School News
Mothers of 30 first graders who had dispatched their youngsters to the George Bailey Public School Monday morning were surprised to see them parading through the village later in the day. However the children were only heading for the Maple Community Centre with their teacher where their class will meet for the next few weeks. For contrary to expectations a room has not yet been completed in the addition to the school.

Hope Public School starts the year off with the same enrollment as last year, 57 pupils. Thirty students are enrolled in the senior class which is taught by Mr. C. M. Reid who has been principal for the past four years. Mrs. Monahan from Hanover is in charge of the 27 pupils in the junior class.

Trustees of the school are Mr. George Calder, Mr. Wilbur Hadden and Mr. R. J. Baker.

Socials
Miss Barbara Rose, whose marriage to Mr. Philip D. Cook took place on Saturday, was honored with a shower at the community centre by her many Maple friends last Wednesday evening.

After the opening of the gifts, which included linen, an ironing board, several lamps, and a table, delicious refreshments were served.

Assisting in convening the affair were Mrs. Jean LaRiziere, Mrs. Flo Strachan, Mrs. Pat Davis, Mrs. Marg Kerrigan, Mrs. Margaret Parks, Miss Agnes Couper, Mrs. Carol Munshaw, Mrs. Kathy Johnson and Miss Marilyn Watson.

Miss Rose has resided in Maple for the past four years and has been a member of the bowling & baseball leagues in the community.

Shower
A pretty shower complimented Miss Helen Thomas, whose marriage to Mr. Norman Hamilton of Schomberg, takes place Saturday, September 20, when Mrs. June Wells entertained on Monday evening at her home.

The honor guest was the recipient of many gifts which were placed under a pink and white umbrella. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Cambden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Chadwick and children, Lyndale, Derek and Lance have been the guests of Mrs. Chadwick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson, Malden. Mr. Chadwick has been stationed at Barin Field, Ala., as an aeronautical engineer with the U.S. Naval Air Corps. He left Tuesday evening for his new posting at the Naval Air Base in Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Chadwick and the children are planning to spend a week longer with Mr. and Mrs. Malden.

On Sunday the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson, Malden, enjoyed a delightful reunion at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Madsen, Bellmar Farm, Weston. Mr. and Mrs. Madsen have recently returned from their residence in Jamaica, where with their five children they spent the summer. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Chadwick and family, and Mrs. Peter Swain, Mr. and Mrs. Malden's youngest daughter, Mr. Swain and their children, Maribel and Philip.

Birthdays
Monday, September 8, was the birth date of several children in the village. Lynda LaRiziere, who was nine years old, entertained Lynda Cooper, Jety and Joyce Michaels and her brother, Douglas, with a party after school.

Sheena McDonald celebrated her eighth birthday.

Little Louis Kovacs was entertained at dinner by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Kovacs at their home in Malton on the occasion of his second birthday. His maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cooper, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Kovacs, were also present.

Ron Brice and Bob Manning, representing Richmond Hill High School, participated in the all-Ontario track meet held at Lawrence Park Collegiate Saturday.

Any ladies wishing to bowl with the Maple Ladies Bowling League this season are asked to contact Bertha Ingram at Maple 239, or Merle Mains at Maple 31 ring 41 as soon as possible as the league hopes to start its season Monday, September 22.

Cancer Society
Reports from the various committees of the Maple Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society and the election of officers for the coming year will form the agenda for the annual business meeting of the society which is to be held Thursday evening, September 18, at 8 p.m. in the Lions Room at the Maple Community Centre.

With fall activities getting in full swing, your correspondent would appreciate a call to report your club or church meeting, party, personals or any other newsy event in the community. She can be reached at Maple 62 ring 24.

Hope Anniversary
The anniversary service for Hope United Church will be held Sunday, September 21, at 11 a.m. The guest preacher for the occasion will be Rev. Kennedy of Temperanceville. The guest soloist will be Mr. Harry Davis of Don Mills.

Norm Sitwell Hospitalized Following Seizure

Conservation officer Norm Sitwell of Willowdale, a member of the Department of Lands and Forests, Maple, is at present in hospital at Cobourg, following a heart attack suffered while vacationing in that area last month. Members of the staff and his many friends in the district wish him good luck and a speedy recovery.

Double Ring Ceremony Burns-Payne Nuptial

In a double ring ceremony in the Church of St. Stephens, North York, Gail Naomi Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cardon Payne of Weston, was united in marriage to William John Christopher Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Burns of Edgeley. Rev. F. W. Fry performed the ceremony against a background of pink and white fall flowers. Mr. Allan Jackson played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown with full skirt and the bodice was fashioned with a Peter Pan collar, long sleeves and an over jacket of French lace that extended to below the waist and ended in a bow. She wore a fingertip veil banded with delicate embroidery which was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Miss Beverly Plow of Weston was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length pale blue crystal-ette dress fashioned in the princess line and a scalloped scoop neckline. She wore matching shoes and mittens, and carried a cascade bouquet of a white lily, pink gladioli and green ivy.

Mrs. Ronald Burns of Don Mills and Mrs. Harry Medinsky of Concord were her bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in ballerina length, French blue crystal-ette dresses with fitted flare skirt, V-neckline and shawl collar. They wore matching shoes, white wrist length gloves, blue flower headresses and carried a cascade of a pink lily, pink gladioli and green ivy.

