Among the guests who enjoyed the party were Katherine, John, and Derrick Smith, Kathy Olsen, Ingrid Haessler, Wendy Thatcher, Anne and Brenda Firman. Enjoyable games were played, such as crazy post, pin the tail on the donkey, drop the penny in the bottle. The cutting of the lovely birthday cake, of course, was the highlight of the party—which was topped off by the guests being presented with party balloons of rainbow colours.

When the members of the Evening W. A., St. Mary's Anglican Church hold their opening meeting on Tuesday September 2nd, the annual Rummage Sale will be one of the main items of business. For the past seven years this annual sale has been the main fund-raising project of the group—and it has been tremendously successful—thanks to the support of the whole congregation of St. Mary's and their many friends throughout the community. Miss Retta Sanderson, Mrs. Ralph Paris, and Mrs. Paul Morley will convene this year's sale, at the end of September.

Former Richmond Hill residents, Vic and Chris Seales returned for a short visit last week end, bringing with them daughter Hilary and sons Gordon and Ronald, and Mr. Seales' mother, Mrs. Eva Seales, who is just completing a five month visit from England. Mrs. Seales, who lives at Thatcham, Berkshire, had not seen any of her grandchildren before and will be carrying back very many happy memories of them when she returns home next Tuesday. She plans to return for another visit with her husband on his retirement about three years from now. Their many friends will wish well to Vic and Chris on their return to their Port Credit home "The Dwanga", which is a port of call to all travelling westward.

Motoring a total of 6,000 miles, the Browns spent seven days of their trip in Colorado where they visited the shrine of Will Rogers, the Petrified Forest, the Painted Desert and the Grand Canyon. For many years the Richmond Hill Women's Institute has had a link in England, with whom they correspond by monthly letters and exchange gifts at Christmas time. When Mrs. W. Sayers was in England this summer, she paid her second visit to the Garden City and Sealand Women's Institute, where she was warmly received by the president of the W.I. there, and presented with a gift for Richmond Hill Women's Institute. She in turn presented the Garden City and Sealand Women's Institute with a brass salver.

Miss Marion Ramer of Roseview Ave. and Miss Vera Barrett of Centre Street, recently returned from a holiday in Europe. During this time they spent several days in and around London. They had a most enjoyable tour of Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland and France. The trip down the Rhine and through the Black Forest was very beautiful. At La Hague in Holland they visited the Palace where conferences are held between nations many times a year. In Rotterdam a boat trip on the busy harbour. In Lucerne, a trip to the top of Pilatus. The trip to the continent was followed by a tour of Britain as far north as Edinburgh and the Trossachs, through the English Lakes District, North Wales, Devon, Cornwall, Plymouth and Stonehenge. They were especially interested in the cathedrals of Salisbury and Winchester.

This was his first "big fish", even though Edmund comes from New Brunswick. This event took place at Lake Dalrymple, while Edmund was vacationing at the summer cottage with his grandfather and parents. The outdoor family party concluded a really "happy birthday" for Edmund.

Among the guests present at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fletcher in the United Church, at Exeter, Ontario, and later, the reception, were Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Neal of Richmond Hill and their daughter Terry and their son John. As flower girl, Terry, aged 5, was attired in a pale blue nylon dotted dress, identical with the bridesmaids. As ring-bearer, John, aged 4, performed his duties with care and precision, attired in a white dinner jacket, black bow tie, and black trousers. It was generally conceded that these two attendants literally "stole the show". The bride is the sister of Mrs. Mary Neal.
