King City Notes

Youth Rally
The public is invited to take part in the Youth Rally being arranged by Scout leaders for this coming Sunday, June 15, in King Memorial Park at two p.m. All uniformed youth groups in the village district—Guides and Brownies, Scouts and Cubs, and C.G.L.T. will meet at the Park. Leaflets with the printed service will be distributed so the public can participate.

Rev. Dr. W. Bruce Jennings of All Saints' Church, Padre for the Protestant service, while arrangements are being made for a separate church service at the same time in the Park Pavilion.

It is hoped a band will be able to accompany the young people. Scoutmaster Stan Roots and Cub Leaders Miss Ethel Thomas and George Harvey will assist in ceremonies.

Square Dance
The Pavilion in King Memorial Park resounded with the lively piano, guitar and violin music of the orchestra of caller Marg Hough from Scarborough as King City Square Dancers' Club held their wind-up party of the season last Saturday night.

Around the end of September president James McCoppen expects the sets will get under way again.

Among those enjoying the party in the decorated pavilion were: the McCoppens, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Doner, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Berwick, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cludine, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Urquhart, Mr. and Mrs. John Dew, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cane, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Roots, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Abrahams, Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson.

Cancel Trains
CNR Division Headquarters in Allandale relayed to station agents the notification from the Passenger Traffic Department in Toronto to the effect three trains are being cancelled beginning June 22.

The trains are 42, which reaches King Station at 8:10 a.m. standard time, on the way south daily except Sundays and Mondays; train 45, northbound passing King Station at 6:45 p.m. standard time, daily except Sundays; and 148, southbound, which runs Sunday nights only, reaching King Station at 8:02 standard time.

The announcement didn't cause a ripple in King City where Village Trustees have felt the trains do not run at times to convenience local passengers. They have argued the CNR should introduce constructive measures, such as a commuter train "or else pull up the tracks."

Wedding Bells
Community good wishes go to local couples making matrimonial plans for the traditional wedding month of June. Miss Iris Margaret Jane Carson of King and Francis Arthur Cheyne of Kettleby will be married June 14 in Kettleby United Church.

Miss Marion Ruth Lockhart and Lorne Henry Bell have chosen June 14 for their wedding at Teston United Church. Miss John Marie Hollinshead and William John Morrison have set the date for June 21 at St. Alban's Anglican Church in Nobleton.

Cancer Meet
All interest groups are invited to attend the organization of a King City Unit of the Ontario Cancer Society Monday evening at 7:30 in the King Library. Chairman of the meeting is intended to last one hour is Mr. W.

Salt Aqua-Nuggets Water Softener
At the annual dance recital held by Mollie McGregor of Maple at Weston Collegiate, several King City children performed, including Anne and Jane Seymour, Mary Evans, Shirley Walker, Beverly Anglin, Anne Heaslip, Jane Will, Diane Parsons and Kendra Lawson.

Buy Equipment
At the regular meeting, members of King City United Church Women's Association voted funds to buy a used refrigerator, a new vacuum cleaner and electric kettle for the church.

The guest speaker was Miss Ruth Roung of Toronto, who is a missionary in Japan. Further plans were made for the annual May Strawberry Festival.

Scout Fathers
First King Scout Troop Group Committee met last week to conclude the season's activities. No further meetings are scheduled until the first Monday night in September at All Saints' Church Lions Club.

Instead of Ladies' Night, King City Lions Club rearranged its program at All Saints' Church to have as speaker, Mr. Len Hobbs, chief assistant test pilot for Orenda Engines. His talk was illustrated with moving pictures.

Proficiency Award
Third year theology student at Knox College, Mr. Bruce Will of King City won this year's H. K. Hilsip scholarship for proficiency. Since last autumn the student minister has looked after the Presbyterian Church at Eversley, Strange and Nobleton.

Tour Niagara
Grades four, five, six, seven and eight were scheduled to take a tour of Niagara Falls today, leaving King City Public School at eight this morning. Parents Mrs. Laurence Scott and Mrs. Alex Currie were invited to accompany the teachers and senior pupils, who had chartered two buses for the trip.

Health Centre
The monthly Child Health Centre will be held next Tuesday afternoon, June 17, in King Memorial Library when King City Women's Institute volunteers will be on hand to assist York County Health Unit members with the pre-school children.

Strawberry Festival
Social convener Mrs. Donald Dixon and her committee are in charge of arrangements for the popular Strawberry Festival being planned for Tuesday, June 24, by the Women's Association at King City United Church.

New House
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powell, with Angela and Roger Powell, moved from King St. and are getting settled in their newly built house on Dew St.

Garden Group
Mrs. Eric White, assisted by Mrs. A. C. Macnaughton, is in charge of Kingcrafts Garden Group, following the resignation of the convener, Mrs. George B. Somers.

Lake Marie Park
Members of Lake Marie and King Athletic Associations are getting King Memorial Park ready for another busy season. In the playground section are two teeter-totters and three swings in constant use. After three picnic tables were wrecked last year, members now have five tables in good repair, ready for picnic time.

Fire
Fire fighters using two Indian pumps had a fire extinguished behind the Catholic Settlement Church on the Fifth Concession, by the time King City Brigade fire truck arrived a few minutes later. Stumps had been burning and the blaze spread into a field, but no buildings were endangered.

Haverall Grad
Among the recent graduates of Haverall College was Miss Janet Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. W. Burns.

Twins' Birthday
Mrs. Glen Urquhart entertained several youngsters at lunch Tuesday to celebrate the fourth birthday of her twin sons, John and Jamie.
