Enrollment
On Tuesday evening Captain Marie Lawson enrolled Ruth Huntley in the 3rd Richvale Girl Guide company.

Local Improvements
Street corner lights, sidewalks, new street signs, township water supply, gas — and now new house numbers, which are beginning to make their appearance — mark another step in the development of Richvale from a purely country community toward that of an urban community. Following the recent passing of a by-law by Vaughan Council, a new system of house numbering has been inaugurated from Steele's Avenue to Richmond Hill on the west side of Yonge Street and residents are beginning to receive their new numbers. This should be of great assistance to all those trying to fathom the hitherto secret location of their friends. Probably the greatest number of pleased people will be all those making deliveries.

Mrs. Glen Turnbull (formerly Shea Sutcliffe) was taken to Newmarket Hospital on Monday night with a ruptured appendix. She has come along very nicely and is able to be up and around again.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William Sim (the former Norma Turnbull) whose second baby boy was born in Branson Hospital on Tuesday, February 24th.

Shower
A party and miscellaneous shower were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lauritus on Wednesday evening honouring Miss Bernice Archibald whose forthcoming marriage to Mr. Daniel Roller is to take place within the week. About twenty-five guests attended. Many lovely gifts were received by the bride-to-be.

Miss Bertha Winters and her nephew, Mr. Jack Winters, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parker over Sunday.

Bowling
O.R.B. League scores over 200 were — Orpha Stone 210, Pauline Price 257, Gloria Searle 226, 295, Marie Lawson 234, 250, 237, Bill Stone 203, Earl Freeland 213, 252, John Sim 238, 236, 222, Tom Lemperg 218, 257, 214, George Lawson 155, 211, 309, High three — George Lawson, 775.

Socials
Mr. and Mrs. Brian Bailey took a winter holiday and just got back on Wednesday night. They flew down to Nassau by Super-Constellation and returned aboard a North Star. While there they met Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Payne of Edgar Ave. and the men went deep-sea fishing, skin diving and made an over-night trip to the Outer Islands. The Island of Providence in the Bahamas, of which Nassau is the capital, was once a pirate stronghold and forts still remain, an echo of those swash-buckling days. The weather was a "cool" 80 degrees.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker attended a Golden Wedding reception on Parkholme Road, in Willowdale, held over the weekend in honour of Mrs. Parker's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McClinton, who were married fifty years ago.

Group Committee
At the Legion Hall last week officers for the new Group Committee were chosen at a meeting of parents and members of the Legion. As follows they are: Chairman, Alex Brain, Vice Chairman, John Bailey, Secretary, Norman McLellan, Treasurer, Bob Fuller, Executive Member, Ken Hough. A representative of the Mothers' Auxiliary was invited to be present at all executive meetings. For the present these will be held in the Legion Hall once a month. The next one is slated to be held March 10th after the regular Cub meeting.

Euche And Bake Sale
A good time was had by all who attended the Guide and Cub Mothers' euche and bake sale at the Community Hall last week. Mrs. A. Lowe was convener. Mrs. F. E. Martin wishes to thank all who helped to make the evening such a success. Honours at cards were won by Mr. Dewsbury, Mrs. K. Reynolds (playing as a man), Mrs. M. Jay and Mrs. Freeland. Share the wealth, Mr. Leo Butler. First door prize, Mrs. H. Hudson; 2nd, Mr. Leo Butler.

Following the refreshments and bake sale an auction was held to dispose of the balance from the sale. There was an unexpected sequence to these events when Mrs. Martin took her baked trophies home after the box containing the coffee urn, and left them outside for a moment while she dropped in at Mrs. Jay's. Mrs. Martin returned just in time to see a four-legged creature polishing off the last cup cake. All that was left was the waxed paper. (P.S. the dog was hers!)

Mrs. Dennis returned a week ago Saturday from a three-weeks' vacation in Florida. She motored down with friends.

Wedding
St. Joseph's Church, Toronto, was the scene of a double-ring wedding at five o'clock, Saturday, February 14, 1959, when Patricia Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reynolds, Edgar Ave., Richvale, became the bride of George Mallais, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mallais, Toronto. The Rev. Mahoney officiated at the ceremony which was held in the vestry.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a mauve nylon organza gown with criss-cross bodice and a cocktail length bouffant skirt, with white accessories, and corsage of deep purple orchids. Miss Alice Gauthie attended her in a gown of light blue peau de soie, with yellow carnation corsage. Mr. Roly Gauthie was best man.

Sixty guests attended the reception at Mimico following the wedding when the bride's mother received wearing a gown of navy blue lace, with corsage of red roses and white carnations; the groom's mother assisted in a royal blue crepe dress with pink carnation corsage.

Banquet
The Parent-Teenage banquet at the Richvale Chapel on Saturday evening was very much enjoyed by over 35 teen-agers and their parents who sat down to a delicious banquet attractively served. An air of festivity was added to the tables by centrepieces of tulips, roses and daffodils and marshmallow parol cards.

