speaking of the current exhibition of the Sculptors' Society of Canada at the Toronto Art Gallery, Miss McCarthy says: "Among the young sculptors people may well put their eyes on Rebecca Sisler of Unionville. In the exhibition she has two unpretentious but significant pieces. One is a Crucifix of black walnut, with the merest abstract suggestion of the gure, by depression in the wood. This principle was often used by Henry Moore and is definitely copied, but in this case it is used as a means to deep expression, not as a mannerism."

"Of Cat" in Belgian Granite, a picture of which heads the article, Mrs. McCarthy says: "Look also at Miss Sisler's stone cat. You forget to ask whether it is semi-abstract, stylized, or real, because it is so basically sculptural and so catty. It is an example of a young artist beginning soundly and seemingly aware that an artist's first rule is to be himself."

The Cancer Campaign is well over the top we hear, with several canvasses still to be heard from. Mrs. Gordon Purves tells us approximately $16,000. has been received to date. W.M.S. Meets

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. H. A. Roberts and her committee, Mrs. H. R. Paterson, Mrs. Ken Stots and Mrs. James McQuay convened the May meeting of Brown's Corners W. M.S. held in the church parlors. Mrs. Norman Reid occupied the chair in the absence of Mrs. Wm. Rodick, and Mr. S. J. Enright read the call to worship. Letters of a business nature were heard, Mrs. Roberts and her committee took the devotional after which study book material was reviewed by Mrs. H. R. Paterson, accompanied by Mrs. English. Tea was served by the hostesses.

A few extra thoughts - the bale will be packed on June 10 and members are asked to bring an unwrapped toy for a child. Silk stockings, used, are welcomed by Japanese women, who unravel them and manufacture new ones from the yarn.
