HEADFORD

Correspondent:
Mrs. H. Acreman
R. R. 2 Gormley, Ont.
Phone Turner 4-2236

What a welcome rain that was last Friday! Now many lawn-mowers that have been sneering at their owners will have to get down to work. Parched lawns, brown and dry as tinder, with only the weeds showing green, have made a remarkable comeback, and are now demanding attention. Grain crops too are looking excellent, though the rain was hardly in time to help the hay. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pasco were Dominion Day guests of the Hal Acremans.

Headford Sunday School primary boys, David Terry, Bobby Lee, Billy Clarkson and Carl Morrison had a delightful picnic at Wilcox Lake last Wednesday as guests of Mrs. Acreman and Lorraine. The latter's special guests were Sandra Evans and Russellene Gray of Elgin Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Johnson and Mary-Ellen, with Mr. Lew Graham, left last Thursday for a month-long motor trip to the West.

Mrs. Binnington and Mrs. Acreman met with Mrs. Alf Miller in her home last Thursday afternoon to prepare some of the work for "Crafts" for the senior girls at the Vacation School this coming week. All Headford children from four to fourteen years are invited to join with the others next Monday morning at the Church at nine. Parents of those attending from Headford are asked to send along cookies on Wednesday, and also to see that any pre-school youngsters have a card bearing their name and age. Mrs. Norman Tyndall and her two children spent the long holiday weekend at her parents' summer cottage.

Mrs. Wm. Wellman returned on Friday after almost a week with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reaman and their family at the cottage at South River. We wish Mrs. Wellman birthday greetings (late by now) for July 9. And a very happy birthday to Brenda Wellman, who will be five on Monday. Miss Emma Barker was a weekend guest of Mrs. William Wellman.

Headford W.A. had to postpone their bake-sale on Friday afternoon on account of rain; but held a successful sale on Saturday morning. Many thanks to Victoria Scarre W.A. for the privilege, and to our own W.A. for the donations. Sincere thanks also to Mrs. Binnington who invited those of us who were there, over to the paragon for a "coffee break."

After the extreme heat, followed by rain and wind, the Joyses and the Rumbles had very good days for their respective reunions on Saturday and Sunday.

We welcome to Headford, Ron Leuschner and his wife and young son, Stevie, who will occupy Ron's grandmother's house for the summer, while details of their own new home in the Hill are being worked out.

County Refuses To Pay $3000 Grant Town Newmarket

No action was taken by York County Council on a request from Newmarket for a grant of $3,000. The request was made to cover a portion of the cost for the proposed expansion of the police quarters. Reeve J. Luck, of Newmarket, explained that the additional space was required because the town is handling the county's police work. Newmarket considered one-half of the cost should be borne by the county.

"The county is under no obligation to supply a police court or police cells," reported the warden and county commissioner when informed that Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake was interested in taking over all the Newmarket Town Hall for court and police work. "Police courts and the policing of same are direct responsibility of the Provincial Attorney-General," they said.