Miss Virginia Payne was junior bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina length pale blue crystal-ette dress, her scoop neckline fashioned in a single scallop. She wore a blue flowered headress and matching blue flat shoes and white gloves and she also carried a bouquet of a pink lily, pink gladioli and green ivy.

Mr. Ronald Burns of Don Mills was best man for his brother. His cousin, Robert Burns of Leaside and Harry Medinsky of Concord were the ushers. They all wore white jackets, black trousers and black bow ties.

During the ceremony Mrs. McLaren of Toronto sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

At the reception in Martindale Lodge, Albion Road, the bride's mother received the guests, wearing a dusty rose lace sheath dress and matching taffeta-lined coat, matching shoes, black accessories and her corsage was a small replica of the bride's bouquet. The groom's mother assisted, wearing an emerald green taffeta dress, pink hat and stole and a corsage of yellow and bronze mums and green ivy.

Mrs. Thomas Payne of St. Catharines, the bride's grandmother, wore a navy blue lace dress with matching hat, shoes and purse, white gloves and corsage of white gladioli and pink roses.

The Concord and Edgeley Bowling League will begin Friday, September 14, with 16 teams to start. The teams play at Woodbridge.

Socials
Mr. and Mrs. B. Henderson and Mr. John Wiley entertained Mr. Henderson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Keath and family of Flesheron on Sunday, September 7.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Al Nash, Garden Ave., on the arrival of their first baby, a little girl.

Birthdays Greetings
Birthday greetings to Bruce Webster who was four years old on September 5, and to Mark Medensky who celebrates his first birthday September 19.

Miss Elizabeth Baker celebrated her birthday with a swimming party last Saturday. Those helping Elizabeth to celebrate were her sisters, Mary Ann and Martha, Jean and Linda Gilbert, Elsie Neva, Donna Voigt, Anna Svatina, Betty-Jean Salmon and Carole Keffer. After playing a few games, the girls went swimming in the pond. Following this vigorous exercise the girls were able to do full justice to the lovely birthday supper prepared by Mrs. Baker.

Hay! Hay!
Hay fever sufferers may rejoice as this past week some of the empty lots in the Keffer subdivision have been mowed at last.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sinnott and Miss Mary Rose Sinnott of Thorold, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McQuilton, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McQuilton, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McQuilton, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prince, Mr. and Mrs. George Hostick, Mr. Terrance Southon, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Southon, Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson, Miss Gwen Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferguson, all of St. Catharines; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Southon of Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Burns and Mrs. Edward McFarlane and her son Les MacIntosh, all of Scarborough; Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Burns and Bob and Mr. and Mrs. Brian Clayson of Leaside, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burton of Rosebank, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Peters of Richmond Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Medinsky of Concord, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linn of Angus, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Patterson of Barrie and Donald Hawksworth of Edgeley.

Among the messages of congratulations and best wishes that the happy couple received was one from the groom's brother, Mr. Harold Burns and Mrs. Burns who were unable to attend the wedding.

On September 14, church will be held at 9:30 a.m. September 21 will be the anniversary of Hope Church. There will be no church at Edgeley that Sunday. September 28 will be the anniversary of Edgeley United Church.

Frankie Young will be celebrating his birthday September 13.

Jim Hodgson Manager For Maple Bowl

The board of the Maple Community Centre has announced the appointment of James Hodgson as manager of the four bowling alleys in the Community Hall on Keele St.

Mr. Hodgson, who moved to Maple from East York three and a half years ago is married and his wife and 12 year old daughter Joan also likes to bowl at the community centre.

Mr. Hodgson is employed as a mechanic at the Underwood Typewriter company in Toronto during the day, but since his wonderful success last year in organizing a children's bowling league for the Lions Club (of which he is a member), he was approached by the committee to organize and supervise league teams four rights weekly in his spare time.

Several teams have already made arrangements to play at the community alleys, and this Friday night Mr. Hodgson will be on hand at the centre to interview any representatives who wish to start a team for the fall and winter season.

Miss Barbara Ann Rose Bride Of Philip D. Cook

Late summer was chosen by Miss Barbara Ann Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rose, Maple, and Mr. Philip David Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cook of Weston, for the exchanging of their marriage vows. The ceremony took place in the Maple United Church on Saturday, September 6 at 3 o'clock with the Rev. H. W. Davies officiating.

Baskets of coral and white gladioli formed an effective background for the wedding party. Mrs. Roy Clegg presided at the organ and Miss Joan Neufeld sang, "O Promise Me" and "Because".

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride was a lovely picture in her wedding dress of white Italian lace. The princess styled gown had panels of matching lace and long pointed sleeves. Sewn into the neckline were tiny seed pearls. Her floor length lace veil was caught to the organ with a dainty pleated crown trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red rosebuds and baby chrysanthemums.

Maid-of-honor was Miss Helen Calder who wore a ballerina-length yellow chiffon gown and carried a vari-colored bouquet of gladioli and mums. The bevy of bridesmaids included Katherine Johnson, Mrs. Ray Munshaw and Miss Connie Kniston of Weston. All wore powder blue chiffon dresses similar in style to the maid-of-honour's and they carried peach gladioli and blue tinted mums. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Lynda Rose, sister of the bride, and Miss Patricia Cook, sister of the groom. Their dresses were of powder blue taffeta and they also carried bouquets
