"The Liberal" is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1105 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Mr. Philip Swan, C.A., attending the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants Conference, September 14 to 17 held at the new Queen Elizabeth Hotel in Montreal. On one afternoon the Quebec hydro was host on a conducted tour of the St. Lawrence Seaway project and the power plant at Beauharnois.

Mr. W. Evan Sexsmith, a retired high school teacher, is offering his services free of charge to any local student who is experiencing difficulty in his French or English subjects, grades 9 to 13. Mr. Sexsmith enjoyed his many years in high school teaching and is willing to assist any young people. He comes to Richmond Hill from Picton.

The McConaghy Public School Grade VIII, "58" class recently held their graduating exercises. Guest speaker was Mr. R. A. Johnson, principal of the Toronto Teachers' Training College. Trustee L. Clement and Mr. J. Pearce, Grade VIII teacher, presented the students with their diplomas and school pins. Principal G. McDiarmid introduced Diane Hayes, who had been chosen the most outstanding student of the graduating class because of her scholastic and sports records. She was presented with the home and school award by Mrs. Connie Matthews.

Kay Pressley, who was valedictorian, reminisced through their public school years. She disclosed that on their way home from their Niagara Falls expedition they had adopted a theme song, "Down by the Old Mill Stream". Later in the evening the class was persuaded by Mr. Pearce to sing this song to the delight of parents.

Mrs. Audrey Graham, social convener for the McConaghy Home and School Association, served refreshments.

Miss Harriett Christie, principal of the United Church Training School, will be the speaker at the Harriett Taylor Auxiliary, W.M.S., Richmond Hill United Church, on Thursday, Oct. 2, at 2:30. Miss Christie has just returned from a trip to Japan and Korea. Mrs. C. E. Sale will be the soloist. After the meeting the visiting auxiliaries will be taken on a tour of the new Christian Education Building.

A luncheon was held at the home of Division Commissioner Mrs. H. G. D. Currie to announce the appointment of Mrs. Hugh Yerex as the new Guide Commissioner for Richmond Hill West. Fourteen guides were present and in the absence, due to illness, of Mrs. E. Redelmeier, the retiring commissioner, Mrs. Currie welcomed Mrs. Yerex and wished her every success in her new venture.

One of the most attractive fall brides will be Miss Carol Mansbridge whose marriage to Mr. Bruce Munro takes place next Saturday, September 27th, at the Richmond Hill Baptist Church. Carol has been entertained enthusiastically and generously by all her many friends and the Liberal takes this opportunity of wishing her all the very best of good luck in her forthcoming marriage.

A very happy time was had by Roy McIvlen, when he celebrated his 74th birthday on Thursday, September 18th. In the guest list were Barbby and Cathy Smith, Bobbie Wehber, Peter and Frances Ross, Michael Aziz, Bradley Kirkpatrick, Bruce Townsend, Shelly Scott and his sister Cathryn. After a delicious birthday cake, games were enjoyed, and balloons and favors given out.

Members of Mrs. Kay Butt's bridge club had a preview of all the latest fashions at Warwick House which will be opening on Thursday, September 25th. They were shown by Miss Sun Valley and other prominent clothes designers and were most enthusiastic about the collection.

An inaugural meeting of the U.K. Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rickard at Mill St. on Sunday, Sept. 21st. The meeting was very well attended, the purpose of the club shall be where Canadians and Old Country people can meet together socially and enjoy mutual interests and meet old friends. The following executive was elected: Mr. V. Ledwith, president; Mr. T. Metcalfe, vice-president; Mrs. Lucy Rickard, secretary-treasurer. The first social meeting will be held on Saturday, October 4th, at 8 p.m. New members will be welcome. For particulars phone Mr. Ledwith, TU. 4-4273, or Mrs. Lucy Rickard, TU. 4-4292, or Mr. T. Metcalfe, TU. 4-2760.

Joyous sounds came from the home of Helen Smith of Cartier Crescent when she celebrated her 17th birthday on Saturday, September 20th. Among the guests were Marilyn Uerstine, Josephine Knight, Margaret Simpson, Marguerite Beaulieu, Sally Troit, Algon Smith and sister Lindsay. Games of all kinds were enjoyed, organized by Helen, and colored balloons and favors added to the gaiety of the party, which was featured by a lovely birthday cake.

Last Sunday morning at 11 a.m. a large congregation in St. Mary's Anglican Church witnessed the Baptism of Mary MacCallum, infant daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. F. O'Neil of St. Mary's Rectory. The Rector officiated at the service, assisted by the Rev. E. Morley and Mr. Don Little, Lay Reader.

Harvest festival services of Thanksgiving will be held at St. Mary's Anglican Church next Sunday, September 28, at all services. Gifts of fruit, vegetables and flowers will be welcomed on Saturday morning for decorating.

