Enjoying a change from the usual routine were four local doctors, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Langstaff, Dr. and Mrs. J. Wynne, Dr. and Mrs. W. Cameron Cowan and Dr. Allan Smith, who attended a medical convention sponsored by the Parke Davis Co. at Detroit. Of great interest to the many doctors of Ontario who attended the convention was a visit to the Parke-Davis plant, and while their husbands attended various lectures, their wives enjoyed a very pleasant shopping spree.

In this age of mass production, when so many things conform to the same pattern and individuality and craftsmanship are so often lost in the desire for maximum production - are people too losing individualism? Prominent Mason Passes

LATE J. C. "TIM" MURPHY

The community was saddened by the sudden passing on Friday, March 6th, of James Clarence (Tim) Murphy, at his home, 103 Church Street. A lifelong resident of the district, "Tim" Murphy as he was known to everyone, was a popular and highly esteemed citizen with a host of friends in all walks of life.

A valued member of the staff of H. J. Mills Ltd., he was associated with the floral business for thirty-two years, first with the late John H. Dunlop and in later years with the Mills firm. He was a lover of flowers, took a keen interest in his work and was widely known in the floral trade. Possessing a pleasing personality he was popular with fellow-workers and his bright and cheery disposition endeared him to a wide circle of friends.

Two years ago he suffered a heart ailment but made a recovery and had been working as usual until the time of his passing. He was suddenly stricken early Friday when preparing to go to work, and passed away that afternoon.

James Clarence Murphy was a son of the late James and Rebecca Murphy who lived on Yonge Street, Elgin Mills. He attended Jefferson school and following his father's death in 1923 he moved with the family to Richmond Hill.

On May 6th, 1925, he was married to Maude Hall, daughter of Mr. Alfred Hall and the late Mr. Hall, who survives along with one daughter Joan (Mrs. Harold Forster) of Victoria Square. He also is survived by three brothers and four sisters, Harold of Newtonbrook, Henry of Windsor, Clark-son of Orillia, Estelle (Mrs. Wm. MacAndrew) of Renfrew, Kathleen (Mrs. Morley Beynon), Marjorie and Winnifred of Richmond Hill.

An enthusiastic mason, the late Mr. Murphy became a member of Richmond Lodge in 1928. He served as Worshipful Master in 1937 and through the years had been an active and leading figure in masonic affairs. A Masonic service was held at the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home Sunday evening and was largely attended by masons from local and district lodges.

The funeral service Monday afternoon was largely attended, and many beautiful floral tributes were evidence of the esteem and respect of a wide circle of friends and relatives. The service was conducted by Rev. C. J. Higginson, Minister of Richmond Hill United Church, and interment followed in Richmond Hill Cemetery.

Honorary pall bearers were: Harold Mills, James Pollard, Norman Stephenson, Douglas Lowrey, Thomas Nolan, Stanley Baker, and active pall bearers, Jack Hall, Lloyd Reid, Ted Gamble Jr., George Goulding, Eric Charity and Robert Colhoun.

"The Liberal" joins with the people of the community in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.
