Rev. and Mrs. Willis Hunking and four children arrived at Malton airport recently. They had left Lagos, Nigeria only two days before. The night previous they had spent with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Doner and Dale at Iloria, and had dinner on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hawkins at Lagos, and breakfast on Monday with Willis's sister and husband in Montreal. Willis and Marian have spent a little over four years in Africa this last term, and are now home for a year's furlough. They had an excellent flight home. With all our modern ways of travel, the continents have become very near.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brillinger and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stockley spent the week-end at the St. Lawrence Seaway and Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Climenhage and Trevor of Stevensville spent Sunday with Mrs. W. B. Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Liebeck and family of Stayner visited relatives here for the week-end.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walker and children of Toronto who have moved back to the Kaarageorgis home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bossert and family of Buffalo spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stickley.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and boys of Stayner spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Eric Morby and children.

Mr. Eldon Brillinger and Mr. Barry McWhirter have spent some time in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnston and sons attended the wedding of Mr. Johnston's niece in Toronto on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson of Edmonton, Alta., Mr. and Mrs. Otto Byers of Saskatoon, Sask., Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott and family of Scarborough, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Elias and girls, and Mrs. R. Bovair and Bobby had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boynton and Patsy on Thursday.

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Steckley last Thursday night in honour of Rev. and Mrs. Lewis B. Steckley who were married in Abilene, Kansas, recently. They are now on their honeymoon visiting relatives and friends here. Other guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steckley, Mr. and Mrs. Landon Steckley, and Mr. Peter Steckley. Mr. and Mrs. Asa Steckley of Toronto were unable to be present. An English china tea set was presented to the bride and groom, after which Misses Myrtle and Ruth Steckley

Sunday School Anniversary

The annual Sunday School Anniversary was held on Sunday at 2:30 p.m., Rev. A. F. Binnington was in charge of the service with Mr. Rolph Boyton, the Sunday School Superintendent assisting. Some of the fathers of the congregation composed the choir. Special music was given by four coloured children from north of Gormley, who were accompanied at the piano by their mother. Their singing was very much enjoyed by all. Rev. Binnington's sermon theme was, "Athletes for Christ" which was very inspiring to all. The children of the Sunday school and their teachers sat at the front of the church.

Baby Band Party & Graduation

The annual Baby Band Party will be held in the Sunda School room on Saturday, June 12th, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Agar of Keswick who is the Baby Band Secretary of York Presbyterial and our Mrs. Binnington will be the speakers. The W.M.S. members and the Mission Band are also invited to attend. There will be nine Baby Band members who will be graduating to the Mission Band.

Church News

The theme of Rev. A. F. Binnington for Sunday, June 22 at 2:30 p.m. will be "Here is Holy Communion." Everyone is invited to attend.

Birthday Party

On Monday afternoon of last week Sharron Leitch celebrated her eighth birthday by entertaining a number of her school chums. Everyone reported having a wonderful time.

Neighborhood News

The many friends of Mr. Ted Wagg are pleased to see he is able to be out driving his car again after his recent serious illness which required several weeks in hospital. We hope he continues to keep well.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Duncan and Elizabeth of Oak Ridges attended the Sunday School Anniversary service and later had Sunday evening dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Empringham and girls.

We welcome to our community Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barker of Richmond Hill who have moved into the home formerly owned by Mr. V. Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Orr attended the Anniversary services at Elders Mills on Sunday morning later having dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Johnston and Sharon at Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Canning had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanderson and family at Richmond Hill.

Mrs. D. Booth, of Kettleby, Mrs. Percy Bennett spent last week at Port Carling.

Happiness — no strings attached

Honeymoons get off to a good start when there are tin cans tied to the bumper.

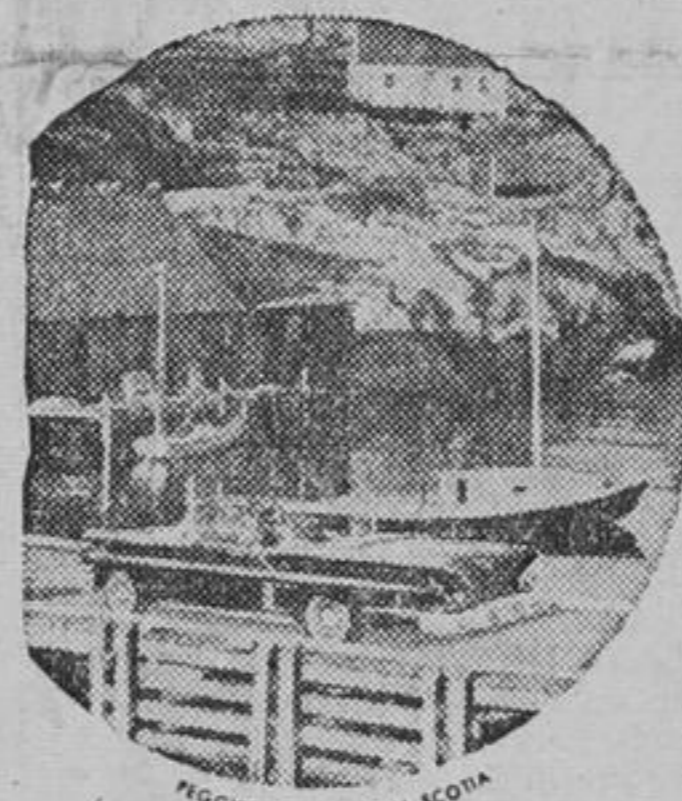

Marriages get off to a good start when that brand new husband assumes all his new responsibilities. One new responsibility is to provide for a secure future. The mature young man knows he can't predict his future so he safeguards it — for his family — with life insurance. A policy with The Mutual Life of Canada means family protection at low net cost — it's the company with the outstanding dividend record.
