The lovely lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Mumberson was the scene of a delightful luncheon at 12.30 on Wednesday afternoon of last week, when 36 ladies were present.

Following the luncheon the regular monthly meeting of the W.M.S. was held with Mrs. Hugh Deverell, the Christian Citizenship Secretary in charge. An auction sale was held of articles brought by the ladies. Mr. Briggs, of Headford ably acted as auctioneer and disposed of all the articles. Over $40.00 was realized. The proceeds from this sale are for books for the W.M.S. Book Shelf.

The bake sale was postponed last Friday, owing to the funeral of the late Mr. John King. There will be another bake sale on the church lawn this Friday afternoon. The October, November and December meetings will be in charge. Any donations of home baking, fruits and vegetables will be greatly appreciated.
