Neighbourhood Notes

Vacation School workers for the Victoria Square charge will meet at Headford Church on Monday evening of next week, June 23, at 8 p.m. All interested people are urged to attend to make final plans for the school which will be held during the week of July 14-18.

Congratulations to Ross Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baker, who has successfully completed his third year in Civil Engineering at the University of Toronto. Ross is working with the Hydro Commission in Toronto this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Orillia, last week end.

Derek Heath, of Numeaton, England, near Coventry, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper for five days recently. Derek is one of a party of eight English and Scottish "Young Farmers" who have been visiting York County for ten days. Jim Leek was Derek's host for the first five days. During his stay in lower York County, George Hooper was pleased to take him on a tour of M-H Farms, the Stock Yards and other points of interest.

Lynda Leaf attended the wedding on Saturday of last week when Barbara Elson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Elson of Richmond Hill became the bride of Charles Stevenson, Toronto. The ceremony was held in Richmond Hill United Church with a reception at the University Women's Club, 182 St. George St.

Jamie and Geoffrey Miller celebrated their birthdays at a joint party on Monday of this week. Jamie was three years old and Geoffrey two. Attending the party were grandparents Mrs. Vivian Horton and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller, Micheal and Joe Horton.

Mrs. Ernest Crisp was one of a party of eight women who visited New York last week. The group were guests at the resident hotel and attended the Talent Scout show and the Godfrey show, a performance of South Pacific and took their boat trip around Manhattan Island. They had a wonderful time and only the weather was unco-operative, it rained practically every day.

Approximately $60.00 was raised toward the purchase of music for Brown's Corners church choir on Saturday of last week when Mrs. A. W. Miller and the choir members entertained at an afternoon tea and bake sale at Mrs. Miller's home on Leslie Street. Choir leader Mrs. S. J. English and president Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson poured tea.

We heard from Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly recently and were happy to learn they are enjoying their European jaunt.

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. A. W. Miller poured tea when Mrs. Walter Waterston of Unionville entertained at a farewell party for Mrs. P. R. Barley. Her husband Rev. P. R. Barley, who has been minister at the Unionville Gospel Centre for a number of years has been called to Pembroke and the family will move there shortly.

Annual Decoration Service

Sunday, June 22, will be the 9th annual Decoration Day at Carrville Cemetery. The friends will gather at 2 p.m. for decorating the graves, then at 2.30 p.m. there will be a Remembrance Service in the adjoining church. We hope to see many gather to renew old friendships and make new, for in remembrance of our former friends, we knit ourselves the closer to the living.

Church News

Rev. George Townshend was in charge of the service at Carrville United Church on Sunday.

Joint Communion

The congregation of Carrville United are to join with their sister church at Thornhill for a joint annual communion service at 11 a.m.

Strawberry Supper

The annual strawberry supper will be on June 24, Tuesday, at Carrville United church hall. See Coming Events for time and particulars.

Miscellaneous Shower

A very pleasant evening was spent at Carrville church hall on Tuesday of last week when Mrs. J. Baker, Miss Dorothy Baker and Mrs. J. Barton were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for Kenneth Wood and Marilyn Hewitt, who are being married at Carrville United Church on Saturday, June 14. They received many lovely and useful gifts and were more than pleased with them all. The hostesses served refreshments, assisted by several of the ladies, completing a pleasant evening.

Congratulations to Beverley Bushell who passed her grade 7 music exam and Margaret Williams her grade 6 music exam.

Birthday greetings to Alice Rowding who celebrated her birthday on Saturday, June 14.

Joint Meeting

At this month's joint meeting of the Unionville Junior Farmers and Buttonville Jr. W.I. the guest speaker was Mrs. John Wilkins. Other attractions were pictures of England shown by the George Nuneaton, England, and pictures of the Dominion Curling Bonspiel held in British Columbia this spring at which Murray Roberts represented Unionville, were shown by Mary Gough. There were over forty members present. The group meets regularly on the first Monday of each month in the Assembly room at Leitchcroft, and during the summer they will hold a picnic in July and a corn roast in August to keep membership together. On Saturday, June 28, they will motor to Guelph for the Ontario Junior Farmers Field Day. York County is sending a horseshoe pitching team and an entry in badminton tournament. Don Brodie and Mrs. Joan Hooper are presidents of the local groups.

Buttonville W.I.

Members of the Buttonville W.I. will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Alvin Robinson, Thornhill, on Thursday evening of this week. Hostesses will be Mrs. Robinson and Miss Elizabeth French.

W.I. Garden Party

Plans are going ahead for the annual Garden Party sponsored by Buttonville W.I. and held on the grounds at Buttonville Hall. Each year this event is anticipated with great interest, plan to attend.

Represented At Field Day

On Thursday afternoon of last week when Markham Township schools met at Morgan Park, Markham, for the annual Field Day, Buttonville students were well represented among the winners. In the Boys' Class "A" (juniors), Bruce Durrant was victorious in the Standing Broad and the 100 yd. dash. Girls' Class "C" (Sr.) Jane Houck was first in the 60 yd. dash, and second in the Standing Broad and 2nd in the Running Broad. In Class "B" (Intermediate) Sandra Burr won the Standing Broad jump and Nancy Robertson took second place. In a foot race for Boys under 8 the winner was Norman Codin.

In the Girls' Relay race the Buttonville team won, with members Carol Jarvis, Nancy Robertson, Jane Houck and Margaret Patterson running. There were crests for the winners.

Pickin' Chickens

Mr. Aubrey Stephenson was dismayed one evening last week on entering his chicken-house to find more than forty of his chickens had been killed. He lay in wait for the culprit, which proved to be a fox.

Home and School Meet

The first meeting of the new executive of Buttonville Home & School Association was held in the school on Wednesday evening of last week. President Mrs. John Storey was in the chair and convenors for the various departments were named for the coming year: Social, Mrs. J. Harrott; Programme, Mr. H. Bauthus; Mrs. Wm. Champion; Membership, Mrs. S. R. Patterson; Mrs. Ken Stephenson; Publicity, Mrs. F. Leaf; Citizenship, Mrs. Gardhouse; Health, Mrs. Arnold. Monthly meetings will be held on the 4th Wednesday of the month during the 1958-9 season, with the executive meetings on the 2nd Wednesday. Graduates will be tendered a banquet on Friday, September 19th, and a moment of their school days at Buttonville will be presented at that time. Other items of business discussed were school picnics, on June 13th Miss Hansford room at Tam O' Shanter; June 20th the Junior Room picnic; and on June 23rd, the school picnic will be held at The Maples, Uxbridge.

W.M.S. Packs Bale

Tuesday morning of last week was a busy time at the home of Mrs. F. W. Baker when W.M.S. members met to pack new and used clothing for the bale to be sent to W.M.S. headquarters. Following the packing the group enjoyed luncheon served by co-hostesses Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson, Mrs. F. Leaf and Mrs. Walter Brumwell with assistance from Mrs. Wm. Rodick, Mrs. Douglas Hood and Mrs. A. M. Miller. A brief meeting followed, chaired by Mrs. Rodick. Members were reminded of the bazaar which will be held in Buttonville Hall on Saturday, November 30th, and were asked to collect articles for the 4th. The devotional was taken by Mrs. Leaf and Mrs. Miller offered facts on Christian Island where some of the bale material will be sent. Value of the bale was $183.19. Mrs. Roberts gave a brief outline of the Spring Rally the meeting adjourned following a recitation by Mrs. Gardiner and courtesies by Mrs. Leaf.
