Fire Marshal To Investigate
Fire Losses Heavy
In Both Townships

Friday night at 10:15 p.m., Constable Hood of the Markham Township Police was called to Flaska Farms at Markham Road and No. 7 Highway where a fire was in progress. Unfortunately the barn was a total loss after burning until midnight, but the fire was restricted to this building.

Sunday evening, Markham Township Police outdid themselves. They recovered a car before it was reported stolen! At 5 p.m. Sunday, an off-duty constable reported a car burning fiercely in the ditch on Markham Road west of Don Mills. Finding no one near the totally destroyed car, the police department reported it as stolen to the Metro Toronto Police. Ten minutes later they learned the car had been stolen from a Mrs. Smith of 32 Renfield Ave. in Toronto.

During this rather busy week-end, the township police were busy at the Markham Fair where, according to P. C. Tribbling, nothing unusual happened, although he reported that Markham Village Police arrested a drunk driver at the fair.

Another fire spotlighted the week-end for the Vaughan Township Police. Chief Davidson reports that a call was received by his department at 3:05 a.m. Saturday morning from the Russell Rowntree farm on the 7th concession in Vaughan Township. The Rowntrees had been awakened by the reflection of a fire in the sky. Upon investigation they found their barn to be on fire. A number of bushels of grain, 8,000 bales of hay and 8,000 bales of straw were lost in the fire, although all the stock was saved. The fire burned until 7:00 a.m., and there is no estimate of damage although the building was a complete loss.

Chief Davidson reported that the fire is under investigation by the Ontario Fire Marshal's office.

Richmond Hill Police
Make Ten Arrests

During the month of September, the Richmond Hill police force made ten arrests on criminal charges, bringing the total for the year to 49. This activity represents about 60% of the force's time according to Chief R. Robbins.

On October 7, John Flicker of Newmarket appeared in magistrate's court there to plead guilty to charges of Theft and Forgery. Involved in the same incident was Claude White of no address who appeared at the same time and pleaded guilty to charges of Uttering a Forged Document and Theft. Both have been remanded on these charges for one week to await sentence after conviction. The day before, White pleaded guilty to a charge of Forgery and was remanded to a court presided over by a judge for trial. These men were arrested by Sgt. Rainey and P.C. Young.

Also on October 7, there was a pedestrian-vehicle accident at the intersection of Centre and Yonge Sts. in Richmond Hill. A car driven by Ryan W. Foster of Holland Landing struck Mrs. Maynard of Rumble Ave., Richmond Hill, whose injuries were minor. The accident is still under investigation.

Donald Strong of Richmond Hill was fined $20 and costs in magistrate's court on October 2 for being drunk.

Monday, October 1 saw Joseph B. Dempsey of Toronto convicted in Richmond Hill magistrate's court on charges of Impaired Driving and Driving While License Under Suspension. On the first charge, he was sentenced to 14 days and on the second, to a $50 fine or ten more days. His vehicle became the property of the Crown.

In a review of cases tried last month, Chief Robbins highlighted several.

Harold Sanders of Markham Township was fined $100 and costs for possessing an unregistered firearm.

Gary Lacelle of Toronto, aged 18, was placed on six months probation for being drunk in a public place.

James Bailey of Richmond Hill was fined $15 and costs on a similar charge. Again on the same charge, Kenneth Burgess of Toronto was fined $10 and costs.

Robert Jerome Blanchard of Toronto was fined $20 and costs for illegal possession of liquor.

Carl Stewart Brown of Jefferson was fined $100 and costs for driving while his license was under suspension.

William Constant of Toronto was fined $50 and costs for driving with his license under suspension, and $200 and costs for criminal negligence. In addition, his driver's license was suspended for one year.

Johannes Raag of Toronto was convicted of impaired driving against the town's "tough" characters. This is a nice little town and we are going to see that it stays that way. If these types want trouble, they're going to get it from us. However, we don't expect too much of a problem.

Two Deaths From
Polio In Richmond Hill

Richmond Hill was saddened this week at the news of the death of two of its citizens by polio. Both men were stricken Saturday night and immediately removed to the Riverdale Isolation Hospital in Toronto, where they passed away early Monday morning within minutes of each other. Both men lived on Rockport Crescent in Richmond Acres but did not know each other.

Robert Allen, 25, leaves three children, Lynn, Delva and Karen, and his wife Mary Elizabeth.

Duncan Schwartz who is well remembered as the proprietor of Bryan's Hardware in Richvale, was 34 and leaves three children, also; Louis, Michael, and Gordon, and his wife Elizabeth Anne.

Funeral services were held at York Cemetery in Toronto for Mr. Allen with the Rev. J. W. Newton-Smith of St. Gabriel's Anglican Church in Richmond

Hill attending. Services for Mr. Schwartz were held at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto with the Reverend James O'Neill of St. Mary's Anglican Church in Richmond Hill attending.

