The 4th Sunday of Lent, March 8, marked the First Anniversary of Emmanuel Church, held at Charles Howitt School. The rector, Rev. J. W. Newton-Smith said "Looking back over the past year together, we have real cause for returning thanks to God. It has been a year of real advance. As I recall the first service there were a dozen or so out. You have responded magnificently. In our Christian faith we have very life itself, but life is not something for self alone, it has to be shared with others. Sunday by Sunday, there has been an evident determination that we are going to share our faith, and are going to have a centre of our own in which to worship and play together. Because of this spirit, I know it is safe for us to embark on a building program." Mrs. Duckworth sang the Offertory solo, "How Lovely are Thy Dwelling's," after which a communion service was held.
