King City Notes

Lions
King City Lions are trying to have "something for everybody" at their gala annual carnival and boat draw next Wednesday evening, August 6, in King Memorial Park.

All-stars of the King-Vaughan-Whitchurch senior girls softball league, Maple and King City teams, are expected to give an exhibition game starting at 8 p. m. Don Hadwen, carnival chairman, said he was trying to arrange entertainment for the youngsters. There will be bingo and a few other games of chance. An orchestra will play for dancing. Ticket sales will be closing before 11 p. m. when Lex Mackenzie, M.P.P., is scheduled to draw the winning ticket for the boat. Ferguson Lawson has been in charge of draw arrangements.

No admission charge will be made and proceeds will aid general work of the Lions, including welfare and boys' and girls' activities.

Clearview Newcomers
New residents in the village are Flying Officer and Mrs. Eric Cooke and their son, Eric Jr., better known as Rickey, who are living in Clearview Subdivision. The Cookes moved from Trenton, where Flying Officer Cooke was an instructor. Now at Downsview, he is a pilot with 436 RCAF Squadron. In September Rickey will be starting in Grade 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hutchinson hope to have their new hardware business ready to open by early Fall. It will be located at the former restaurant on King St., owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Walker.

The Walkers had the property nearly nine years. Two years ago they moved to Alliston where they operate a successful ladies' wear shop.

The Hutchinsons plan to move from their North Keele St. bungalow to the apartment above the store. The exchange of property was arranged by Mr. A. J. (Doc) Gordon and Mr. Jack Cliff, C.N.E. Tickets.

One of the summer projects of King City Lions' Club is the selling of C.N.E. Grandstand tickets for opening night. A large block of seats has been reserved as a commission-raising venture for Toronto and District Lions.

Locally Frank Powell heads the sales committee. Transportation into the Ex on a Langdon bus and general admission will be extra.

Flies to Vancouver
Miss Lois McBride will be back after the holiday weekend after spending more than two weeks in Vancouver. She flew from Malton to visit Miss Wilma Hall, a hospital physiotherapist, whom she knew at Willard Hall, Toronto, a few years ago.

Wedding Parties
Following the wedding rehearsal, Miss Clara Campbell and Mr. Bruce McDaniel, the bride's mother, Mrs. Earl Campbell of R. R. 1, King, was hostess to the bridal party at her home.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Alva McDaniel of Toronto, entertained relatives and friends at a miscellaneous shower.

At Smithfield, where the bride used to teach school, Mrs. John Cameron arranged the miscellaneous shower in the community hall.

Neighbors in Kinghorn community held a shower in King United Church Hall to honor the bride and her sister, Miss Earlene Campbell, who plans to be married on September 3.

Mrs. Bruce McQuarrie of Beeton entertained at a kitchenware shower.

It's amazing how a few odd wheels, a wooden box and jam jar lids as headlights can be turned into something that runs!

Lads in Kingsview Subdivision and around William and Dew Sts. are turning out ingenious hot-rods requiring only a driver to steer — and control if possible — and a pusher. One model, which called for two extra wheels from an old baby carriage, boasted an imaginative trailer.

A youthful businessman charged 10 cents a ride on his soap box derby entry.

Temporary Agent
George Sibbald of Elmvale is the acting station agent for two weeks while Bruce Shipley and his family are on holidays. Mr. Sibbald is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verduin Gordon.

The Gordons recently returned from a motor trip to the East Coast with their children, Debbie and Murray.

Trip To Sault
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis enjoyed their trip by car to Sault Ste. Marie, returning via Michigan and through Port Huron.

Sunday they picnicked with Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Campbell at York County Park, going on to Kirkfield where they saw seven passenger boats passing through the lift locks.

Christening
At All Saints' Anglican Church, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Robinson of Scarborough had their two-month old daughter, Deborah Anne, christened by Rev. D.C.H. Mitchell. Godparents were the baby's young uncle, Roger Rawlings of King City, and Mrs. Howard Flint of Toronto.

Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Socials
Mission Night
"Mission Night" was the theme of a successful Youth Rally held at Lake Wilcox Gospel Church recently. Guest speaker was Miss Anna Steckley, a missionary who has been in India for 33 years. A colour film "Gateway to Asia" was shown. It led the viewers on a trip through Hong Kong, Red China, the Tiger Balon Gardens and finishing with an account of evangelism versus communism in Asia. Entertaining with a song in their native Ojibway language were Stan Williams and his daughter Linda.

The Decon Glass and Mirror Company one of the newest businesses in Oak Ridges is expanding. Partners Les Wride and Jerry Jeffs added a new sand blasting machine which will allow the company to produce products with various designs. The machine was erected in a new addition on the ground floor of the Decon Glass and Mirror Co. plant on South Road, Lake Wilcox.

No official opening of the new Oak Ridges branch bank of Nova Scotia. Manager, W. Thompson explained that opening ceremonies are held only when a new branch opens not when moving to new quarters.

Legion
A special meeting for Legion members and auxiliary members will be held on Thursday evening July 31 at the Legion lot, King Side Road. Discussion will be held on the proposed Legion Hall Building. It is expected to start soon and members hope the hall will be ready for use before the cold weather arrives.

