W. Dean & Family Enjoy Motor Trip

Mr. Wilfred R. Dean, Deputy-reeve of Markham Township, accompanied by Mrs. Dean, their daughter and son, enjoyed their interesting tour of Northern Ontario and United States. Traveling by car, they visited the nickel mining centre of Sudbury, then on through the Spanish River country to Cutler, with a side trip along Highway 612 to Elliott Lake, famed uranium mining centre where they were amazed at the change and the growth in population from almost zero to over 23,000 in just a few years. Following a stop-over at Blind River, Dean Lake and Sault Ste. Marie, the Mackinac Bridge — longest in the world — was crossed, and visits were made to Toledo, Ohio, Cleveland and Detroit, and back home. Though the fishing was light in spots along the route, this was compensated for by the fine weather prevailing throughout the trip.

Thornhill Summer Holidays

by Doris M. FitzGerald

Though in perfect accord on one point — that Thornhill is a wonderful place in which to live, residents of our village show an interesting diversity of choice in the matter of holiday spots. Before happy memories of the summer season fade into the background of autumn activities, you may like to hear where a cross section of the community travelled, relaxed at cottages and resorts, or even worked.

Mr. Martin Baldwin, director of the Art Gallery of Toronto, and Mrs. Baldwin visited art galleries abroad, and stayed with friends on the French Riviera. Mr. and Mrs. James Bridges (she is president of Thornhill Horticultural Society) spent May and June touring England and Scotland. Mrs. Betty Paterson, her partner in the B-lina Hat Shop, Willowdale, and a friend flew to Brussels and the World Fair, and combined sight-seeing with visits to high fashion millinery houses on the continent and in England. Miss Elizabeth Neil, who went to Norway and Denmark with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Neil, in July, has taken an interesting job in London, England. She will assist in setting up a cerebral palsy centre at Great Ormond St. Hospital for children.

Other travellers afar were Miss Penny Reid of the Penny-Dot Beauty Salon, who flew to Jamaica, and Mrs. David Carruthers, who enjoyed a month in colorful Mexico and, later in the summer, took a motor trip to Nantucket with her husband. Deputy Reeve of Markham Township Wilfred Dean and Mrs. Dean had promised Shirley and John a motor trip but, due to anxiety about Mr. Dean's mother, who was ill, they were away only five days. However, they managed to get as far west as Fort William, and to have a look at Elliott Lake, the booming new mining town where streets are being blasted out of the rock, stores and homes are being built, and hundreds of families are still housed in trailers. The Deans also visited the Detroit Zoo, one of the largest in the world, and saw a huge new shopping centre in that city. From a distance it appeared to be all under one roof, but was actually laid out in streets with a profusion of flowers growing between the sidewalks.

Dr. J. S. Glen, principal of Knox College, which is this week celebrating its centenary, filled in at Grace Presbyterian Church, Calgary, while the rector, Dr. Frank Morley, was away. Dr. Glen also visited Banff and other points of interest on a speaking tour to the west coast.

Except for short trips, Mrs. Glen held the fort at home while their three daughters came and went. Eleanor, who lectured at Victoria College last year, has just left for the University of British Columbia where she will lecture in English; Gwyneth, a graduate of Toronto Western Hospital has been holidaying in Miami, and Catherine Glen (a prize winner at Thornhill Swimming Pool) was a swimming instructor at Camp Ayschoonyoung, Virginia, Ont., this summer. Mrs. W. A. Cameron, who once lived in Winnipeg, drove with friends to Winnipeg and the Lake of the Woods.

The Rev. E. Aske, rector of Trinity Anglican Church, and Mrs. Aske motored to Vancouver and Victoria, brought back Mrs. Aske's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Webb, for a month in Thornhill, and visited Mr. Aske's parents in Moose Jaw en route.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edmund Willis also motored to the west coast and one of the centennial celebrations which they especially enjoyed was the great military tattoo in the Vancouver Stadium in which many bands from Ontario took part.

Mrs. Stride and her daughter Penny Anne travelled on the "Canadian" to Vancouver, visiting friends both there and on the way. While staying with a school friend in Edmonton, Penny Anne was flown up to Yellowknife on Great Slave Lake, which is celebrating its 21st anniversary with exhibitions of Indian dancing, a buffalo barbecue, fireworks and street dancing, all under a sky shot with brilliant northern lights.

Summer cottages are second homes to many families. Village Trustee Frank Tucker and Mrs. Tucker and their six children went to their cottage on the Nottawasaga River in the Hockley Valley. Trustee P. D. McTaggart-Cowan and his wife and two children spent week-ends working around and enjoying their "farm" north of Bracebridge.

