"The Liberal" is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1105 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure the publication.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Near and daughter Marion spent the Thanksgiving week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Ramer, Roseview Avenue.

At the 1957-58 Graduation Exercises of the Walter Scott School, Vivian Nieberg, winner of the Home and School Association Award for General Proficiency, was presented with a gold ring, Fred Kyle, winner of the spelling award, was presented with a trophy.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Barth attended the annual convention of the Dry Cleaners' Association of Ontario, recently held at the Elmswood Casino Hotel, Windsor. During the three day sessions, the members were enlightened by talks from many leaders in the industry, with discussions relative to the latest technique employed in the care of clothes.

Mr. Frank Giles of the Richmond Hill post office staff has just returned from an interesting scenic trip by bus to California. The outward route was by way of Detroit, Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles, returning via Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Denver, Colorado. Whilst in California, Mr. Giles experienced some of the "western heat" with the temperatures soaring to 102 degrees.

The executive of the Young People's Bible Group of the Richmond Hill United Church are to be commended on their presentation for two hours of a very enjoyable travelogue during two nights of last week. The two hour colour film entitled "Switzerland — A Paradise on Earth" — was supplemented by a fine running commentary, given by Mr. Anton K. Landi, noted lecturer. This gentleman, from Switzerland, and dressed in traditional Swiss costume, so "held" his audience with his interesting narration, that, when the lights came on, they remained in their seats. It is to be hoped that the group will sponsor more of these scenic treats.

Two families from Pleasantville have just returned from a sightseeing motor trip in the Sault area. They are Mr. and Mrs. R. Lynett and Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Savage. Their tour took them to the northern part of Michigan, across the new bridge, over the Mackinac straits many detours in the Sarnia area and then home. Although both families are seasoned travellers they both agreed that the brilliant red and gold colour of the scenery was breathtakingly beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephenson are back in town after a ten day holiday in New York City and Long Island.

Kingcraft held their first sale of Handicraft in the new Kingcraft Building last Wednesday, October 8, Lady Flavell convened the sale, which was preceded by a luncheon held in the Anglican Church Parish Hall. Mrs. E. J. Redelmeier, Don Head Farms, was in charge of decorating the hall, which was most attractively done with flowers and exhibits of handicraft belonging to Kingcraft members. Mrs. Redelmeier was wearing a mauve suit from material that she had woven herself, which was very much admired. Others attending from Richmond Hill were, Mrs. R. D. Little, Mrs. T. Lamb, Mrs. D. Storms, Mrs. B. L. Anderson and Mrs. J. B. Anderson.

A good time was had by a small party of U.K. members on Saturday evening at the Bayview Plaza Restaurant. They would like to see a few more members at their forthcoming social to be held at the same place on Saturday, October 18th at 8 o'clock.

The meeting of the McConaghy Home and School Association next Monday, October 20th, is an unusual one for the teachers themselves will present the programme on the subject of the School curriculum. This should prove a most interesting and instructive evening for they will demonstrate their methods of teaching primary reading, physical training, social studies, English literature, and remedial work. Many people will be especially interested in this last subject for it is dealing with the special help given to any child in need of it in any subject or to those who have missed their usual lessons through illness. Please notice the meeting is Monday not Wednesday as has been the custom.

The Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church held its Thanksgiving meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Moore, Stop 22A Yonge St. on Thursday afternoon, October 2. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Butt, Sue and Warwick of Elizabeth St., spent the Thanksgiving weekend among the wonderful autumn scenery at Lake Kamanisk near Combermere.

