Following a miraculous escape from an automobile collision on Tuesday night, July 15, Mr. Floyd Pratt, of Markham Road, advises that he has already recovered from injuries and scalp lacerations received. Thirty-six stitches were required to close the cuts caused by contact with the glass of the car's rear window, through which he was apparently hurled after the impact.

Mr. Pratt speaks very highly of the prompt and efficient treatment accorded him at the Branson Hospital, to which he was removed in an unconscious condition.

Provincial Constable Thomas Sandford of the Bond Lake detachment said that Mr. Pratt was travelling in the middle passing lane on Yonge Street and a vehicle driven by Fred Iris of Langstaff was turning on to Garden Avenue, when the crash occurred. The driverless Pratt car continued on, and lodged in a hedge at the side of the road, no passengers aboard.

During their stay they toured Macdonald Hall viewing the exhibits and took a side trip to Stratford, staying over for the theatre in the evening.

In Memoriams

KEFFER — In loving memory of Thos. A. Keffer, who passed away July 31, 1956. God took him home, it was His will, But in our hearts we love him still. His memory is as dear today As in the hour he passed away. We often sit and think of him When we are all alone. For memory is the only friend That grief can call its own. — Sadly missed by Jos. W. Keffer.

anything can happen

That all-day shopping trip to the BIG CITY may sound attractive when you plan it. But road hazards, weather, car failure and heavy traffic can easily make you sorry you strayed so far from home. Especially so when our local stores offer just as much (and often more) in styles, selection and value.

Not only our hometown merchants, but service stations, automobile dealers, banks and professional men in this community can provide everything you need for better living and personal care.

The next time the idea of taking your shopping dollars far from home presents itself, be realistic. Ask yourself whether the risks involved are worth the effort.
