HEADFORD NEWS
 CORRESPONDENT: MRS. H. ACREMAN
 R. R. 2 Gormley — Phone Turner 4-2236

Very bad roads were probably the greatest factor responsible for the fact that not too many parents took advantage of last week's invitation from Mrs. Fraser to attend open house during Education Week. However, Mrs. Fraser will be happy still to welcome any other visitors who could not be there last week.

The Lenten Study Group at Brown's Corners on Wednesday nights is still going strong. In the neighbourhood of thirty folk were out last week, when three members from Victoria Square assisted Mr. Binnington with discussions on Sloth, one of the seven deadly sins.

Mrs. Acreman had a surprise visit from her sisters, Mrs. Gay and Mrs. Jones, at the bowling alley last week, and returned with them to stay overnight in the city. Lorraine Acreman planned a party at the bowling alley last Saturday night for Murray's birthday, taking her guests home later for fun and refreshment.

Weekend visitors with the Murray Acremans were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ewart of Toronto, visiting on Sunday with the Cummer Lees and Mr. Fred Lee. Miss Bertha Lee and Mrs. Ray Jones (Doreen Lee) will be here to spend the week of Easter with her father and brother. We are glad to note Mr. Fred Lee's progress toward recovery, although it is somewhat slow.

Mrs. Merrill Johnson, we are very happy to hear, is coming along nicely, after her long siege of illness.

Mrs. W. H. Wellman accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reaman to Goodwood on Sunday, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Spenceley, where Mr. and Mrs. Spenceley Sr. were staying and celebrating the golden wedding anniversary of their wedding on March 8, 1909.

This community offers very sincere best wishes and congratulations on their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday, March 8, to Mr. and Mrs. George Barker. George and Mabel will be at home next Sunday afternoon and evening for the occasion.

Birthday greetings to Bobby Lee, for March 16, when he will be 11; and to Albert Leek for March 17, when he will be 13 years old.

Many happy returns to Joyce Horner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Horner, three years old on March 16; and to Brian McDonald, celebrating on the same day.

Open House
 To emphasize Education Week, the teachers and pupils of Hope Public School held "Open House" on Thursday evening, March 5. Parents and friends inspected many fine examples of the children's work. Among the displays was a model town constructed by the junior grades to illustrate safety, and a fine array of science displays, set up by the senior grades. Mr. W. Hadwen was master of ceremonies for the program presented by the pupils. The program opened with scripture read by Joyce Ambrose followed by the Lord's Prayer led by Ruth Beatty and the National Anthem. Grades 3 and 4, each child dressed in appropriate costume, gave recitations describing some countries they have been studying. Grades 1 and 2 presented a choral reading followed by two songs by all members of the junior grades. "The A.B.C. Song" and "The Gumdrops Man" were those selected. The pupils were coached by their teacher Miss Monahan. Readings were given by one member of each of the senior grades. Taking part were Engleise Hansen, George Barnsdale, Wallace McKinnon and Mary Langley. The senior grades then demonstrated to everyone present their skill at square dancing. "Birdie in the Cage" was danced by Mary Langley, Joyce Ambrose, Ruth Beatty, Linda Jones, Ralph Cooper, Wallace McKinnon, Jimmy Jackson and Pat Lamonte. "Comin' Round the Mountain" by Kenneth Payne, Barry Ingram, Martha McKinnon, Lynda Riddler, Robbie Grovcock, Larry Baker, Carol Kerr and Lynne Carter. "Booms-a-Daisy" by George Barnsdale, Fred Hardy, Ricky Calder, Jean Kirby, Lynda Ingram, Carol Saywell and Beverley Barnsdale.

The senior grades demonstrated the science displays they had arranged and served refreshments to round out a delightful evening. Pupils and teachers were rewarded for their efforts by a good attendance of parents and interested friends.

W.I.
 Tuesday of last week, members of the Vellore Women's Institute travelled by bus to Toronto to tour the plants of Christie's Bread, Borden's Dairy and the new Imperial Oil Building on St. Clair Ave. W. The ladies enjoyed dinner at the Pickfair Restaurant, and report that they had a very enjoyable day. Members attending from Teston were Mrs. J. Kyle and Miss F. Gooderham.

Socials
 Mrs. George Cooper enjoyed a visit recently to this community dividing her time between the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kyle and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kyle. While here she made calls on many old friends and had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. M. Walker and daughter, Elizabeth spent the week end with Mrs. E. Carson and Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dixon of Whitby and Mr. and Mrs. Beasley of Collingwood are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Snider.

We extend sincere sympathy to the family of Mr. John Fenwick who passed away Monday, March 9. Mr. Fenwick had lived with his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Snider of Teston for many years.

Our sympathy is extended to Mr. George Thomas and family in the loss recently of a dear wife and mother.

NEWMARKET — The annual report of York County Hospital shows 4,784 patients treated in 1958 compared with 4,191 in 1957. There were 1428 births during the year, and the hospital served 120,000 meals. The deficit for the year was $64,000, and bad debts accounted for $28,533.78 and loss on indigent patients $29,185.72.

STOFFVILLE — Two district bird watchers recently discovered a rare type of owl in a swampy woods along a road near Milliken. It was found to be a rare "Richardson's Owl."
