NORTH YORK: Injunction proceedings to restrain Frank J. Rice and Sons, painters and decorators, from using the property at 1812 Lawrence Ave. West, went into motion recently. The Rices had already been convicted on June 18th of operating a business in a residential area, and a check showed that the property was still in commercial use.

School Committee

For Thornhaven Are Overwhelmed
At a sudden and special meeting where only a few people were expected the Campaign Proposals Committee were overwhelmed by an attendance of over 100 visitors who had turned out to listen to, comment upon and make suggestions for the future of the Thornhaven School for Retarded Children.

Response from the floor to a completely unexpected barrage of questions thrown at them was magnificent. All possible service groups, social orders, youth clubs, auxiliaries and churches were represented. Their suggestions and thoughts were all noted down to be card indexed and worked over by the school executive in an effort to improve the retarded children and those very retarded referred to by Mr. Murray Finlayson as the least of God's little ones. Mr. Finlayson is the President of the Ontario Association for Retarded Children in this first big Campaign year. Mr. Swindle spoke for the school itself and Mr. D. Deacon, who is heading up the local campaign, made an enthusiastic appeal to the visitors.

A highlight of the evening was news of a pending land grant and a direct offer by the Ladies of the Doncaster Ladies Community Club, Mrs. John Barbour, their local president, was accompanied by Mrs. Peacock, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Cole. It certainly looks as if Thornhaven's campaign will be a complete success financially and socially.

Mr. Lex McKenzie was present to observe the activities and a generous helping of educational bodies assures the school of proper and interested help as they progress.
