Traffic Court
Opened Vandorf

When the new traffic court was opened at Vandorf in the Whitchurch township municipal chambers on Tuesday morning, a speeding conviction against Adam A. Smith of Toronto was later altered by Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake, following a brief discussion with Reeve P. S. Legge.

Magistrate Hollinrake informed the offender that "since he was the first person to appear in Vandorf's first traffic court on a first offense, the speeding conviction would be dropped." Mr. Smith was placed on suspended sentence.

Magistrate Kelly will be in charge of the Vandorf Court. He was present with Magistrate Hollinrake at the official opening last week, when the Rev. I. E. Kennedy of Wesley United Church led in prayer.

The boys of Elgin Mills-Jefferson district are very fortunate—no time here for juvenile delinquency. Practically every boy belongs to either the scouts, cubs or St. John's boys' club and this summer, under the auspices of the Community Club, they, as well as the girls, will have the opportunity of swimming twice a week at the Thornhill Swimming Pool.

Cubs Overnight Camp Enjoyed
 Several weeks ago the entire scout troupe, along with a few of their fathers, went on an overnight camping trip to Passmore's bush and now, to an impatient cub pack it was their turn.

What excitement prevailed Saturday when they were finally ready to leave. Picture 16 cubs ranging in age from 8 to 11 milling around anxious to get started. Finally they were, tents pitched, wood gathered, fires laid and stories, stories, weiners, popcorn and the evening was gone before the boys realized it. Bed by 11.30 and up by 5 with probably not too much sleep in between.

What a beautiful Sunday morning for holding a church service in the bush. Mr. Ensor led in the opening prayer with Walter Cracknell reading the 23rd psalm and Bobby Safruk leading in the Lord's Prayer. The cubs remained in silent prayer for one minute, then Mr. Ensor read the closing prayer.

Many badge tests were passed during the field day competition; climbing a 10 ft. rope, baseball throw, tug of war just to mention a few.

Ross Kerwin, J. Laughlin, Hal Robertson and Ted Gamble, cub fathers who attended the overnight camp, were the testers. A nature walk and a half mile trail set by the fathers, who were caught before reaching home, were also appreciated by the boys.

Is it any wonder that boys wanted to last forever. Eight fathers turned out to assist, with five of them staying overnight. A very special thanks to these fathers and to Mrs. May Ensor, head who made it possible for Mr. and Mrs. Ensor to attend camp.

Closing Meeting A Party
 The cubs held their closing meeting, until the fall, on Monday night. This was in the nature of a weiner roast and was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Ensor, Lake Wilcox. The boys enjoyed a swim, then after several games a weiner roast, complete

Over 240 attended the Richvale Chapel Sunday School picnic which was held on Hanlan's Point, on Saturday. Baseball and contests were enjoyed and after the picnic supper, Mr. Heddman of England and Jamaica gave a brief address on our five senses and how they tie in with our relationship to Christ.

Picnic
 The St. Barnabas Mission Sunday School and congregation joined in a picnic at Thornhill Park on Saturday. There was a good attendance. Everyone enjoyed the races and events, the swimming and the picnic supper.

Mothers' Auxiliary
 On June 19, at the home of Mrs. W. R. Gray on Carrville Rd., the Mothers' Auxiliary of the 1st Richvale Scouts and Cubs gathered at an afternoon tea to thank Mrs. Fuller for the beautiful quilt she worked for the successful draw the ladies held in support of their work with the boys.

Sudden Passing
 The community was saddened to learn of the sudden passing of little six year old Helen Hill, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hill, Oak Avenue, who collapsed while at play in her own yard on Saturday, June 21. Sincere sympathy is extended to the parents and relatives.

Graduation
 Grade 8 graduation exercises were held at Richvale Public School on Monday evening. The graduates, teachers, and invited guests sat down to a banquet-table tastefully decorated with bouquets of pink roses and bridal-wreath and matching candles. With the school crest and school colours forming part of the decorations. Special murals by the pupils flanked the walls, and tiny place cards in the form of paper-doll graduates, with their scrolls each held marked with the name, graced the place settings. The grade seven pupils served.

At the head table were Mr. Jackson Taylor, representing the Board; Mr. Maynard Hallman, School Inspector; Mr. William Morris, President of Home and School; Mr. Elert J. Sand, Supervising Principal; and Mr. Peter Kurita, Principal of Richvale School. The Valetorian address was given by Beverly Bushell.

In his brief remarks, Mr. Taylor spoke of the efforts of parents and teachers in guiding the pupils thus far in their quest for knowledge and of the importance of review.

Mr. Hallman presented the Home and School annual citizenship award to Peter Gould for his outstanding contributions to the life of the school in its many activities.

Mr. Morris congratulated the graduating class and thanked the Home and School for its support. He invited the parents to attend their Home and School meetings in the coming year. Parents of the graduation class attended the presentation ceremonies.

Mr. J. N. Macon presented the proficiency trophy from Murray Associates to Beverly Bushell for her high marks during the year and for the pleasure her presence in the school had given all who knew her.

Richvale School Banquet Con.— In reply to the toast to the School proposed by Peter Gould, Mr. Kurita spoke to the graduating class on their approaching venture into High School, comparing it as going to war, and he urged them to adopt the motto "Never Yield!" He pointed out new horizons and new situations in which they would find themselves, full of new lessons to be learned and beset with tempting diversions. He cited especially T.V., companions who would seek to lure them from their studies, and many pleasant social situations and outside activities, which, good though they might seem, would detract from the time they should be using to spend on their studies. "Never Yield!" he repeated. "Finish your studies first."

Mr. E. J. Sand, Supervising Principal, defined "Success" for the graduates, as an inward feeling of self-satisfaction in accomplishment rather than a matter of money or prestige.

"We can learn from the experiences of others," he said. "People fall into various classes. There is the lazy type who doesn't want to work. There are those who are uncertain—they can't make up their minds. And then there are the workers. There is a decision for the graduate to make here—to what class does he want to belong?"

"Canada's greatest natural resource is her young people. The youth of today need to prove that as a resource they are useful. Nothing can be called a resource until it has proved its usefulness." Mr. Sand had some help to offer the students. "One import-
