Langstaff Home & School Assoc.
Tuesday, October 14th, will be an interesting evening for parents of Langstaff Public School pupils. The first of this year's Home and School Association meetings will be held at the school, and the teaching staff and members of the school board will be introduced. This meeting should be of interest to all parents.

Mark-Vaun Women's Institute
Mrs. M. Holt was hostess for the October meeting and the roll call was "A Verse of Thanksgiving." Fourteen members were present.

Mark-Vaun's entry in this year's Markham Fair Women's Institute Division won an "Honorable Mention." There were twelve institutes participating. The choice of Mark-Vaun was "A Baking Calendar" consisting of twelve cakes, each one decorated suitably for each month of the year. Congratulations to Buttonville Institute who were the first prize winners with their display of "A Thanksgiving Dinner."

This year's Federation Women's Institutes of Ontario Convention will be held at the Royal York Hotel on November 5th, 6th and 7th. District Director, Mrs. Hamblin, advised that she would attend sessions on Thursday, November 6th.

A final report was given on the annual bazaar and several more articles were sold at the meeting. The program was turned over to Mrs. E. Lepky, Convenor of Citizenship and Education, who read an interesting paper on Education and conducted a brain-teaser quiz on Education in our area and things we should know as good citizens. Refreshments were served by the committee.

Personals
Ron Hicks, Essex Avenue, has been on the sick list for a week. He has an interesting visit from two former Langstaff residents, Teddy McGill and George Ross. Harry LeMesurier, Jr., and Ron Wake, returned recently from a motor trip to Florida which they enjoyed very much.

Birthda: greeting to John Brash, Roosevelt Drive, who celebrated his birthday to-day, October 9th.

The October meeting of the 1st Langstaff Scout and Cub Mothers' Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Wildfong, Thornhill Ave., on Wednesday, October 15th. Plans are well underway for the annual bazaar to be held on November 22, and further discussion will be held on this subject. A welcome is extended to all new scout and cub mothers to attend this meeting.
