International Conference held in Minneapolis, U.S.A. This conference was attended by representative J.C. groups from many parts of the world, and one of the highlights was an "All Canadian Banquet" at which all the food served was produced in the various provinces of Canada. The balance of the evening was employed by the group in filling Christmas stockings with toys and candy, to be sent to the Orillia Home for Retarded Children. The next meeting of the Jaycettes is scheduled for Wednesday, January 7, 1959.