Mrs. George H. McLaren and Miss Jane McLaren (our Thornhill librarian) spent the month of August at their point on Tobin's Island, Lake Simcoe. Bought 70 years ago by Mrs. McLaren's father-in-law, the late Col. McLaren of Hamilton, the property has been occupied by members of the family for at least part of every summer since then. Also staying at her cottage in Muskoka was Mrs. Harold Rowsell, who when accidentally knocked down broke her hip, in the spring. Unable to walk when she left for the north, she returned to Thornhill minus a cane. Mr. and Mrs. Don Davidson and their family went to her parents (the N. L. Mortons) cottage in Haliburton. Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Harrison and Jim went back north to their cottage at Beaverton. Canadian Bank of Commerce Manager W. D. McLaren and Mrs. McLaren and their children returned to their cottage at Carleton Place. Mr. and Mrs. David McLean took their three little girls to a cottage on Lake Simcoe, near Jackson's Point. Mrs. Willard Simpson, Nancy and Jane were at Idgwyld, Lake of Bays, as usual, and were joined on week-ends by Mr. Simpson. Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stow and their three boys enjoyed their summer on Lake Ontario, within a few minutes of Toronto. They occupied the Centre Island house bought by her father more than 40 years ago, and which they hope will not be

The Women's Auxiliary of the Thornhill Baptist Church met on Tuesday, September 16, for their first fall meeting, at the home of Mrs. P. The president announced that the W.A. will be holding a Thanksgiving supper at the church on October 3, which would include all the families of the church. A thankoffering will be taken for the new Baptistery and the supper and Mrs. A. G. Barber, formerly of Richmond Hill, will show colored slides on the continent. It was also announced that caecor dressings are badly needed and it is hoped that there will be a good turnout for the first work night to be held at the home of Mrs. Smook, October 6, at 7 p.m. sharp. The guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Roberts, who showed some very interesting pictures on her trip to South Africa which were enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held at the church on October 21, at 8 p.m. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Cleve Hooper of Blythwood Church who will speak on flower arranging.

The Young Adults met Sunday evening in the Church. The meeting was in charge of president Norman Terry. The lesson and devotions centered on the old testament character, Jacob. Excerpts on the life of Jacob were given by Jerry Easton and Don Anderson. A social hour followed with refreshments.

Holy Trinity Parish Guild
On Tuesday, September 16th, the first fall meeting of the Parish Guild was held at the rectory on Yonge St. There was a very good turnout of regular members, and also five new members were present. The president, Mrs. Betty Ball, opened the meeting with prayer. Plans for the bazaar, which is being held on November 6, were discussed, and each convenor gave a report on the work being done. Some of the features of the bazaar will be: The Christmas decoration booth with many interesting articles, such as birch Yule logs for table decorations, gaily decorated felt stockings, Christmas tree skirts, fancy candles; the delicatessen booth with many delicious salads, meats and pickles and jams, etc.; the bake table with its wonderful goodies; the sewing booth with its colorful aprons, knitting bags, needle cases, cushion covers, and other items; the knitting, the dolls' clothes, the candy; and for the children the fish pond. After the business meeting, a progressive game was played, and then delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Aske. A special meeting will be held at the church on Tuesday, September 30, for the purpose of making candles and making decorations. We would like as many members present as possible. The next regular meeting will be held in the church hall on Tuesday, October 7.

Holy Trinity Women's Auxiliary To Hold Autumn Fete In October

On Thursday, September 11, the W.A. of Holy Trinity Church, Thornhill resumed meetings after summer vacation. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. G. A. Howe, at which time plans were discussed for the fall project.

This year it will be an "Autumn Fete", snack luncheon, bake sale and silent sale. Mrs. G. Davie is general convenor, assisted by Mrs. A. McTaggart-Cowan. Mrs. J. N. C. Hill will direct the preparation of food for a delicious snack luncheon. Mrs. W. Aske and Mrs. R. Priestman have delightful plans for the decoration of the hall to resemble a fascinating garden in which the ladies may sit to eat lunch.

The "silent sale" is a form of auction on which the ladies may bid silently for any article they may desire. Mrs. R. Healey with her assistants will be prepared to help the participants in this. Mrs. L. T. Redman with her committee will be in charge of the home baking.

During the summer the members have been busy working a "friendship quilt". It will be on display so that anyone who wishes may add their name and take a chance on becoming the owner of this attractive quilt.

It is hoped that the ladies of the village will support this effort as it is in this way the W.A. help to raise money for their part in the Holy Trinity Exhibition for a theological student.
