At the closing meeting of the 1957-58 season for the 1st Richvale Cubs "A" Pack, each member of the winning "Six" was the recipient of a fishing tackle box containing fishing "gear", which was the gift of the Group Committee and was presented by Akela Ernie King. The team player's badge was awarded to Willard Fuller, first-aid badge to Wayne Bardeau and Wayne King received his Second Star. The Pack was sorry to learn of Douglas McClellan's bad accident to his arm, and a gift to Dougie went from the Pack with best wishes for his speedy recovery.

At the district church parade held in Richmond Hill, on Sunday, May 25, fourteen boys of the 1st Richvale Cubs "A" and "B" Packs and about twelve Richvale Boy Scouts attended. They were under the leadership of Akela Bruce Wark and Scoutmaster Jimmy Nuttall. Home and School

At the annual meeting of the Charles Howitt Home and School Association, the winners of preliminary spelling bees in each classroom came to demonstrate their "skill and knowledge" and to determine the winning speller in each of the two groups of pupils represented. Of the Junior Group, representing grades 2, 3 and 4, the top two spellers were Susan Baird and David Jellicoe. David won the dictionary after a lengthy spell down. Of the Senior Group, representing grades 5, 6, 7 and 8, Susan Walters and John Godby were the top two with Susan at last winning the dictionary. Judges were Mr. R. Baker, Miss F. Griffiths and Mrs. A. Miller.

The following officers for the coming year were installed by the retiring president, Mr. Les Markle: President, Mr. Leslie Walters; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. A. Pollock and Mr. A. Miller; Secretary, Mrs. J. Wilson; Treasurer, Mrs. A. Baird; Executive members, Mrs. A. Davies, Mrs. R. Edwards, Mrs. G. Lunan, Mrs. F. E. Martin and Mrs. E. Spears. Mrs. J. Wilson, on behalf of the home and school, presented Principal R. Everist with $100 for the purchase of books for the classroom shelves.

The 2nd Richvale Girl Guide and Brownie mother and daughter banquet was held in Thornhill United Church on May 28. Divisional Commissioner Mrs. D. C. Currie honoured 2nd Richvale with her presence at the banquet. It was arranged under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. E. Morningstar, president of the Mothers' Auxiliary.

At the head table the leaders sat with their daughters. Guests included Divisional Commissioner Mrs. D. C. Currie, District Commissioner Mrs. F. B. Bley, Captain Mrs. Wm. A. Weir, Lieutenant Mrs. F. A. Ford, Mrs. W. G. Ball, Brown Owl Mrs. J. A. Oliver, Tawny Owl Mrs. A. Baird, District Badge Secretary Mrs. R. J. Miller, and Mrs. H. E. Morningstar, president of the Auxiliary.

Over 70 sat down at the tables set in the form of horseshoes, gaily decorated with roses. In front of each place was a marshmallow topped with a tiny flag, the Canadian design. Mrs. D. C. Currie said grace. Following dinner a toast to the Queen was proposed by Mrs. F. Bley. A toast to the Guides and Brownies was proposed by Brown Owl Mrs. Oliver, and replied to by Brownie Barbara Wilson. The toast to the Mothers was proposed by Girl Guide Margo Martin. Mrs. A. W. Miller replied. Girl Guide Avril Lunan proposed the toast to the Leaders. The response was made by Captain Weir.

Brown Owl presented Marilyn Hancey with her "Golden Hand". The following badges were presented by Mrs. Bley: to Harriet Morningstar 1st Class Badge, Handy Woman, Needlewoman, Firebrigade and Little House Badge. This latter is given to girls completing six homecraft badges: hostess, cook, child-nurse, laundress, homemaker and needlewoman.

To Avril Lunan her 1st Class Badge, Laundress and Athlete; Beverley Benum, Athlete and Laundress; Margo Martin, Laundress and Athlete; Lona Martin, Hostess and Needlewoman; Caroline Miller, Laundress; 2nd Class Badges to Karen Hamilton, Diane Hall and Diane Derry.

Divisional Commissioner Currie presented Harriet Morningstar with her Blue and White Cord. Mrs. Weir presented 1st Class Badge to Harriet Morningstar and Avril Lunan. On behalf of the Brownie and Brownie Mothers, Mrs. J. B. Wilson presented a Guide "Thank-You" pin to the retiring Brown Owl, Mrs. J. A. Oliver, for her leadership of the Brownies during the past two years.

