TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. MILTON WELLS, R. R. 3 KING
Phone PR. 3-5239

Fifty members of Temperanceville Sunday School heard Mrs. Don Chalk tell another portion of the missionary story of Johnathan Adams. The story will be continued the first Sunday in July. $2.35 was received for the M and M.

On June 8, Mr. John Mullins will conduct the 9:45 a.m. service at Temperanceville church. He will take alternate Sundays with Mr. Kennedy during the summer months. We know the congregation will be anxious to support and listen to Mr. Mullins while he is with us.

On Sunday, June 8, the Junior Choir will be guests at the Laymen's Service at Victoria Square. They are asked to meet at Temperanceville Church at 1:30 p.m. sharp. The last practice will be held on Saturday morning at 10 a.m. Please be on time.

The W.A. and W.M.S. will be held on June 12 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Boys. The devotion will be taken by Mrs. Albert Follitt. The roll call will be responded to by handing in the mite boxes. The program convenor is Mrs. Kennedy. The lunch committee is Mrs. Jack Macklin and Mrs. Lorne Cunningham.

Temperanceville Women's Institute won first prize in the "Grandmother's Quilt Block" project. Vendor ladies won second prize. Sixteen of the members of the local institute had a part in making the blocks and preparing the exhibit. A great deal of the credit for the finished product goes to Mrs. C. Henshaw, Mrs. Nelson Thompson, Mrs. Stewart Paxton and Mrs.

Don Chalk, and the convenor, Mrs. C. Beynon. Those who attended the District Annual on May 27, in Aurora United Church were: Mrs. Ray Jennings, Mrs. Fred Hare, Mrs. Maurice Beynon, Mrs. Howard Clark, Mrs. Wilbert Jennings, Mrs. Stewart Paxton, Mrs. Don Chalk, Mrs. Milton Wells, Mrs. Nelson Thompson and Mrs. Clayton Beynon.

The W.L. will meet at the school on June 11 at 8 p.m. At this time Kettleby, King Ridge and Laskay will be guests. A program will be provided by them. The hostesses will be the social committee and all members. This will be the last meeting until September 10.

The Temperanceville ladies have been busy preparing their "Aprons for Holidays" exhibit for the Schomberg Fair. Under the convenorship of Mrs. Ted Little, six half aprons were made for the following holidays: Christmas, St. Valentine, St. Patrick, Easter, Halloween and Thanksgiving, and one full apron for Labour Day. This received first prize. The special prize of $2.00 was also received for the most attractively arranged display.

Members of the 4-H Happy Gang Homemaking Club, who attended the banquet held in Newmarket for the 4-H clubs were: Betty Beynon, Patsy Macklin, Donna Jennings, Joan Hare, Ruth Beynon and Roberta Wilson. Their leader, Mrs. W. Jennings and Mrs. J. Macklin were also present.

Personals
Congratulations to Gary Herrema, who received the highest award of a trip in the 4-H Club and also the Sr. Championship and Dalry Trophy.

Gordon Henshaw had the fun of entering the freckle contest at the Schomberg fair and got third prize.

Billy Thompson received first prize for his "Farm snap shot" display.

Johnny Watson showed great talent in his modelling of a horse from plasticine and won first prize.

Ann Paxton won first and Elaine second prize with their display of a collection of buttons.

Leslie Zaiser made a splendid "caller" for the Temperanceville Junior square dancing group and won the prize of a silver dollar. Both senior and junior square dancing groups are to be highly commended for the manner in which they went through their chosen dances. Nickie Henshaw was the senior group "caller".

Mrs. Everett Phillips won 1st with a basket of flowering shrubs; 3rd in floral arrangements for family breakfast table; 1st in light fruit cake; 1st in dark fruit cake; 2nd in tea biscuits; 2nd in date and nut loaf 3rd in Canada Packers' special cake; 1st in men's wool socks, heavy; 1st in men's wool socks, fine; 1st in amateur photography.

Mrs. Nelson Thompson received for flowers: 1st in Woodland arrangement; 1st in Television arrangement; 1st in Sailing; 2nd in Teapot arrangement called a "breath of Spring" and 3rd in Hall arrangement; 1st in plain buns and uncooked cookies; 2nd in Chelsea buns, in plain bread and fruit bread also butter tarts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Herrema and Audrey attended a picnic in Lowville park on Sunday.

The Scout and Cub Mothers' Auxiliary is having a dinner at the Ridge Inn on June 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Follitt spent the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Follitt.

Jimmy Chalk received second prize for his brood mare and foal at the fair 2nd in the half mile race with his pony; and a ribbon and box of chocolates in the musical stall game.

David McClure has been given a permanent appointment with the Board of Education in Toronto. Misses Clara Herrema and Joan Hare took part as models in the May Time Spring Fashion Show held in Aurora High School last Wednesday.

Mrs. W. Herrema and Mrs. Fred Hare were on hand to enjoy the presentation of fashions.

DEPT. OF HEALTH TWP. OF NORTH YORK

Whose Responsibility

Parents are primarily responsible for the health of their children. In the school room and in the school health service we are endeavouring to establish ways and means for helping children learn about themselves and how to maintain and improve their health. A generation of young people informed concerning health and motivated to use such knowledge, can do much to increase individual fitness.