The Legion Ladies Auxiliary held a very successful bake sale on Saturday afternoon at Fuller's vacant store on Yonge St. The sale was to be held on the front of Mrs. S. Cook's property, Yonge St. but due to the hot sun and no shade the auxiliary members

Laskay Socials
Mrs. Frank Marshall spent three weeks at her cottage on Georgian Bay. She came home with Mrs. Ross Follott and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Glass.

Laskay United Church Junior Choir sang with the Senior Choir at last Sunday afternoon's service.

Mrs. Len Glass is home again after a few days in Newmarket Hospital. Staying with her is Mrs. Edna King from Regina.

Teeming rain shortened Laskay United Church Sunday School picnic at Boyd Park near Woodbridge by half an hour.

Before the 75 children and adults had to scurry to their cars, prizes were given out for races, and the gathering enjoyed a picnic supper. The picnickers found there hadn't been a drop of rain in the Laskay district.

Mrs. Louis Marwood and her sister, Miss Marjorie McMurchy, were in Toronto visiting their aunts, Mrs. W. D. MacCallum and Mrs. Ella Campbell.

Among those attending the chicken dinner birthday party given by Mrs. Marshall McMurchy for 12-year-old Mary-Anne in Aurora were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ross, Mrs. Robert Porte, Miss Helen Ross and Miss Marjorie McMurchy.

Mrs. Louis Marwood entertained at luncheon & supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tritz of Sarnia. About 30 friends called to see Mrs. Tritz, a resident of Laskay 35 years ago, and the teacher she married when he taught at Strange School. The visitors were from Churchill, Toronto, Oak Ridges and Buttonville.

Mrs. Effie Thorn has been holidaying in Bathurst District, where a family reunion was held.

McDaniel - Campbell Nuptials In King City United Church

Baskets of white 'mums and white gladioli formed a lovely background in King City United Church for the wedding of Clara Merle, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell of R. R. 1, King, and Bruce Emile McDaniel, son of Mrs. Alva McDaniel and the late Mr. McDaniel of Toronto.

Rev. Martin R. Jenkinson solemnized the marital vows. Mrs. Ewart Patton played the organ and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Everett Wilkshire of Toronto, uncle of the bride.

Mr. Campbell gave his daughter in marriage and she wore a full-length, hooped gown of white embroidered organza over satin. The simply-styled bodice and short sleeves and the bouffant skirt formed a slight train. The finger-tip veil of tulle illusion was caught to a petal-shaped head-dress trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade of red roses and Stephanotis.

Two sisters attended the bride, Miss Earlene Campbell as maid of honor in mauve embroidered nylon over taffeta, and Mrs. Heinz Bandow as bridesmaid in sea foam shade. They wore brimmed hats in the same colors as their ballerina-length dresses and matching slippers. Both had cascades of pink roses.

A niece of the bride, Miss Vivian Love of Kinghorn, was the flower girl, frocked in yellow embroidered organza with yellow accessories. Her headband was of yellow rosebuds and she carried a nosegay of garden flowers.

Mr. Harry McDaniel of Toronto was best man for his brother and ushers were Mr. Raymond Love and Mr. James McDaniel.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk organza gown with pink hat, white accessories, and pink rosebud corsage. The groom's mother was in light blue lace with hat in apricot shade and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

A reception for 75 guests followed at the Yorktown Inn, Toronto, where Mrs. Jack Miller of Kinghorn caught the bride's bouquet.

For the wedding trip through Northern Ontario and Quebec, the bride had chosen a figured dress with beige coat lined to match the dress. She had a beige hat, light brown accessories and corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel will be living in Toronto and the bride plans to teach at Castlebar School in Etobicoke in September.

Over 100 Local Delegates At New York Convention Jehovah's Witnesses

About 2,500 of Jehovah's Witnesses from the Toronto and suburban congregations are attending an international convention in New York City July 27 through August 3.

Mr. R. Harrison, presiding minister of the Richmond Hill congregation, in announcing the plans of the local delegates, said that a limited program of meetings were held in the Kingdom Hall on Cedar Avenue, since most of those in charge of the various features are attending the Christian assembly. Over 100 delegates from the Richmond Hill congregation are attending. Mr. Morris Harrison, an assistant minister, is in charge of the local group during the convention.

Mr. R. Harrison said that the local delegates attending the international gathering will benefit greatly not only from the rich spiritual provisions, but also from Christian association with Jehovah's Witnesses from foreign lands. The convention, he said, will further the understanding and good will among the various races and nationalities of Jehovah's Witnesses, and will also demonstrate to the world how the Bible message and Christian living can unite people from all walks of life, regardless of race or other backgrounds that tend to divide the world. Only common interest in the pure worship of the Creator, Jehovah God, can do this, he said.

When questioned about the expected attendance, Watchtower officials in New York pointed to the record attendance of 165,000 at the 1953 international convention in New York city's Yankee Stadium. At that time several overflow areas provided space for the Witnesses and interested persons. Yankee Stadium has again been secured, but because of the cramped quarters of the previous assembly the Polo Grounds will be used in addition. The program will be presented by the same participants following the first presentation in Yankee Stadium.

Most of those from the Richmond Hill congregation will be staying in private homes in New York city and nearby areas. All hotel accommodations will be filled, according to the Watchtower rooming committee, and the majority of attendees will be placed in homes following a gigantic house-to-house effort to find available accommodations.
