"The Liberal" is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1105 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Mr. Robert Craigie, Yonge St., attended the Tip Top Tailors 50th Anniversary celebration which was held on Tuesday of this week in the Empress Room of the Park Plaza Hotel.

The annual "Father and Son Banquet" of the 3rd Richmond Hill Cub and Scout Group was held in St. Matthew's United Church, Crosby Avenue, with 160 fathers and sons present. Seated at the head table were Rev. J. W. Newton-Smith, guest speaker Mrs. Mary Hood, A.B.C., Church warden Mr. Smith, Jeff Dearing, Jack Hedman, Marion Strugnell, Alex Gentles, and Jim Lay. Following the toasts, Mrs. Mary Hood presented the new Charter to the Rev. Newton-Smith, Padre of the 3rd Richmond Hill Cub and Scout Group, who received it on behalf of St. Gabriel Anglican Church, sponsors of the group. Mrs. Hood also spoke on the life of Lord Baden Powell. Excellent entertainment was provided by Mr. Bob Smith, ventriloquist and magician whose feats mystified and kept the boys spellbound. Mr. Jack Hedman thanked the ladies of the Auxiliary that helped to make the evening into such a tremendous success.

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Toronto, was celebrated last Saturday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. James Glover, Crosby Avenue. Among the 80 guests from Uxbridge, Bowmanville, Toronto and Burlington, were three daughters and one son of the honouree guests, also Mrs. Glover's cousin, Miss Joyce Sullivan, well known to T.V. and radio audiences.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker were presented with many gifts and flowers appropriate to the occasion of cutting the anniversary cake were Mr. and Mrs. Canham — now in their "late eighties" — who have been Toronto neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Walker for many years.

The first of what may well become an annual event, a Boy Scout and Girl Guide Service, and Church parade, was held in St. Matthew's United Church on Sunday last, under the joint auspices of the St. Matthew's and St. Gabriel's Churches, and supported by the Richmond Hill East Girl Guide Association, and the Third Richmond Hill and First Beverley Acres Scout Associations.

A special feature of the service was the dedication of the Guide Company.

The service was conducted by the Rev. J. W. Newton-Smith, of St. Gabriel Church, assisted by the Rev. William Patterson of St. Matthew's. Following the call to worship and invocation the colour parties presented the colours which were taken by the ministers presiding and deposited in stands behind the communion table. The colours to be dedicated were laid on the table. The colour parties were seated in the choir stalls.

The Scripture was read by the district commissioner of guides, Mrs. Currie. Rev. Newton-Smith conducted and led in the prayers. The message was delivered by Rev. Patterson on the theme of service expounding the thirteenth chapter of John's Gospel, and pointing up the ideal of service as the secret of true greatness. The flags were then dedicated, and returned to the colour bearers, Darlene Whitaker and Mary Inglis, as were the other colours in the service. The service dismissed, singing as a recessional, "Lead on, O King Eternal."
