Neighbourhood Notes

Merry Christmas and best wishes for the New Year!
Christmas Day will find many family parties in this neighbourhood. The McQuay family will gather at the home of Al and Beverly Jones for their celebration. At the Venus home guests will be entertained at a Christmas Eve dinner party and Christmas Day will be devoted to the children.

The Hooper family will all be home at one time or another through the day and the Kellys will entertain guests from Newmarket, St. Thomas, Willowdale and Buttonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jones are looking forward to a visit from Bruce, Jean and Gary over the holiday season, and Grace Rodick will be home from Dryden to attend the family party at the farm with other members of the Rodick clan.

Isabel Hood will be home for two days from her duties as a dietitian at the Victoria Hospital, London, Ontario, and Lynda Leaf has five days off, beginning December 24th, from duty at the Wellesley Hospital. Bob and Mary Lou Miller are spending their Christmas vacation at Bob's parents' home, and will celebrate with the Waterston and Tibbles families.

At the Donaldson home, Arnleigh Heights, John and Margaret Brunwell will be guests, as well as Rae and Betty Donaldson and Mr. and Mrs. E. Hill will be with their family.

The S. R. Pattersons expect to have Gibson relatives as their guests and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harrott will entertain for Jack's brother and his family.

Ruth Hansford and her brother planned to leave by air Sunday morning for Phoenix, Arizona, for a two weeks vacation from our winter weather.

Bruce Putnam and Art Storey are assistant Santa Clauses with the Willowdale Post Office workers this holiday. They commenced work immediately after examinations were finished last Friday.

After the Christmas Concert at Buttonville Hall on Thursday evening of last week, Buttonville School children were excused until 10:00 a.m. Friday morning. At 11:00 a.m., with a snow storm raging, there was a skating party on the school rink, and at lunch time there were hot dogs and cocoa for everyone. Mr. and Mrs. Murray Roberts and Miss Ruth Hansford had planned to handle this task alone, but they were glad when Mrs. Albert Terry dropped in and stayed to help. Her friends at Gillies Airport will be sorry to learn of the recent death of Mrs. Myrtle Murphy. Mrs. Murphy was an attendant in the Airport Tuck Shop for several years.

The Douglas Hood home was saddened this week, by the death of the eminent sports writer, Miss Alexandrine Gibb. Miss Gibb was a cousin of Mr. Hood.

Neighbourhood Notes

We were pleased to note that workmen were busy installing wig wag signals at the Steele's Avenue railway crossing, near Bayview Ave., on Thursday of last week. These signals were under company discussion at the time of the Wright's fatal accident, early this year. The mills of officialdom grind exceedingly slow!

Assistants at Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Boynton's 40th wedding anniversary party were Misses Dorothy Hood, Jean Muirhead, Mrs. George Hooper, Mrs. S. J. English and Mrs. Garnet Francy poured tea. Among the guests were the group known as "The Bowlers," Mr. and Mrs. E. Walton, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Paterson, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alick Gardner delivered a carload of used clothing to the Fred Victor Mission on Sunday afternoon, last week. It was gratefully received and Mrs. Gardner is anxious to receive further clean used articles for future delivery as there is urgent need for warm clothing at present in downtown Toronto.

E. French Wins Euchre Series
Miss Elizabeth French, with a score of 254, won the Autumn euchre series, with four more points than her contender, Mr. E. Walton with 350. The prize was a 15 pound turkey donated by Leitchcroft Farms.

Winners for the evening were Mrs. Flo Denby, Mrs. Roy Riseborough, Mrs. R. Burr, Messrs. R. Burr, F. Holden and E. Walton. Two lucky draw prizes were won by Messrs. M. Styromo and E. Hill; the freezeout was taken by Mr. Wilcox and Mrs. Denby, first, with Mr. Hill and Mrs. Wardle second.

There were 10 tables of players present and hostesses were Mrs. Charles Hooper, Miss E. French, Mrs. A. Gardner and Mrs. F. Leaf.

Curling News
Curling bonspiels have kept local curlers busy lately, several ending up with prizes. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Grant and Mrs. James Rodick played in the O'Keefe 'spiel, taking consolation prize. Mrs. James Hood was a member of the rink which came second in the event.

On Thursday of this week the ladies held their annual Christmas party at the Unionville Curling Rink, with two draws in the morning, a break for lunch, and gifts from the tree for everyone. Among the members of this community attending were: Mrs. James Rodick, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. Bill Hood, Mrs. Jim Hood, Mrs. Donna Brigger, Mrs. Norman Reid and Mrs. George Kelly who played Santa Claus.

On Saturday of last week Mr. Charles Hooper won a turkey curling. Now the Hooper family has two, since Mary brought one home from the office bowling party.

Fun At School Concert
A night of crisp cold and crunching snow; children arriving at Buttonville Hall before the lights were on or doors open; high treble voices and wide enchanted eyes all helped to make the school concert the special event it is expected to be. And if here and there a halo tilted at an angle not quite angelic or a snowy costume had suffered from too close association with the floor no one cared, for everyone was caught up in the delight of the children's evening.

From the story of the first Christmas from St. Luke, told in Choral Speaking by the children of Mrs. Roberts' Junior Room to the last carols sung by the senior pupils, the program was a happy one.

There were skits and playlets and songs and one play written by Maureen Martin a senior room pupil.

Everyone had such a good time that Santa arrived before he was expected. He had gifts of candy for all the children, and many other gifts were received as well.

The children presented Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and Miss Hansford with interesting looking parcels, and Mr. E. Walton, who drives the children from sections 13 and 17 to school was delighted with a wallet he received from his charges. The teachers and pupils were indebted to Mrs. S. J. English for piano accompaniments, and the grade mothers and Home and School executive assisted Santa with the distribution of gifts.