The newly formed Anglican Young Peoples' Association of St. Mary's Anglican Church will hold its first business meeting immediately after the evening service next Sunday in Wrixon Hall. All Anglican Young People are invited to this meeting.

Confirmation classes for adults and teen-agers are now under way at St. Mary's Anglican Church. Further candidates may be admitted to the classes next Sunday evening.

Bruce Bignell, Beverley Acres, celebrated his 9th birthday last Saturday with a party at which a number of his young friends thoroughly enjoyed the games, festivities in the recreation room, also the cutting of the birthday cake. Present also were his parents, and Bruce was happy for his grandmother to be there. Mrs. G. Ewington, from Hertfordshire, England. The younger guests included Judy Thomas, Lea Nieberg, Jimmy and Jerry Worrall, Sydney Layton, Louise, Debbie and Steve.

MARKHAM P.C. Chester Gillett of Markham Village Police and P.C. Bob Hood of Markham Township Police organized a full scale search on Sunday of last week to look for three lost children. The children were located at a service station 10 miles south of the village after they had been missing for 10 hours.

On Wednesday, September 24, Elaine Rice of Richmond St. celebrated her third birthday with a party for all her friends. Among the guests were Cathy and Barb Maxwell, Shelley Scott, Lucy Dewsbury, Judy Dick and Elaine's two brothers, Jimmy and Tommy. A large multicolored iced birthday cake decorated the table which was filled with lots of good things to eat. After playing several games, gay balloons and favours were given to each small guest.

On Saturday, September 28, at 2 p.m. Wrixon Hall will be the scene of the 8th annual Rummage sale organized by the St. Mary's Evening Women's Auxiliary. This group were the first in the community to organize rummage sales and it is interesting to note that their first sale eight years ago was a great deal of help to women's fashions. This resulted in a large quantity of exceptionally good quality clothing being handed in to sell, and that high standard set a pattern for all subsequent sales. The established principle is high quality and low prices and the W.A. feel they owe their great success to the whole community who have supported the project so well throughout the year.

In the last week, no less than three showers were held for Miss Margaret Guppy of Richmond Hill and Douglas Edward Clague of Richvale who plan to get married in Thornhill United Church on Saturday, September 27. The first, a linen shower, was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Guppy and was given by the matron of honor, Miss Connie Ingles. Mrs. P. Kendall, whose daughter Mary Ellen is going to be the flower girl, gave the second shower, and the third was held in the home of the bridegroom's cousin, Miss Phyllis Waterson. These showers came as a complete surprise to the happy pair, who were delighted and grateful for the generosity of their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Shadoff attended the wedding of Miss Marjorie Marshall to John David McClelland at the church of St. Columba, Toronto, on Saturday, September 20th.

Mrs. Tomlin, wife of Richmond Hill's mayor K. W. Tomlin, suffered a fractured wrist as a result of a fall in her Centre St. home Sunday evening. A few minutes after returning from the Miss Christie's party, she started down the basement steps when her heel caught causing the unfortunate accident.

You won't want to miss the first showing in this area of the latest Billy Graham film, "The Heart is a Rebel". This outstanding, full length, color film will be shown this coming Sunday, September 28th, in the Richmond Hill Baptist Church, 50 Wright St., at 8:15 p.m. The film provides a Christian's answer to life's fears, frustrations and anxieties. Be sure to see it at the church "where welcome is more than a word".

At the morning service of St. Matthew's United Church on Sunday last, the Sacrament of Infant Baptism was observed. Scott Douglas, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bull, and Sarah Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Affleck, were baptized.

The Glen Elm Women's Institute held their regular meeting last Monday at the home of Mrs. George Reid, 399 Crosby Avenue. Mrs. M. Cook presided and the meeting was well attended. Following the observance of the Ode and the Creed, Mrs. Lance read the monthly current events. Mrs. Nicholson displayed a range of fine Christmas greeting cards for the members to choose from. These cards are utilized for Christmas projects of the W.I. An invitation was received from the Victoria Square Women's Institute meeting in October. Mrs. Goulding and Mrs. Mitchell served a delicious lunch, and a special visitor, Mrs. O. Baird, was welcomed. The Glen Elm W.I. meeting will be held on October 14th at the home of Mrs. Goulding, 229 Palmer Avenue, and a hearty welcome will be given to all ladies attending.

After flying via T.C.A. from Malton to New York City on the first lap of their month's trip to Europe, Mr. Frank Resentera and daughter Mary learnt that the K.L.M. Dutch Airlines Super Constellation had crashed into the Atlantic with the tragic loss of all 99 aboard. The lost airplane was the plane that the Resenteras expected to travel on, but the tragedy did not deter them from boarding the next K.L.M. airliner for Amsterdam, which was reached after touching down at Prestwick, Scotland.

