1st Jefferson Cubs, Brownies, Scouts

The members of the Mothers' Auxiliary met at the home of their new president, Mrs. I. Petersen, on Tuesday evening, Eeb-ruary 17th. To supplement their funds, the ladies decided to hold a euchre and bridge on March 10 at the school (see Coming Events). It was five years ago next nonth the Mothers' Auxiliary was formed in this district so the March meeting will be a birthday party and it is hoped that everyone who has ever ha. any connec tion with the auxiliary will plan to come to the School March 31.

Brown Owl T. Gray spoke about the Brownies and outlined their tests and activities. Akela M. Ensor talked about Kipling's Jungle Books and their connection with cubs. Mrs. E. Terry gave a brief summary of Lord Baden Powell's life and the be ginning of the scout movement. At the conclusion of the meetng the hostess served refresh-On Wednesday, February 18th the Brownies held their annual Baden Powell Thinking Day meeting to which all the Brownie mothers had been invited. After the usual opening ceremonies, the Brownies enjoyed a few games and heard a short story about Lord Baden Powell. The high-light of the afternoon was of ourse the beautifully decorated birthday cake in memory of Lord and Lady Baden Powell - each sixer lit a candle on the cake for sister Brownies in other lands. Don't forget the Hobby Show on Saturday, February 28th, at the Lions Hall, open to the pub-lic from 2 to 5 p.m.

The Brownies, Cubs and Scouts paraded to St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday, February 22, as did members of their brother and sister organizations in many other churches throughout all the world, to commemorate the birth day of Lord Baden Powell, the founder of the Scout movement. Fathers & Sons Banquet

A very successful father and son banquet was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Petersen Mouday night when the scout and cubs with their fathers were the guests of the group committee All the tables were attractively decorated with miniature bonfires and beautiful bouquets of flowers and on the head table the place cards were teepees.

Mr. H. Betts, chairman of the group committee, acted as master of ceremonies and with him at the head table were Mrs. D. Cracknell by combining your mortgages and other debts in a single mortgage. and Walter, Mr. S. Leno, Rev. D. C. H. Michell, Mr. and Mrs. Ensor and Michael, Mrs. M. Hood, Mr. H. Lecuyer and Peter, Mr. J. Shearer, Mr. O. Wrigglesworth and Wayne Haviland.

Mrs. M. Hood, A.D.C. for Cubs. was the guest speaker. She read Lord Baden Powell's last message in which he stressed the main aims of a good scout - "to be healthy and strong as a boy, so as a man you can be useful and enjoy life. Make the best of what you have and look on the bright side of life. Above all give happiness to others. Try and leave found it and always do your best." good turns' to be done as a group fun fair.

by the rubs and scouts. Bobby Safruk, Walter Cracknell and David Lavender received their 2nd year stars from Mrs. Hood. Peter Lecuyer thanked the fathers, the group committee and the Mothers' Auxiliary for the enjoyable time. All the cubs pre-sented their fathers with a pair of wall brackets they had made. A hearty thanks to all who had a share in making the banquet such a success, especially sen, the following firms who w Yerex visited the Second Brownie Tack at Wrixon Hall on Tuesday, February 17 and with Townson February 18 and 18 an for the use of a coat rack, to Wright and Taylor for the chairs, and to the Mothers' Auxiliary for iliary who helped with the preparation and serving of the dinner were Mrs. A. McFee, Mrs. T. Lavender, Mrs. I. Petersen, Mrs. J. Hall, Mrs. E. R. Jackson, Mrs. F. Waters, Mrs. G. Patton, Mrs. Som-
