The afternoon session opened with a short worship and memorial service conducted by Mrs. H. A. Sanders. This was followed by conferences for all departments. When the members re-assembled in the sanctuary Rev. M. Jenkinson spoke on the presbyterial theme - Isaiah 54-2 - "Hold not back, lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes." He divided his message into three parts under the headings - Dig, Draw, Deli-

Five groups were formed to discuss worship, witness, fellowship, service and education in younger groups, led by department secretaries.

A tape recording of an interview with the late Dr. Marion Hilliard was heard with interest. Her plea was for women to have a real and articulate faith. At the close of the message one woman looked at another and the unspoken thought was that the old Bible statement "although being dead yet speaketh" was indeed

Mrs. G. E. K. Howe, president of Toronto Conference Branch, brought greetings and presided for the election, then installed the officers for 1959.

Rev. Douglas Pilkey held the audience spellbound during the evening session, after dinner, as he told of the task facing Christians in today's world, the title of his challenging address was "Who is Winning?" The film " Found a New World" was of special interest to young people.

Benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. Higginson, the minister of Richmond Hill United Church. The journey home to Sutton, Schomberg, Unionville, et al, was slow and difficult but all agreed that the sessions were as good as the weather was bad.

Officers elected for 1959 were as follows: President, Dr. Margaret Arkinstall, Newmarket; vice presidents, Mrs. Wm. Hodgson, Kettleby: Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Richmond Hill; Mrs. R. W. Pollock, Uxbridge; Mrs. G. S. Jourdan, Markham; Mrs. Harold Bray, Kes-