Commencing their European tour, they travelled by train and bus through France, along the coast of the Mediterranean to Genoa, Italy, after visiting the shrines at Lourdes. Their tour of Italy included visits to many resorts and scenic spots including Rome, Alexandria, Milan, Padova, Saele, Udine, Tricresimo, Sappada, Leaning Tower of Pisa, Venice, Isle of Grado, Island of Lido, Barbana, also to Trieste and Villaco in Austria, and to the Duchy of Luxembourg. At Cortina and Tricresimo in Italy, a Resentera family reunion was enjoyed; also visits were made to relatives of two families now living in Richmond Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Patriarca, formerly of Tricresimo, also at Casino, relatives of Mr. Felicia and Corradino Carcone.

The return flight to Canada was made by K.L.M. Super Constellation via Shannon, Ireland, Gander, Newfoundland, to Malton. With fine weather prevailing throughout the trip, the Resenteras have brought back moving film and many photos that will revive memories of their visit to their "home town," also of the scenic and historic spots visited.

At the Richmond Hill United Church at eight o'clock Monday, September 29th, a "Ladies Fellowship Night" will be held in the church hall. An evening of rejoicing and celebration for all the women of the congregation.

The Church Boys' League of St. Mary's Anglican Church held their weekly meeting on Thursday evening at the church hall. Preceding the meeting the boys joined in a lively game of soccer in the parking lot. The meeting opened with Sir Harry Hartwick taking the responses. The lesson was read by Esq. Fraser Dunn. Sir David Brown was elected Keeper of the Purse. All the boys joined in the march around the hall in preparation for the Beeton clave which was held at Beeton the following Saturday. Ball hockey was played. The meeting was closed by Prior Fletcher.

At the Richmond Hill United Church the Sunday morning service, September 28th, will take the form of an expression of joy on the occasion of entering into their new Christian Education organizations will tell of all their joy and thankfulness. Mr. John Spanner will be the narrator, and the guest preacher will be the Rev. Frank Fidler of the United Church Board of Christian Education.

The Crosby Heights Home and School Association will hold their first meeting of the season on Thursday night, October 2nd, in the Bayview Acres Public School. The principal, Mr. Gooding, and staff members of the Crosby Heights school will be introduced. The chairman of the local public school board, Mr. Robert Foss, will present a progress report on the new school.

A very interesting and musical program will feature the first "Vestry Tea" and bake sale by the combined members of the Richmond Hill United Church afternoon and evening branches of the W.A., and the Women's Missionary Society. Mrs. George Fenwick and Mrs. Ralph Butler are the convenors of this event and girls of the C.G.I.T. will be offering. Musical items will be used, and the history of the Women's Missionary Society will be narrated by Mrs. George Gee, and the W.A. history given by Mrs. Clarence Atkinson.

Having recently returned from a trip to England and European countries, Miss Ruth Anderson, teacher and organizer of the Women's League of Health and Beauty, Toronto branch, will be opening a centre for this fine organization in Richmond Hill at the request of many ladies. Information is contained in the advertisement of the group in this week's issue of The Liberal.

The senior branch of the W.A. of St. Mary's Anglican Church held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon in Wrixon Hall. The good attendance of members was appreciated. In addition to their Mission obligations, plans were made for their special evening entertainment on Friday, November 7th, and Saturday, December 6th, was the date scheduled for their annual bazaar. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. S. G. Phillips and Mrs. M. C. Fry.

In addition to many out of town buyers, a number of old-time residents of Richmond Hill were to be observed among the large crowd attending the auction sale held at 22 Richmond Street, the home of the late Miss Mattie Harrison, last Thursday. A former school teacher, the late Miss Harrison was the daughter of the late Mr. William Harrison, widely known in this area in the "early days" for his skill as a harness maker. Mr. Alvin S. Farmer, the well known auctioneer, reports that the bidding was brisk and high prices realized for the furniture and effects sold, being one of the best auction sales held in Richmond Hill for some time. Quite a number of odd and antique articles were offered at small prices, including a ring valued $5.00 and $6.00, a diamond ring, old revolving crank $7.00, stereoscope $3.00, set of Limoges dishes $50.00, parlour lamp $18.00, glass fruit stand $3.00, Trunks sold well, also the books, $9.00 being bid for a World Atlas, and a History of Canada realizing $10.00.

Mr. M. D. King, Church St. St.-th, attended the ceremonies held last week in Toronto to mark the retirement of C.N.R. Conductor Leslie Neil of Lindsay. Mr. Neil retired after 45 years of railroading. Both men served together on the Royal train which carried Princess Margaret from Toronto to Ottawa.