Several of the young people gave brief reports of the year's activities and Laurie Clarke proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Floyd Wright, Mr. Colin Anderson and Mr. Douglas Price for their leadership. Afterwards an interesting film on the "Bell Telephone Hour" was shown. The banquet was convoked by Mrs. H. Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rose returned last Tuesday from a three-week vacation in and around Florida and Hollywood. While south they spent two weeks with Mr. Rose's parents in St. Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson, from Oak Avenue at Yonge, moved from Richvale last week. Mr. Thompson has been transferred to Sudbury. Mrs. Thompson flew to Ottawa on Friday with two-year-old Ricky and eight-month-old Ronnie, where she will stay with her parents until they can return to Richvale to settle down.

Spring should soon be here. A robin was seen out on Yonge St. near Oak last week and cardinals and evening grosbeaks and crows are starting to vocalize.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Markle and family went to Collingwood for the day, on Sunday, February 22, to visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lane. They visited the ski-tow on Blue Mountain and took many pictures of the country-side with its great abundance of snow.

2nd Richvale Brownies
At the regular meeting at the Charles Howitt School on Tuesday, February 17, Carol Barker received her Golden Hand, and Janet Hall and Alison Cazaly received their Golden Bar.

Birthday Parties
Birthday wishes to Brian Smith, who celebrated his 11th birthday on February 24, by taking his friends Stephen Brown of Richmond Hill and Douglas McLelland of Oak Avenue to a movie in Toronto and afterwards to a restaurant for a treat.

Ross Brooks, Edgar Ave., celebrated his 13th birthday by having his friends Craig Ellis, Douglas Fox, Richard Chalkin, Wayne Mills, Don Spears and his brothers Donnie and Bobby for supper. Afterwards he and his friends went skating at Richmond Hill on Saturday, February 28.

Patsy Goulter, Oak Avenue, also enjoyed a supper and skating party with her friends Sandra Krisman, Barbara Wilson, Cathy Sims, Carol Wilson and Elizabeth Mallard on her 13th birthday on Saturday, February 28.

Sandra Krisman, Roosevelt Dr., celebrated her 12th birthday on Friday, February 27.

Sandra Pollock, Westwood Lane, was eight years old on Friday, February 27.

A surprise party was given for Harry Morningstar, Denham Dr., on the occasion of his birthday, by his friends on Friday, February 27.

Janet Hall, Westwood Lane, celebrated her birthday on Saturday, February 28, with a skating party at Unionville for 14 of her friends. They returned to her home where refreshments were served by her parents.

1st Langstaff Scouts
At the regular meeting at the "Barn" on Thursday, February 26, three members of District Headquarters were present to watch the Scouts in their first rehearsal they are doing for the Leaping Wolf Ceremony. T. C. Harrington, District Commissioner, E. F. Warr and Walter Smith, both assistants to the Commissioner. They expressed delight in the meeting place and in its potentialities.

On Friday, at Charles Howitt School the Patrol Leaders and Scout Leaders took part in a "Going-Up" ceremony for three cubs, David Lunau, Don Webster and David Clark.

2nd Richvale Guides
At the Tuesday meeting at the Charles Howitt School on February 24, Captain Wanda Weir presented Dianne Hall and Dianne Derry with their Hostess Badges. To obtain these badges the girls were required to plan a party and officiate as hostess during the whole evening, also required was a thank you letter, an acceptance of an invitation, and a letter of regret.

Bowling Executive Meet
A meeting of the Executive and Captains of the Neighbourhood Bowlers took place at the home of the president, Mrs. E. B. Edwards, Maryvale Crescent, on Tuesday, March 3, to discuss the time and place of the annual bowling banquet.

Hobby Show
The York Summit Scout and Cub Troops and Packs held their first hobby show Saturday, February 28. There were 480 entries and they showed that great thought and time had been spent.

1st Langstaff did very well in the Scouts David Wood won first prize in art, with Don Spears getting an honorable mention; David Wood also took first prize in nature, with Ricky Edwards coming in second with his shell collection. David Mitchell received second prize with his stamps of Canada, with Larry Ward getting an honorable mention. Allan Webster received first prize for his cake, decorated with a fleur-de-lis and morse code; Jim Perry received third prize.

In the open class, R. J. Brash took first prize with his 2,000 marbles. Allan Webster third for his radio and Ricky Carter an honorable mention. The Scouts totalled 79 points, but were outdone by Oak Ridges and Richmond Hill.

For the 1st Langstaff Cubs, Brian Every won first prize with his taffy apples and first prize with his weaving. John Peck won first prize for toymaking with his birdhouse, and Roy Edwards received honorable mention for toymaking. David Clark took 2nd prize in toymaking, and Don Webster was third in leathercraft, with John Brash getting honorable mention in stamps.

...says so much about your own good taste!

A car is very personal. It tells much about its owner. And this is truer of Buick than any other car. Its long, sweeping lines, accented by a restrained use of chrome, reveal your appreciation of the very best in design. Its gracious, well planned interior expresses a love of genuine luxury. And the feeling of confidence and control that every Buick driver knows, emphatically demonstrates that this is, indeed, the finest of automobiles. Drive it . . . and let your own good taste decide.