Because of the nature of the deaths, the York County Medical Officer of Health, Dr. Robert King, ordered immediate interment for the deceased and complete seven day quarantine for both families.

Dr. King's office said there had been no increase in the number of persons receiving Salk vaccine as a result of the deaths, however treatment times have been doubled. Instead of supplying the free vaccine every second Monday, it will now be supplied every Monday afternoon at the Child Health Centre in Richmond Hill, and any child or adult asking to be treated will receive the protection without charge.

Overflow Congregation For
St. Matthew's World Communion

St. Matthew's United Church congregation overflowed the facilities of its temporary home in the portable building at 333 Crosby Ave. East on Sunday last with a hundred and fifty children making use of the space provided by basement recreation rooms across the street. Through the kindness of these three neighbours basements have been made available at the homes of Messrs. Victor Last, George Thomson, and Ben Knight. The classes of the primary department of the Sunday School meet in these locations at 9:45. At 11:00 o'clock on Sunday two of them were again in use to take care of the children while their parents attended divine service.

The adult congregation packed the church building for the celebration of World Wide Communion. A hundred new members were welcomed to the Lord's table for the first time. These have been received publicly during the service of worship during the past four Sundays, and have professed their faith in Christ, or have renewed their vows of membership in Christ's church. They will now be enrolled by the session as members in full communion.

The minister spoke on Sunday on the subject "Putting God First," speaking from the Scripture passage in Isaiah 44, where the prophet derides the makers of idols who take a stick or block of wood left over from the fire at which he warms himself and on which he bakes his food, to make himself a God. He cannot worship with leftovers, he cannot live of time, of money, of life itself, the minister said.

The congregation are presently engaged in a financial campaign for funds to raise the first unit of their new and permanent church building. The men of the church will be going out this week to solicit pledges for contributions to the budget, and the building fund.

Mrs. H. Matthews Announces Council
Candidature At Conservative Meet

Israel's people, their courage, ambitions, and their problems were described by Mr. Arthur Spence at the first meeting of the season of the Richmond Hill Conservative Women's Association. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. N. Bone and Mrs. J. A. Price president. It was disclosed during the meeting that Mrs. H. Matthews planned to seek election to town council. Mrs. J. Stocks told the members of her experiences when she was seeking election to Richmond Hill Council and suggested ways in which Mrs. Matthews could be helped. Mrs. E. Boreham and her committee served refreshments.

Next Sunday morning St. Gabriel's Anglican Church will have one of the outstanding speakers of the church as the preacher for the Harvest Thanksgiving service.

Dr. Jacob Jocz, Ph. D., is Director of the Nathaniel Institute in Toronto in her concern for the Jewish peoples, the Anglican Church has established the Nathaniel Institute to deal with the Canadian and New Canadian Jews. It is interesting to note that many of the new ones coming to the institute are of Hungarian origin.

Reverend Jocz came to the institute as director a little over a year ago from St. John's Anglican Church of London, England.

5 Blazes Start
Fire Prevention

The Richmond Hill Fire Brigade answered five calls in the first 72 hours of Fire Prevention Week — a very bad start to the "most dangerous time of the year" fire-wise.

The first call came in Saturday night, when a resident near Walter Scott Public School discovered a stump behind the school was on fire and sparks were blowing around the area. After trying unsuccessfully to douse the fire with his garden hose, the volunteer firefighter realized the water supply was not heavy enough to do any good, so he called out the town fire brigades who quickly brought the blaze under control.

On Sunday a space heater at 38A Yonge St. S., caught fire from too much oil. Monday had two alarms, the first caused by an oil furnace at 113 Arnold Crescent. Residents said the oil burner had tried to flash on but didn't ignite the first time, then when it did catch, there was too much oil and it caught on fire. Another oil furnace caused a fire at 11 a.m. Monday at the Richvale Block and on Tuesday at the early hour of 3 a.m. an over-heated coal furnace on Duncan Road set fire to the basement joists.

Damage to the various houses and their contents was mostly negligible and was chiefly caused from the resulting smoke and fumes.

Council approves
Library Tenders
13 Received By Bd.

Thirteen tenders for the erection of the town's new library building on Wright St. were received by the board of directors. Gordon MacLaren told town council when he appeared before the meeting last Monday night and received council's unanimous support in the matter of tentative approval for an anticipated expenditure of approximately $91,456.

Mr. MacLaren said there was a difference of $14,000. between the highest and lowest tender, and that the library board was very pleased with the response.

Council will issue debentures in the amount of about $40,000. The balance of the money comes to the library board building fund through municipal grants. Mr. MacLaren said. Following an indication by council that it would allow the library board "to borrow $17,500 ahead" on grants they expect to receive, Mr. MacLaren said, "we hope to get started right away on the building."

Councillor J. Bradstock suggested the contractor be given a letter of commitment to begin work as soon as possible stating, "If we leave it another month we get into winter conditions."

Mayor Tomlin said council would leave that to the library board — since they have complied with all council's requests.
