The Group Committee's financial campaign is now under way and letters have been sent out to residents in the school area, requesting assistance. Birthday Party
Three young squires of Turmull Manor, Peter, Paul and Steven Ratchford, entertained several guests at a joint birthday party Thursday afternoon, March 19th. The young guests were Donna and Colin Ford, Carol and Robert Hallgren, Kim and Gail Hellings. The mothers joined the festivities later on in the afternoon.

Open House
Easter was the motif at Jefferson Public School when they held open house on Thursday evening, March 19th. From the seniors down to the very young juniors the Easter season was very much in evidence. Everyone worked hard and the work was really a good thing to see. In Miss Leary's room, Grades 6-8, the work and projects were enough to gladden each parent's heart. The cut-out biographies were making everyone laugh with pleasure. The delicate egg-shell paintings, the balloon chickens were all well done efforts by children and their teacher.

Next I visited the intermediate room under the able guidance of Mrs. Burns. The project in this room was safety and a map of Canada. The paintings at the front of the room were wonders that made me wonder if maybe there weren't a few budding artists wandering free. The pencil drawings and sketches — Good show everyone!

Now we come to Grade 3-4. The big hit in this room, with Mrs. Hopkins in charge, was the modelling of hats that all the youngsters enjoyed making. Ruthie Harper won first prize with her Easter bonnet. Gail Hallgren won second prize. Again the progress that the children have made is very gratifying to see. In the grade one room the robins that spring is not far away and so hope springs eternal. Despite colds, flu and bad weather, the young ones have shown remarkable progress.

In the junior room under Miss Mott, the juniors had a wonderful display on the bulletin board and an eskimo tableau and the ingenuity shown was amazing.

The open house was very well attended and is increasing with every open house. This is showing the children and teachers how much we appreciate their efforts.

Tea was served by Mrs. S. Leno in the teachers' room. The tea table looked very attractive with a bouquet of flowers donated by Hanson's Flowers, Elgin Mills.

There will be open house at the school on April 13th for all who are interested in the cubbing program.
The Monday Niters gathered this week at the home of Mrs. T. Saul, Naughton Drive, for their game of cards. The prize winners were Mrs. I. Petersen, Mrs. Ross Kerwin, Mrs. T. Saul and Mrs. E. Hall.

Mrs. A. MacDonald visited with her sister, Mrs. S. Leno on Sunday.

Congratulations to Mrs. H. Betts on the excellent showing of her dogs. On Wednesday, March 18th, at the Sportsman's Show, Champion Tregoad Vicky's Gallant won "Best of Breed" and placed fourth in the Terrier group. This was the same dog Mrs. Betts took to Westminster recently.

On Saturday she showed two puppies. One took first in its class. The other was winner in female, best of winners and best Canadian bred puppy in the breed. She won 3 points towards her championship at 9 months of age.