Mrs. Hugh Martin sang several solos. She was accompanied by Neighbourhood Notes Congratulations to Master Jimmie Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jones, Arnleigh Heights, who celebrated his second birthday the end of May. Mr. Bernard Venus suffered an eye injury recently, when he jerked the starting rope of his garden tractor too hard and it hit him in the eyeball. Fortunately the sight has not been lost, and we wish for him a complete recovery.

Another neighbour to whom we extend best wishes for a speedy recovery is Mr. J. H. Johnson who has been a patient at the Scarborough General Hospital. Mr. Johnson was home last week-end but had to return to hospital for further care.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Spaans entertained at a family gathering on Friday of last week, the occasion being their thirtieth wedding anniversary, when approximately 50 members of their immediate family and relatives were present. The community extends congratulations.

Mrs. E. Crisp spent Thursday of last week with her son's family, celebrating her granddaughter Janet's birthday with her. Commenting on the lack of rain and the short hay crop one local farmer made the wry statement that his pasture looked fine - the cattle were still in the barn!

Buttonville W. I. Hall had its annual face-lifting on Tuesday of last week when W.I. members attacked it with scrub-brush, duster and polishing cloth. It is amazing what can be accomplished by a few determined housewives in one afternoon.

It was Memorial Sunday at Brown's Corners church last Sunday. Miss Nancy Brown played the organ in the absence of Miss Dorothy Hood, and Mrs. S. J. English was at the piano. Mr. Jack Gough and Miss Mary Gough sang a duet and the choir assisted with an anthem. Rev. A. F. Binnington preached on an appropriate sermon, leaving the thought that we must pass on the best of the past to future generations.

Congratulations to Bob Miller who completed successfully his third year in Civil Engineering at O.A.C. Bob is working with Beamish Construction this summer. On June 14 the Brown's Corners United Church choir will entertain at a tea to be held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Miller, Leslie Street, immediately north of No. 7 Highway.

Mrs. F. W. Baker has invited W.M.S. members to pack their bale at her home on Tuesday morning, June 10. Following the bale packing there will be a luncheon and brief meeting. Good used clothing is urgently required.

July 2, Wednesday, at Buttonville Hall is the date of Buttonville W. I. Garden Party this year. Mrs. S. J. English, Mrs. K. C. Gray and Mrs. W. J. Russell were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Helmer, Scarborough, on Sunday evening of this week to enjoy a musical evening. Paul Helmer, pianist, and Terry Helmer, violinist, both of whom have been guest artists with the Canadian Concert Association and the Toronto Daily Star Concerts entertained. Other guests were Miss Kathleen Parlow, the noted violinist, and Richard DiBello, who recently conducted the Toronto Symphony Orchestra at a Sunday afternoon concert when Paul Helmer was guest pianist. Mr. DiBello's parents live at Milliken.

Wedding BUTLER-ROSE A very pretty spring wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, May 17, 1958, at four o'clock, when June Caroline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rose of Richvale, Ontario, became the bride of James Edward Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Butler, of Stouffville, Ontario. The marriage took place in the United Church, Richmond Hill, which was beautifully decorated with white and red roses. Reverend C. G. Higginson conducted the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gownned in floor-length French net with a sweetheart neckline. The bodice was covered with flower-embroidered lace and the bouffant tiered skirt had a scalloped over-skirt of the embroidered lace. Her headpiece was a coronet of mother-of-pearl edged with seed pearls from which fell a fingertip veil. Her flowers were a cascade of white carnations and red roses. Matron of honour was Mrs. Carl Jensen of Willowdale, gownned in a floor-length blue tulle with headband of white carnations and pink roses, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations. Junior bridesmaid was Marlene Wicklum of Richvale, and the little flower-girl was Susan Butler, sister of the groom. Both little girls were dressed in pink nylon dresses, wearing headbands of white sweet peas and they carried nosegays of mixed pastel sweetpeas.

Best man was William Butler, brother of the groom, of Thornhill. Ushers were Carl Jensen of Willowdale and Douglas Rose, brother of the bride. The men of the wedding party were striking in their white coats and black trousers. They wore boutonniers of white carnations. At the reception, which was held in Wilson Heights Gardens, the mother of the bride received wearing a French blue lace gown with white hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white roses. Assisting her was the mother of the groom, gownned in a figured white organza with white hat and gloves. Her corsage was of red and white roses.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls the couple are making their home in Toronto.