Donald Vallance of Richmond Spent, has just returned a fast moving trip he made to Mexico with Mrs. Irene Coles and her son Allan, residents of Thornhill. The notes he made read like a volume of Baedeker covering such fascinating towns and villages as San Antonio, Waco, Acapulco, San Luis Potosi. After a long run from Thornhill, they collected Mrs. Crompton in Kansas City. Mrs. Crompton is Allan's aunt, who accompanied them for the majority of the journey. Continuing on to Oklahoma, Dallas and San Antonio, they eventually crossed the border at Waco. They passed quickly through Monterrey, Silico, San Luis Potosi, intending to stop at these places on the return journey. Ignoring the driving rain, they crossed the mountains at night and finally located at Acapulco where they spent five days of combined rest and sight-seeing. A great deal of the time was spent in being fascinated by some of the famous coral divers nonchalantly performing the prodigious feat of diving 165 feet into 30 feet of water — where a misjudged wave might spell tragedy. Allan and Don tried their hands at diving for coral and shells, but from a much more circumspect height and were successful enough to bring some interesting coral and shell specimens back with them. Leaving Acapulco for Tasco, they had the misfortune to hit an itinerant cow hanging in the middle! This is by no means as enormous a misdemeanor as it sounds because in this particular area, the roads are literally swarming with donkeys, cows, horses and people. Unfortunately the cow was killed and they hurriedly fixed a bent fan and fender and moved off before the owner of the cow could put in an appearance. This is apparently a common everyday occurrence and it was just as well they got away at night, because, it is a well established fact that any animal unfortunate enough to be killed is always the prize animal of the herd carrying a fictitious value many thousands of pesos above its actual worth. With the aid of an interpreter, the more serious damage to the radiator was soon fixed and after that adventurous stage of the journey they arrived safely in Tasco. The party spent the night at Tasco, and as it is a town especially famous for its silverware, they decided to spend the next day shopping. The city itself is very interesting, being built on the side of a mountain. A city law exists which forbids all modern type architecture and the result is quite quaint and attracts thousands of visitors. Our local travellers finally made Mexico City in the middle of Independence celebrations and had to battle their way, through thousands and thousands of exuberant Mexicans. At first, they feared this celebration was a cover for yet another revolution, but as there was no sign of secret arms or riots, they proceeded peacefully to visit the local sights including the famous University. After a short stay they retraced their journey back to Thornhill and Richmond Hill. As Don Vallance so aptly remarked, "6,000 miles without picking up a single ticket!"

The Church Boys' League of St. Mary's Anglican Church met last Thursday evening in Wrixon Hall. After the opening service, the lesson was read by Graham Hackwood. The juniors enjoyed a game of floor hockey while the seniors adjourned to another room, where they spent the next half-hour studying for, or passing tests for badges. Those passing tests were Douglas Sparkes, Page; Gerhard Huffman, Esquire; Paul Murray, 5th crest; Jim Meadows, 2nd Crest; Robert Thomson, First Aid. Congratulations to all who have worked hard to gain their armour.

Mr. Allen Beslard was best man and Messrs. Bob Waterson and Wilf Long were ushers. Following a reception in the Thornhill United Church hall for 80 guests, the happy couple honeymooned in Lake Placid, N. Y. They are now residing in Richvale.

"The Playpen", a unique store, catering for the needs of infants and children, will open its doors on Friday morning, October 17. Door prizes, and gifts for the children, masks, whistles, teddy bears, etc., will mark the occasion of the "Grand Opening."

This store, located at 22 Levedale Road in the Richmond Heights Shopping Plaza, is owned and operated by Mrs. Magda Zolna, owner of Judy's Children's Wear, 36 Levedale Road, also of the main store at 864 Bloor Street West, Toronto. Mothers will find an interesting range of baby furniture, including playpens, dressers, chairs and baby lamps. Baby carriages and doll carriages, also junior bicycles suitable for children of all ages are available. A wide range of educational toys are also featured including erector sets, minibricks, and junior microscopes. Lesley Betts Is Riding Champ At Brownleigh Show
Last Saturday, a new Reserve Grand Champion was chosen at the Brownleigh Horse Show. The new champion is Lesley Betts, daughter of the owners of the Jefferson Riding School on 19th Avenue in Richmond Hill.

To acquire the title, Lesley came first in equitation; second in jumping; fifth in senior equitation; and second in the senior division of the pleasure hack category. All entrants in the contest were of up to 18 years of age. So far, this feat of accomplishment by Lesley Betts is just unusual, but there is something else — she is just 12 year old! A benefit horse show in which this wonderful little horsewoman will participate, is to be given at the Jefferson Riding School on 19th Avenue between Yonge and Bayview on Saturday at 10 a.m.

R. Hill Horticultural Society To Hold Flower Show On October 23

The Richmond Hill Horticultural Society concludes its season of flower shows next Thursday, October 23, meeting as usual at the Lions Community Hall at 8 p.m. The recent frosts have left little in our gardens, so decorative arrangements in seven classes will be much to the fore. For these exhibitors need not grow their own material. The show will be judged by Mr. George Holland. The society is fortunate to have secured as speaker, Mr. John F. Clark of the Department of Agriculture and Secretary of the Ontario Horticultural Association.

All who heard Mr. Clark here last year when he spoke on the tour which he conducted to the gardens of the Orient will be delighted to know that his topic next Thursday will be the extensive European Spring Garden Tour with which he left here on April 16, last. The tour spent six weeks visiting the famous gardens of Holland, Belgium, France and England. Mr. Clark will report on this and will show his famous colour slides. It will be an evening to remember.

Members are urged to send in their entries for the annual colour photography contest. There are six classes. 1. General garden views — anywhere in Ontario. 2. Individual plants, shrubs or trees. 3. Individual blooms, leaves or fruit. 4. Autumn scenes — anywhere in Ontario. 5. Views of the society's civic improvements.
