Back To School A short two months ago the cry was heard from school children, "no more scribblers, no more books," but alas these same children are now busy scurrying around trying to find or purchase books to return to school, when the doors open wide on Tuesday, September 2.

In all it has been a good summer for the most part, with some youngsters spending all summer at their cottage, and others having the odd holiday away from home, while others were just content to stay around the house and enjoy the holidays in their own back yard; possibly taking the swimming lessons offered at Thornhill. Others worked to help pay for those needed school books.

Then there are those little ones who are starting out on this great road of education next Tuesday. Some will go into kindergarten or grade 1, depending on the area in which they live. There are also those boys and girls who, having completed public school, are stepping into the great adventure of "high school." Others will be attending college or university.

I doubt if there is anyone who can look back on their own former school days without a touch of nostalgia. Many of our fore. fathers had but little chance for education as they hadn't time to attend school as there were so many other things to do. It is good that children of today have a real opportunity and we hope they all make every minute

A word about our teachers who are to be commended for their great efforts on the school child's behalf. Many of our teachers will be facing this duty for the first time, fresh from teachers' college. Good luck to them as well as to the more seasoned teacher. Coming to our own community we are looking forward to the 100th anniversary of S. S. No. 3 Vaughan at Carrville in 1960. If it could speak, I am sure the old school would have many tales to tell, although we are told this building is not the original one. It is quite interesting to talk to some of the older residents. especially the ones who have

who have many stories to tell. Ray Baker, who completed his public school education this year and is going on to Thornhill High is a member of a family that has had three generations attend the Carrville school. On Tuesday morning Carrville school bell will ring out to summon the starting of a new school year. One can only look forward and wait and see what the future holds for Carrville. Sunday, September 7, services will resume at Carrville United will be anniversary Sunday. Plans for this are being made and will be announced later. W.A. Meets August 3 The September meeting of the Carrville United Church Women's Association will be held at the home of Mrs. Grant Drewery, Stouffville, on Wednesday, September 3, at 2 p.m. Scripture by Mrs. J. Baker, paper by Mrs. J.

and Mrs. J. McEwen. The ladies are all looking forward to this Holiday Trip Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and George and Margaret had a lovely two week holiday travelling to North Bay, Englehart, Ottawa, and St. Joviet, Quebec, visiting relatives Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gregson while there, then to Montreal. They visited friends at Port Hope, then home. While in Ottawa they visited the House of Commons and the Senate. Mrs. A. Hayter spent a lovely two weeks at Mrs. White's nursing home while the Williams were away. Mrs. Hayter had the cast removed from her foot and is making good progress with it. Re Our Mail Carrier

Will patrons on R. R. No. 2,

Maple, please note that the mail carrier has to enter hospital for two operations this Saturday. During his absence the carrier from R. R. No. 1 will deliver his mail and she requests that to facilitate delivery box owners have their names on the outside of their boxes and any other names "in care of the box" on a