Mr. Connie Lister, Lynett Crescent, motored to Watkins Glen, New York, last week-end when he enjoyed the National American small car races.

Curtain Club Program Includes 2 Fall Plays

A gay theatre season is promised by Richmond Hill actors of the Curtain Club for their fall audiences.

The local Curtain Club has planned a very heavy schedule, producing two full length plays simultaneously, for the first time in the club's four year history. "The Happiest Days of Your Life", written by John Deighton, will be the first play to hit the boards of the Lions Hall stage on November 13, 14 and 15. This comedy farce, directed by the club's president, Mr. Gerald Crack has a cast of 6 men, 5 women and a number of children.

The second play, "Clarebard" written by Marcel Ayme, and directed by Mr. Rex Sevenoaks, will be a Canadian Premier for this work and the Curtain Club will be submitting this French comedy as their festival entry. Clarebard will be shown the night of November 29, at the Museum Theatre, Toronto.

St. Mary's C.B.L. Attends Diocesan Conclave, Beeton

St. Mary's Anglican Church was creditably represented last Saturday at Beeton when 17 members of the Church Boys' League and their leaders attended the 1958 C.B.L. Conclave of the Toronto Diocese.

Although not placing in the Diocesan Trophy, St. Mary's finished fourth in the overall points position.

After church service in St. Paul's, Beeton, the groups marched to the Beeton fair grounds and St. Mary's took second place for marching, deportment and uniform in this class and are very proud of their new pennant which was carried at the head of the column.

After lunch the boys entered into the sports competitions, and thoroughly enjoyed themselves, especially in the tug-of-war.

For the 1958-59 season the league has elected Knight Counsellor Sir David Aggs as Scribe and Sir David Brown as Keeper-of-the-Purse. We also welcome to our ranks Prior Norman Lew- to and are grateful and thankful to all the parents and friends who back up this organization.

Boy Scouts Merit Your Support

This troop entered one patrol in the annual camporee at Oxtail last week end which resulted in an "A" pennant for the Eagles. The Eagles also had the pleasure of entertaining Troop 216 from Rochester, N.Y. as their guests for the week end. This was the American Boy Scout Troop that entertained our boys last spring when they attended the Oletiana Council Jamboree near Rochester N.Y. The Americans also won "A" pennants for both patrols and expressed their wish to have our boys visit them again next spring. Our boys will no doubt accept, for a wonderful time was had by all on that occasion. The troop is scheduling several soccer matches before the cold weather and will accept challenges from any other troops.

The 3rd Richmond Hill Cub Pack is all set to start their fall and winter schedule, and report the following summary of their activities during the summer. A busy and enjoyable week-end of July 26th and 27th was spent at Oxtail Camp by the Cubs of A-Pack and their guests. Various sports events included a baseball game played against another cub pack, swimming, a nature hike and exploration of the woods which enabled some of the boys to pass tests for proficiency badges and for their first and second star.

Sunday the boys went to chapel with Mr. George Goddard, Akela of A-Pack and the Akela of another pack officiating at the service.

Peter Oxley, Brian Howarth, and Bob Bedford were invested in June, and Ron Mowat was invested on Sept. 9th. Paul Crittenden, Cliff Toogood, Geoffrey Toogood, and Doug Ward secured their House Orderly proficiency badges. Bill Strugnell, Chris Toogood and Doug Ward received their Templemaster Badges, and Geoffrey Toogood was won by Paul Crittenden, Chris Toogood, and Geoffrey Toogood. Swimmers' Badges were won by Bill Strugnell, Ronald Forster, Chris Toogood, Geoffrey Toogood and Doug Ward. Collectors Badges were awarded to Winston Chan and Donald Rutan. Geoffrey Toogood was presented with his 3rd Year Star. 1st Year Stars were secured by Wayne Beamish, Ian MacDougal and Robert Thompson, with two transfers, James Doherty and Davy Mitchell.

Richmond Hill Cubs

The No. 4 Richmond Hill Cub Group met in Wrixon Hall on Monday night under the leadership of Akela Mrs. R. Deschamps, and was fully attended. Two new chums — Frank Barth and Michael Weeks — were welcomed, also three transfers — Jim and John Ross from Flora, and Neal McRae from Thornhill. Colin Deschamps secured his Gardener and Observer badges; Roger Pierce, Jim Glover and Donald Hamilton received their Observer badges.

Michael Hiscott and Ian Schell were invested, with the parents of each cub being present at the investiture. Lynn Beaumont has left the pack, and is now attending St. Andrew's College as a boarder, having earned the following badges: Gardener, Collector, Swimmer and Observer. Scouts Brian Stapley and Herbert Howden were present to assist in the work of the evening. The Akela announces a "full pack" with no further admissions possible until volunteer cubmasters are secured.
