At their meeting on Tuesday, February 17, the 2nd Richvale Guides held a "Thinking Day" party. 1st Langstaff Mothers Auxiliary
Mrs. H. J. Wildfong, Parkway Ave., had the February meeting at her home on Wednesday, the 18th. There was a good turnout for such a windy, cold night. Those present heard the proposed budget for the new year and it was voted to be accepted with a few minor changes. Much discussion was held on the annual bazaar after which Mrs. L. Markle accepted the position of chairman for the bazaar and Mrs. D. Mills as convenor for the Apron table. The bazaar will differ from other years in the fact that there will be no sewing done for the babies and children's tables, only knitting, as it was felt that the other articles did not sell.

While the refreshments were being prepared, a lively auction was held for the things left from last year's bazaar. This meeting was a great success and it has been suggested that it be repeated another time.

Skating Party

At the head table, which was decorated with flowers, candles and place cards in the Scout colors of yellow and green, were Reverend Eddy, two Marlboro hockey players, Jim Murchie and Sonny Osborne, leaders, president of mothers' auxiliary, chairman and his sons. Mrs. Walter Ellis as president of mothers' auxiliary received the thanks of the group committee and boys for providing the banquet and was presented with flowers. Mrs. Ellis in turn presented the leaders with a cheque for scouting activities to be held in the coming year. For entertainment the boys had a talk from the hockey players and were shown a film of the Stanley Cup play-offs for 1957.

1st Langstaff Cubs and Scouts

A church parade was held on Sunday morning at the Emmanuel Anglican Church, which meets at Charles Howitt School for the 1st Langstaff Cubs and Scouts. Assistant Scout Master Bob Bowley resigned from 1st Langstaff last week with a great deal of regret from him and the Scout Troop. Bob Bowley has been associated with Scouting for many years. He began as a Cub in Brantford, where he stayed for four years, moved to Welland and Scouting where he became Troop Leader and remained there seven years. His resignation was given because of a back injury he sustained in the Army when he was encased in a body cast for three months. As symptoms of the injury are re-occurring he is forced to give up the physical activity required of an assistant scout master.

Emmanuel W. A.

Mrs. Jack Jellicoe returned home on Pearson Ave. last week after being confined to the Toronto General Hospital, and is happy to report that she is up and around again.

Flooding Conditions
At a recent meeting of the Area Principal's Association, the principals expressed concern regarding flooding conditions which might occur in our school area.

Current reports from flood control officers point out that because of the heavy snow fall this winter there is a strong likelihood of dangerous flooding conditions. In order to ensure the safety of the children, the principals and the child safety committee would ask you to take all possible precautions to avoid serious consequences. Since these floods may be of a "flash" variety they would request you to inform the school principal if any hazardous condition arises — the principal will inform the proper authority to remedy the condition. The principal would also ask you to remain "on guard" at places where the children experience difficulty in getting to and returning home from school.

Moved From Area

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelder, Roosevelt Dr., moved on Saturday February 21st to a new house in the southern end of Rexdale to be closer to Orenda. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams and son aged 13, moved in from Willowdale as Mr. Williams' business is in Richmond Hill. The neighbours wish the Nelders luck in their new home and we welcome the Williams.

The board officials accepted in principle the plan they submitted for the first wing of the church and stated that they would support the building of this church to the greatest possible extent and asked the church officials to proceed with their planning and report to Synod at an early date.

TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. MILTON WELLS, R. R. 3 KING
Phone PR. 3-5239

It is most gratifying to the Sunday School staff to have so many attend Sunday School these cold wintry Sundays. We are most grateful to the parents for seeing that their families attend regularly. On March 1, Mrs. Don Chalk will speak as Missionary Superintendent to the senior group and Mrs. Fred Hare to the younger children. Each child is encouraged to bring their extra pennies for this M. & M. effort. The Official Board meeting will be held in Temperanceville church on Monday evening, March 2, at 8 p.m.

The Explorer Group will hold their meetings on Thursday evenings at 7 p.m. rather than on Tuesday.

Prize-winners at the euchre on February 18 were Mrs. Fred Hare, Mrs. Thomas Walker, Mrs. Harry Hutchinson, Everett Phillips, Fred Hare and Elmer Orr. The next euchre will be held on March 3.

Approximately 30 persons attended the miscellaneous shower in honor of George Gillham and his bride-to-be Patricia. The shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillham, which had been decorated in pink and white. The happy couple were assisted in the opening of gifts by Mrs. Keith Gillham and Bob Gillham. The wedding date is February 28, and the young couple will spend their honeymoon in the States.

58th Anniversary
It gives this community a great deal of pleasure to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hare on their 58th wedding anniversary which they celebrated February 20. Their two children, Mrs. Frank Breuls and Mr. Fred Hare and their families were happy indeed to be present at this celebration. There are now six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren in this happy family. They enjoyed a quiet time seeing pictures on the screen which the family have taken in the past year or so. These included scenes of a trip taken by Fred and Bessie, the family cottage and surroundings, scenes in the immediate vicinity of Temperanceville and pictures of members of the family.

A delightful anniversary tea was served with a delicious cake made specially for the occasion. We hope that Mr. and Mrs. Hare will continue to enjoy health and happiness through the coming years.

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary held at Richmond Hill on February 19 was attended by Mrs. Fred Boys and Mrs. Fred Hare.

Mr. and Mrs. John Addison are now vacationing in Jamaica. Elaine Paxton, Judith Paxton, David Avard and Ian Davidson had a very enjoyable evening on the sleigh riding party on the Milton Savage farms. About 25 members and friends of the Work and Worship Club enjoyed this horse-drawn sleigh ride and donuts and hot chocolate afterwards. A short period was spent singing some of the favorite club hymns.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wright of Newmarket. Congratulations to Joan Hare who was chosen runner-up for Posture Queen at the Valentine Dance at Aurora High School. As there were two competitors chosen from each room — a boy and a girl — the competition was keen. Joan received a lovely heart-shaped box of chocolates as a gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wells visited Mrs. George Snider of Highland Creek recently. A number of couples from Temperanceville thoroughly enjoyed the Lions oyster supper at King last week.
