Langstaff School News

Principal Urquhart reports that there are 10 classrooms in use at Langstaff this year and that it has been possible to arrange for five rooms having a single grade in each room, which is a great help both to the teacher and the pupils. Mrs. Zimmerman, an experienced teacher formerly teaching at Scarborough, replaced Miss Jones teaching Grade 1. In the Grade 1 and 2 room, Mrs. Clare from North York has replaced Mrs. Bergson, who is on a year's leave of absence. Miss Elliot, a new teacher on the staff, takes over Grades 2 and 3. Mr. Coates is in charge of the junior special room.

Field Day

Pupils are busy practicing for the school field day which will be held at Langstaff on October 1st. This encourages the children to take part in competitive sports and is also to help select Langstaff representatives for the area field day which will be held at Powell Road School on October 8th. Any parents in the area who could provide transportation for the students to attend the field day are asked to contact the school. Pupils will be picked up at Langstaff at 1:15 p.m. and after the events at Powell Road at 4:00.

On Tuesday last, Mrs. Wm. Wellman and Mrs. Acreman attended the Fall Rally of the W.M.S. of York Presbytery held in Trinity United Church, Newmarket. In the Bible Study, Dr. Winifred Thomas spoke on "Reluctant missionaries". Miss Annie Bishop, community and immigration worker for the W.M.S. said she has also been given charge of the work with Senior Citizens. Mrs. E. W. Hickson, Dominion Board Secretary of Literature and Mrs. Gardhouse, presented a new list of interesting reading. The afternoon session had the needs for new candidates most ably presented by Mrs. H. L. Pottle, Conference Branch Secretary, introduced by Mrs. Heber McCague. A panel discussion with Mrs. Hodgson of Kettleby as moderator, brought an inspiring day to a close.

76th Anniversary of Church
Sunday, with its perfect weather, was anniversary, the 76th, at Headford Church. For the morning service, with Rev. Wm. Brignall, B.A., B.D., of Udonia as guest preacher, the church was well filled. Headford's choir, with Mrs. Stewart Rumble at the piano, gave two beautiful numbers.

For the evening service also, there was a good congregation, with music supplied by a boys' choir with Rev. Wesley Hunnisett of the Fred Victor Mission, and his orchestra and pianist.

Rev. W. J. Burton of Kettleby who served us so faithfully last year, preached a very meaningful sermon. A social time later in the Sunday School room, wound up a wonderful day for all of us. The church had been exquisitely decorated for the services by Mrs. George Barker and Mrs. Freeman Barker, the flower committee of the church.

Anniversary time always means guests in many homes in Headford. Spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leek and their family were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leek of Gormley, Miss Quanta of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Leek of Mt. Albert. Mrs. Wm. Wellman entertained Rev. Mr. Brignall at dinner; also Mrs. Geo.

Dean of Thornhill, Miss Rosier and Miss Emma Barker of Toronto, and Mrs. Walter Cook and her daughter of Willowdale.

The Brodie family had as guest Mrs. Lionel Middleton, formerly of Headford.

Among recent visitors at the Acremans were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Porter of Iondale Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Gay of Toronto.

Lorraine and Murray Acreman were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knappett and their family of Belhaven.

Visiting on Tuesday with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leek, was Danny Denby of Thornhill.
