Langstaff Art Club
 Langstaff Art Club resumed classes this Tuesday evening. Oil painting classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. and on Wednesday afternoons at 1:30 from September 9 until December 9, each class lasting about two hours.
 The aim is to make good pictures which are a pleasure to paint and lovely to hang on your walls. You choose whether to paint still life, landscapes, people or animals and you may copy if you wish. The club has many new pictures or you may bring your own.
 Anyone interested in the subject will find it not too difficult, whether beginner or more advanced. Women, men or children over 11 years of age are welcome.
 For further information phone Mrs. R. Aston, AV. 5-3250.
Mark-Vaun Women's Institute
 The first meeting of the Mark-Vaun Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Glassey, Garden Ave., on Thursday, September 4. There was a good turnout of members, and guests from Thornhill W.I. The roll call for the evening was "Table Centre from Home Garden" and there were many lovely table centres displayed. Flowers, fruit and vegetables of all kinds were used and the winning centrepiece was that of Mrs. Hamblin, a horn of plenty filled with fruit and flowers.
 Final plans were made for the bazaar and draw, see coming events notice for particulars.
 A letter of invitation from the Langstaff Young Women's Institute was read inviting Mark-Vaun to attend their first meeting on Wednesday, September 10, at the home of Mrs. Joan Suter, Westwood Lane.
 Mrs. Mott, Convenor of Agriculture and Canadian Industries, showed colored pictures of her trip to England and Scotland, and also movies were shown of the annual picnic held at Greenwood Park.
 Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. C. Thompson, President of the Thornhill W.I., thanked the Mark-Vaun ladies for an enjoyable evening.

1st Langstaff Cubs
 Keneu Pack of the first Langstaff Cubs got underway on Tuesday, September 2, at Langstaff School. All the cubs are urged to attend the meetings so that the year's activities can get started without delay.
Baptist Church News
 The church groups are beginning their fall meetings this month. The Ladies' Evening Mission Circle will be having their first meeting this Thursday, September 12, in the church. Notice of the beginning of the Lamp-lighters will be in a later issue.

Community Club
 The Doncaster Community Ladies Club held their first meeting of the season, in the form of a corn roast. Sixteen members and visitors gathered around the barbecue at the home of Mrs. J. Adkins and joined in the fun.
 Mrs. Haley and children, Larke Ave., are visiting friends in Belleville, Ont.
Baby Clinic
 The Baby Clinic which formerly was held at Henderson Ave. School will now be held at the United Church, on Dudley Ave., on the fourth Wednesday of each month, from 1:30 to 3 o'clock.
 Eighteen guides and leaders from the 1st Thornhill Guides, spent the week end camping at Georgetown.
 A welcome to the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. F. Perkins and son who have moved in at 126 Clarke Ave.
Teenage Club
 The Doncaster Highland Park Teenage Club is again being organized under the supervision of the YMCA. A meeting was held on September 8, at the YMCA, Willowdale, to elect the new executive. The former president, Richard Barbour, is now a junior leader. The new executive is: President, Keith Jordan; Vice-president, Mary Perrault; secretary, Ron Vautier; treasurer, Kathy Clow; news reporter, Judy Angel.
 It has not yet been decided where meetings will be held this season.
Henderson Home and School
 The first meeting of the Henderson Ave. Home and School was held September 8, and was very well attended. After an interesting film, "Who Will Teach My Child", parents visited the teachers in their rooms, and heard them discuss the curriculum. Refreshments were served in the auditorium. Don't forget the fun fair planned for October. Assistance in the form of donations of every description and personal services in large quantities, will be required to make this a great success. If you can donate anything or if you can offer your time, it will all help to raise a large sum of money than this and it deserves the support of all of us.
Doncaster Bible Chapel held its annual picnic on September 6 at Woodland Park. Races and games were enjoyed by all in spite of the unsettled weather.
 A white rat, recently returned from the laboratory to his cage, ran up to a fellow rat in great excitement. "You know what?" he exclaimed. "I've got Dr. Zilch conditioned!"
 "How so?" asked his buddy.
 "Well," said the first rat, "every time I go through the maze he gives me food!"

HOW TO SELECT BULBS FOR YOUR FALL GARDEN — They're easy to grow; no bother once they're planted and their display of spring colour will be your favourite attraction. Bulbs can be planted any time between the first of September and the last of November. The types of spring-flowering bulbs you plant depend on your personal preferences. Dolly Craig, our lovely mother prefers the fringed beauty of Parrot tulips and the ruffled loveliness of poony tulips. Donnie, her little daughter prefers the tall stately Darwin tulips, after the Normans moved elsewhere. The single called the Anstocrat, of Tulipdom and the single called the Dutch bulbs are always the first out in the spring. Dutch bulbs are reasonably priced and so easy to grow that everyone can have all of their favourite varieties. MALAK, Ottawa.

 It was pleasant to hear news of Miss Rhoda Barker lately. She was visiting with her niece in Toronto at Exhibition time, and was able to spend a day there with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Wellman.
 According to reports, High School is a "jolly place" for the new pupils; we hope the same goes for the new teachers.
 David Terry, Billy Clarkson, and Bob Lee met in Acreman's house one evening last week for a corn and weiner roast. The boys all reported a good time.
 Lorraine and Murray Acreman were week end guests in Hamilton of Mrs. A. Foster and Miss Janet Foster.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Barker were in Hamilton on Sunday.

They went to reside Elisabeth, who will be in residence at the hospital there for a month, as part of her nurses' aide training. Elisabeth will celebrate her birthday the next week on September 17.
 It was nice to get back to regular service time in church last Sunday and to have Mr. Binnington with us, looking well after vacation. However, Rally Day in the Sunday school will bring a slight change of procedure when the service will be a joint one of Sunday School and the Church. This will be on September 21.
 On Sunday last, we were happy to welcome to our Sunday School, Michael Calder and his small brother. The Calder family are living in Mr. Mike Dunleavy's house, the Howies and Griffins having moved elsewhere. The Norman Tyndalls are moving to Victoria Square.
 Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wellman and their family were in church on Sunday, being guests later of Mrs. Wm. Wellman.
 Don Brodie returned from a well earned vacation this week, spent at the Junior Farmers' camp at Orilla.
