Young People's Meeting
The regular meeting of the Carrville United Church Young People was held on Wednesday evening, Mrs. J. Baker was in charge. Kenneth Wood presided over the meeting. They continued the bible study in Genesis and planned their picnic for August 17. The young folk enjoyed a ball game in the schoolyard before the meeting in the hall.

Quilting Bee
On Wednesday, five members of the W.A. met at the church and quilted a quilt. It had been planned to complete two quilts, but because there were not enough quilters present, one is still to be done. The ladies enjoyed a pot luck luncheon at noon with Mrs. A. Read topping the meal with a large serving of ice cream. The ladies are looking forward to the next quilting.

Personal Shower
Miss Marilyn Hewitt was honoured with a personal shower with Mrs. Bob Middleton as hostess and it was held at the home of Mrs. Bert Middleton. There were 30 ladies present for this event. Marilyn received many lovely and useful gifts. Mrs. Gordon Wood assisted her with the gifts. A buffet lunch was enjoyed by all present, competing a pleasant evening.

Celebrates Third Birthday
Robbie Ash of Edgeley celebrated his third birthday with his Grandpa and Grandma Middleton and Greta and Nancy Middleton, and Barbara McLaren and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ash and sister Donna-Lyn at the Middleton home on Sunday evening, enjoying ice cream and birthday cake.

Choir Practice
The Carrville United Church choir is holding a practice on Friday evening, to leave Saturday afternoon free for any who want to attend the Richmond Hill fair.

Socials
John Barton accompanied by Alan Miller spent the holiday week-end at North Bay visiting Bob Swarbrick, getting in some fishing and also had a trip to Lachine, Quebec, before returning home.

Brian Walker is back to school following a short stay in hospital after his accident.

Mr. George Green is also back to school after having had a severe cold.
