A visit with the Bonnici, 52 Dudley Ave., Willowdale, found them very grateful to the community for their assistance when they lost their home to fire. They are all looking forward to the time repairs are made and they get back to Doncaster. The Bonnicis wish to thank everyone for all they have done.

Birthday greetings are in order for Sandra Richardson, of 43 Clarke Ave., who celebrated her 10th birthday on Tuesday, December 30.

The excitement in the Clow home, 47 Clarke Ave., is due to the fact that their pure bred-Samoyan dog Snow White, has given birth to four pups, all pure bred. The pups are valued at $75.00 each.

Friends and neighbours of Mr. Thomas King Sr., of 32 Sprucewood Ave., were saddened to learn of his passing on Monday, January 12.

The Henderson Ave. public school Home and School Association held its meeting for the month on Monday, January 12. Class pins were awarded.

Local Association of Girl Guides
The Local Association of Girl Guides met on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Gordon Hardie. Mrs. Hardie, chairlady, thanked all the ladies for their work towards their bazaar. It was passed that the money from the bazaar be spent on necessary equipment for the Brownies, and badges and enrollment pins. A penny auction provided a hilarious half hour, and all articles left from the bazaar were disposed of. The meeting closed with refreshments.

The stations representing the tests the girls had passed were Promiseville, Law-Town, Signville, Hair-City, Braid-Town and Dish-Square.

The mothers, sisters and brothers, also a visiting Brownie leader and Brownie from Toronto, a sister and niece of Mrs. Norman Johnston were present.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Cecil Nichols who told of her work this past fall, while she was nursing at the Red Cross Hospital in the Kenora district. Her talk proved very interesting. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the committee.

There were over 30 members of the W.M.S. York Presbyterial Executive meeting in the Victoria Square United Church on Friday morning of last week. After the worship period taken by Mrs. Martin of Unionville, Dr. Margaret Arkinstall of Newmarket presided. Reports were given by the various secretaries of their 1958 work. All reports were encouraging. Although some groups delay in sending their reports, the treasurer reported considerably more than the allocation which is $28,200. Uxbridge again has the largest W.M.S. group with 80 members, and Keswick the largest Baby Band with 131 members.

LANGSTAFF

Before starting off with the news this week, we wish to make a correction. In a recent article regarding the 1st Langstaff Brownie Company, it was stated that the meetings were held at the Langstaff School. This should have been Thornhill Baptist Church.

1st Langstaff Scout And Cub Mothers' Auxiliary

Your executive has planned a variation from the regular meeting for this month. All members are asked to bring their husbands along to Charles Howitt School, on Wednesday, January 21st, so that they can see first-hand the type of meetings and the work being done by the mothers of the boys. There will be a social time afterwards for everyone to get acquainted.

Mark Vaun Women's Institute
Mrs. E. Lepkey, No. 7 Highway, was hostess for the January meeting of the institute held on January 8th. Mrs. Glassey, president, was in the chair. The usual business was carried on in good time.

Thank you notes were read from the elderly residents of the community who were given small gifts of remembrance at Christmas time. Plans were made for a bowling party to be held on Saturday, January 24th (tentative date) and a euchre to be held sometime in February (date to be announced later). Mrs. D. Morrison agreed to accept the office of secretary-treasurer vacated by Mrs. E. Revell prior to her marriage.

Topic for the evening was "Resolutions" and Mrs. D. Morrison, convener, read the resolutions which were presented at the Central Ontario Women's Institute Convention. These were interesting and varied and ranged from suggested revisions of the Succession Duty Act, marking of freight cars with fluorescent paint, use of freshrunken material in children's jeans, and other interesting topics. Little is known to the general public of the work of Women's Institutes in this field, and the influence that they have had in this respect. Some of the things accomplished through their work have been "the wrapping of bread, vitaminizing of apple juice, marking of food packages with weights and other information, etc."

A paper was read telling of the gift of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario to Miss Ethel Chapman, long time worker in Women's Institutes. Miss Chapman, who is now the Editor of the Institutes' magazine "Home and Country" is being given a free trip to Scotland, where she will attend the conference of the "Associated Countrywomen of the World" and visit well-known places there. This will be her first trip to Scotland.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.
Ruth Lepkey, No. 7 Highway, celebrated her 7th birthday on January 6th. Ruth entertained her friends at a party last Saturday.

NOTICE

Will the party who left four chairs at 96 Hunt Ave., Richmond Hill, some time ago call for them within 10 days or they will be sold to cover the cost.
