The group was happy to have the Rev. J. F. At the same service, the Rev. J. F. O'Neill will be invested as Padre of the 4th Richmond Hill Cub and Scout Group, and the Scouts flags will be dedicated.

The McConaghy Home and School Association held its first meeting of the season on Wednesday, September 24. Groups were formed for discussion of topics dealing with education and our children. He also spoke of the traffic hazards at Markham Road and Yonge St. especially to the children riding bicycles who cut across the service station property to go east, and ignore the through traffic.

It was announced that the next meeting will deal with the curriculum. This meeting, and succeeding meetings, will be held on the third Monday of the month.

The September meeting was brought to a hilarious close with a "Hula Hoop Contest", with the prizes for the best performers going to Mrs. A. M. Loughridge and Mr. L. D. Clement.

Mrs. N. Kulynych of 88 Lawrence Avenue will long remember the current Hula Hoop craze! While her husband was away she was teaching her 8 year old son Alexander how to manipulate the hula hoop. Having demonstrated the hip swing successfully, Mrs. Kulynych then went on with the slightly more complicated skip and swing manoeuvre. This apparently required just a little more skill than the hip swing because in the middle of a skip — or was it a swing? — Mrs. Kulynych fell and broke both bones in her left leg! As the doctor remarked, this must be the most expensive hula hoop on record! Mrs. Kulynych is now in Branson Hospital, North York, sadly reflecting the wisdom of swaying to the rhythm of a plastic ring!

Mr. B. Newman, the Sun Valley clothes representative, came for a brief visit to Warwick House on its grand opening day, September 25, arrived at 2 p.m. and found the entire opening proceedings so fascinating that he finally left for home twelve hours later! The local Rotary bowling league, of which Mr. and Mrs. H. Butt are members, came to the store after bowling, and then all joined in the fun at the Butt home afterwards. Also included in the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ian Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kristoffersen, and Mr. R. G. Solloway, visitors from Toronto. With the store filled with flowers from many well wishing friends, it was wholeheartedly agreed that Opening Day at Warwick House was most successful and that the store, with its elegant decor and tasteful variety of latest fashions will undoubtedly live up to its newly chosen motto as the house "For women who deserve the best."

The first meeting of the 1st Richmond Hill Scout Mothers Auxiliary will be held on Wednesday, October 8, at 8 p.m., in the Municipal Hall. All mothers are asked to bring an article which can be sold in an auction sale, at the end of the meeting.

At The Library

We recommend the reading of "Over My Dead Body" by June Opie (a factual story now on the shelf at the Richmond Hill Public Library). This is a suspenseful, thrilling account of the courage and determination of a young New Zealand woman showed in her own (not very private) battle against crippling polio.

Mrs. V. P. McMullen of Bedford Park Avenue was so impressed with June Opie's book she wrote to her and received the following reply from Mokau, Taranaki: "Thank you very much for your letter of the 22nd April, which I received while I was in hospital following a car accident. I have almost recovered now and am hoping to resume my work with the cerebral palsied children in Rotorua some time in September.

Thank you for your comments on my book, and for the interest you expressed in my progress. I am fortunate in that I am able to get about with no artificial aids except the use of two elbow sticks. I ride a bike and drive a car, and feel in all fairness to myself that I must say the accident was not my fault. . . . I am very lucky to have recovered as well as I have, and it is a great pleasure for me to be able to treat physically handicapped children and give back, if only in a very small measure, what was given to me by the medical profession when I was ill myself. Although my walking is slow and somewhat awkward, I can, and do, live a normal life and enjoy it immensely."

This letter was written by a young woman, who at the age of 21, began a grim fight back to life and living, from a hospital bed in a strange country — after polio had robbed her of every vestige of animation, except for one eye-lid. But the self-reliant lass from New Zealand began her comeback — using that one eye-lid to wink Yes or No to the queries of the many physiotherapists, doctors and nurses who cared for her during her two-year "convalescent" period. "Over My Dead Body" is one individual's story of triumph over the most frustrating situation a young human could experience — that of retaining full mental powers, including the will to "get up and go," but lacking the physical power to exercise that free will. It is told in a style that brooks no sympathy, but rather pokes sly ridicule at austere hospital life.
